We Ratify—Mining News—School Items—Scraps of Information.

A Long, Strong Pull.

Let the business man, the mechanic, the professional man and the laborer return to their various vocations and devote their energies from this time forward to advancing their own personal interests and building up the community of which they form a part.

A Grand Treat.

Last night the two literary societies of the Willamette university met at their halls in joint session, and rendered an entertaining program which had been previously prepared.

Narrow Gauge Extension.

Several railroad projects are being thoroughly discussed by the press of the state and the indications are that Oregon will lay more railroad iron during 1889 than on any previous year.

Missionary Meetings.

Simultaneous missionary meetings are being held in the Presbyterian churches throughout the United States, and are of deep interest.

Another Candidate.

Hon. James E. Blundell, the vivacious and genial member from Douglas, who has had some experience in legislation, is ripe in years, "quick to catch on" and impartial as a judge.

A Prosperous Valley.

This is a season of great prosperity in this great valley. Thousands upon thousands of bushels of grain to be sold at fair prices; thousands upon thousands of pounds of hops for a market that is higher than has been known for years.

With a Silent Nerve.

Gov. Chadwick of Salem came up to the city Wednesday morning, not much elated by the election news but in philosopher enough not to weep over his party's defeat.

THE JOLLIFICATION TONIGHT.

The Grand Victory to be Celebrated in Salem.

To-night the goddess of victory will reign supreme and assist in the celebration of the result of the glorious national contest.

The procession will form at 6:30, with Chief Marshal Jasper Minto and aides in command, on State street with its right, the band leading, resting on Commercial.

Following this and at eight o'clock the exercises at the opera house will commence. These will consist of music and speaking.

Large numbers of persons from the country are expected to be present and join in the enthusiastic parade.

Articles of Incorporation.

To-day the following articles of incorporation were filed with the secretary of state: The Willamette Falls Electric Co. of Portland, D. P. Thompson, E. L. Eastham, P. F. Morey, R. H. Thompson, L. L. Hawkins, W. K. Smith and J. C. Moreland incorporators.

The East Side Building and Loan Association of East Portland, W. D. Pope, T. H. Parrott, A. W. Lambert, E. W. Sargent, J. K. Wait, T. Hislop incorporators.

On Down to the Sea.

"Now that the election is over," says the Astoria Pioneer, "let us build a railroad."

Certainly, let us proceed. Salem is ready and in correspondence with Astoria folks upon the matter involved, and the result of the correspondence reveals the fact that the Astorians are ready for a conference with the Salemites regarding the formation of a company at as early a day as possible.

Land of Unending Summer.

Callers at the JOURNAL office this morning were surprised to see our table spread with string beans, green peas, and ripe strawberries.

Issue Over Religion.

John Stanton was yesterday brought from Umatilla county and placed in the asylum. His insanity grows out of religious excitement.
