Moody at Chemawa.

The ministers and citizens of Salem who were at the depot this morning to receive Mr. Moody were disappointed, as the Reverend gentleman failed to put in an appearance. He was prevailed on to tarry at the Chemawa training school among the Indians.

His aids de camp, Studd and Burke, had preceded him there and interesting meetings were conducted.

At one o'clock the trio arrived in this city, having driven up from Chemawa. Mr. Moody will be at the M. E. church, as per program, at three o'clock this afternoon, where services will be held. Again this evening, as also at ten a. m., three p. m. and 7 p. m. to-morrow, he will speak at the M. E. church. Mr. Moody will leave Salem on Thursday noon for Eugene, where he will address the students in the afternoon, leaving on the overland train for San Francisco, where he will hold a series of meetings. These meetings will continue a few weeks and will be held in a building capable of seating 10,000. After concluding his labors at the Golden Gate he will sail for India.

Hazel Kirke.

The Boston Comedy Co., which is filling a week's engagement at the opera house in this city, opened to a pleasantly filled house last night with the old and ever popular Hazel Kirke. This is a play that is calculated to work on the sympathies of a tender heart, and as the father's curse fell on the daughter there were many eyes bedewed with tears. The final reconciliation was acceptable. The company gives a good performance, some of the characters being finely sustained, notably "Dunstan Kirke" and "Pitticus Green." They present "East Lynne" to-night and deserve a big house. This is a most forcible play, and one which they are prepared to render in good style.

A Fine Piece of Work.

The West Shore for January is to be one of the finest issues that successful journal has known. This edition is to be devoted to Salem and many superior illustrations have been prepared for it. This magazine is the only one on the coast that is prepared for the execution of such artistic work. Even from the east, Mr. Samuels receives many orders for illustrations. This New Year number of the West Shore will be a treat to your friends over the mountains. You should get a few copies and work a little as an immigration agent.

Smallpox Still at St. Louis.

And now it transpires that there is one more case of smallpox at St. Louis. This time the affliction is visited upon Rev. Vermisch, who upon a recent Sunday visited the Laehappel family where the disease was taking its course. When taken down he was at Gervais, but was immediately removed to his home near St. Louis where he is being carefully nursed.

This makes five cases of this disease in that vicinity, where two deaths have already occurred. There were but two deaths in the county out of more than a dozen cases.

Old Soldiers.

We mean YOU, Sedgwick Post No. 10, G. A. R., and the W. R. C. No. 1, of the same post, will publicly install their officers in their new hall Tuesday evening Jan. 7th, and you are most earnestly invited to come and bring your family. The army bean will be in the ascendency and a good social time is anticipated by the friends of these orders. If you were the blue we want to see you. By order of commander, Z. M. PARVIN.

W. H. BYARS, Adj't.

New Home.

The G. A. R. and the W. R. C. of Salem have leased the hall over the Oregon Land company's office, and will publicly install their officers in their new home next Tuesday evening. The organizations have been fruitful of much good and their days of usefulness are just begun.

Albany Also Afflicted.

Mrs. East and Mrs. Dayneck, who had been attending the Albany smallpox patients, have the smallpox or varioloid; but having been vaccinated and doted for the occasion it will probably be light with each of them.

Another Addition to Salem.

Messrs. Stump & Vandyne have purchased of Hon. Edward Hirsch the thirteen acre tract of land between Chemekete and State street and immediately east of the G. W. Gray residence. It is their purpose to divide it into blocks and lots and put it on the market. This is a fine body of land, in a nice locality and close enough to the business center to make desirable homes for those who wish to enter business or for the benefit of Salem's unequalled educational advantages. The consideration was $650 per acre, or $8,450 for the thirteen acres and is considered a good bargain.

Mr. Vandyne has recently located in Salem, having removed here from Independence, and shows his faith in the Capital City by depositing his money among us. Having visited the Sound country and different portions of Oregon and Washington Territory, he decided that Salem offered a better field for investment than any point he had visited. The property these gentlemen have just purchased they will have surveyed and staked off into lots at once. It is indeed desirable and will make a substantial addition to the rapidly growing Salem.

Who Pays Moody.

A great many people wonder how Moody is paid. The Telegram says it is a question which few can answer, because the reverend gentleman refuses absolutely to talk on matters with representatives of the press. "The Lord leads me, He feeds me and He clothes me," said he, when questioned upon the subject, "and he will give me all the money I want, and at my time." One of the committee said to a reporter: "We are not going to pay him a cent. He never takes pay for his work. He will not permit a collection to be taken in his audience. However his expenses are paid by us, and we intend to present him with a purse when he leaves, probably $500. But he wont use the money for himself. He has numerous charitable institutions which he constantly feeds, besides a boys' and girls' school in his native New Hampshire village."

Santiam Claim Jumping.

W. R. Bilyeu and A. B. Woodin returned yesterday evening from Lyonsville, where they have been to look after the interests of Mr. Woodin and others in a Santiam mining claim jumped by Dr. E. O. Smith of Salem. Saturday Mr. Massey, who had been sent to do work on the mine, was tried before Justice Lyons at Lyonsville on the charge preferred by Dr. Smith of stealing quartz. "Although the Justice admitted," says the Democrat, "that he was probably not guilty of the theft he was held under $100 bonds to await the action of the grand jury, and of course the grand jury will do nothing with him. When Dr. Smith gets through with this business he will find himself dangling at the little end of the horn. It is such men as the Doctor who evidently need being preached at by Moody."

Many Students Coming.

And now we are informed that the college association which it was reported would be held in Albany on January 3rd will be held at the University in Salem. Mr. Jaggs, Grand Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. and who makes engagements for Mr. Moody, was here Friday and Saturday making the necessary arrangements. It is expected a large number from Albany and different points will be here to hear the evangelist on this occasion.

"After Swinburne."

"Mine eyes to my eyelids cling thickly, My tongue feels a mouthful and more, My senses are sluggish and sickly, To live and to breathe is a bore. My head weighs a ton and a quarter, My pains and my pangs ever split, Which manifold washings with water Relieve not a bit."

After Swinburne these lines may be a long way after for that matter, by what a description of the man whose bowels are constive, liver disordered, blood out of sorts. Such an individual needs Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. They are pleasant to take and powerful to cure.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures all those peculiar weakness incident to females.

The Total Eclipse.

The sun started in the New Year to-day with an eclipse. According to the almanacs the eclipse set for this day was to be total, but on account of the clouds it has been in a state of eclipse that approached totally all day. An occasional glimpse of Old Sol has been had today, but smoked glasses were not in demand, and the eclipse has been a failure so far as we are concerned.

Can you imagine any ailment that will make a good natured person so peevish, dissatisfied, ill tempered and cranky as biliousness? There is no reason, whatever, why anyone should suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia, torpid liver and loss of appetite, when Dr. Pierce's Dandelion Tonic, which everyone knows is a certain cure, can be so easily obtained. Sold by D. W. Matthews & Co.

OCCIDENTAL JOTTINGS.

News And Notes of a General Interest to the Westerner.

There are several cases of smallpox in Spokane Falls.

An Oregon land agency is to be established in San Francisco.

Five hundred Chinamen are said to have left Portland since the Second street affray.

The comptroller of the currency has authorized the National Bank of Heppner, Oregon, to commence business, with a capital of $50,000.

Her citizens are trying to induce a Californian to establish a fruit and vegetable cannery at Eugene. Such an enterprise would be a great benefit to the farmers of that county.

J. McPherson, the Salem mining expert, has discovered a few excellent ledges near Jacksonville and Gold Hill, and expects to astonish everybody in due course of time.

A division of Umatilla county is again proposed. It is advocated by residents of the northern and eastern part of the county. For the new county Lee is the name suggested.

Over five million feet of the finest of logs have been placed in the Mohawk river, for several different sawmills. The parties interested are now waiting patiently for a high raise of the river to float them out.

Mr. Moody said he got Albany confused with Salem, hence the mistake. The confusion was an unfortunate one for Albany and we feel the humiliation. We hope Mr. Moody will have no objection to Albany people sitting on the fence and seeing him go by, because really our curiosity is at high water mark.—Democrat.

Grave Creek, in Southern Oregon, derived its name from the circumstance of a Miss Leland having died and been buried on the banks of the stream in 1846. The Indians opened the grave, denuded the body, which they left lying near the grave. Friends returning in a few days after their cattle discovered the body and reburied it. The postoffice there is called Leland in her honor.

W. F. Butcher, a young lawyer of Umatilla county, was arrested in the fall of 1886 by a Kansas sheriff under a requisition from the governor of Kansas, charged with stealing a mule in that state. It turned out that Butcher was not the man. He brought suit against the sheriff for $10,000 damages for false imprisonment, and has just secured a judgment for $3,000 in a Kansas court.

Pend d' Oreilleis of French origin, and means "the hanging from the ear." It was given by the Hudson Bay Company to those Indians because they wore long ear pendants. Coeur d'Alene is likewise of French origin, signifies "the heart of an awl," and was also given by the Hudson Bay Company to that tribe, as they were sharper in the trade, so that the traders said among themselves, "Look out, they will pierce you."

Wheat at a Stand-Still.

The Salem wheat market continues demoralized. The price now being paid is 70 cents with none selling. A rise at Chicago has a tendency to stimulate the market and may send it up a few cents.

A Punctuation Puzzle.

The following article forcibly illustrates the necessity of proper punctuation. It can be read in two ways, describing a very bad man, or a very good man, the result depending upon the manner in which it is punctuated: It is an old man and experienced in vice and wickedness he is never found in opposing the works of iniquity he takes delight in the downfall of his neighbors he never rejoices in the prosperity of his fellow-creatures he is always ready to assist in destroying the peace of society he takes no pleasure in serving the Lord he is unconcerned in sowing discord among his friends and acquaintances he takes no pride in laboring to promote the cause of Christianity he has not been negligent in endeavoring to stigmatize all public teachers he makes no effort to subdue his passions he strives hard to build up Satan's Kingdom he lends no aid to the support of the gospel among the heathens he contributes largely to the devil he will never go to heaven so where he must select the just recompense of reward.
