Miss Webbis Reception.

The home of Miss Chrrie Smith in East Salem was last night the scene of a merry party, given in ly competition; and in the second these yards are closely cropt lawns honor of Miss Lizzie Webb, who is place it will cause Portland to imabout to leave Salem and make her prove the Columbia and Willamette home in California. About fifty of Salem's belles and beaux were in attendance and a most pleasant season of games and music was indulged in. Miss Lizzie takes her departure on Tuesday for Portland where she will visit a few days before going to Fresno. Her many friends in the city regret that she is leaving us, and among others is the CAPITAL JOURNAL force, she having adjusted the movable types in this office for many months.

Can Work Every Day.

A successful gardener and horticulturist of Salem this morning told a CAPITAL JOURNAL reporter that he had never seen or heard of any other country in which the farmer could utilize quite so many days in the year. He conducts his plowing through nearly the whole winter season, being forced to cease but a few days on account of too much rain. Out door work can be prosecuted the year round, and while the eastern former is using up wheat he has prepared during the summer the Oregonian is laying up riches.

Smallpox at Lebanon.

& Dr. G. M. O'Dell of Sodaville was called on yesterday to render medical assistance to the family of Gus Thompson of Lebanon who recently died of smallpox, four members of his family being down with the been vaccinated but it did not take. Some fears are entertained of the epidemic spreading, but all efforts will be made to check it.

A Confirmed Rumor.

The rumor that there is a case of by the Leader. Mr. Samuels brought the word that a young man a few days since returned from Portland to that community and attended a dance somewhere above Monroe. He broke out with the disease on the evening of the dance. If this is true, there is almost sure to be other cases.

A New Tailoring Establishment.

G. C. Hogan has but recently arrived in Salem from Canada and opened up a first-class tailoring establishment in the State Insurance building. This morning a JOURNAL reporter paid his rooms a vis't and feasted his eyes upon a choice selection of the latest styles and best grades of material. Mr. Hogan is a fine tailor and insures a perfect fit.
