THE QUESTION OF THE DAY. PROTECTION OR FREE TRADE? An Examination of the Tariff Question with Especial Regard to the Interests of Labor. BY HENRY GEORGE. CLOTH, $1.50. PAPER, 50 CENTS. This is the clearest, fairest, most interesting and most complete examination of the tariff question yet made, and will prove invaluable to all who wish to understand the subject. The most thorough investigation of the subject that has yet been put in type—New York News. The appearance of this book marks a new epoch in the world-wide struggle for free trade. Henry George has a power of writing economic truths in such a clear and homely language that any child can understand him, while the most learned man can enjoy the accuracy of his statements and the suggestiveness of his thoughts. Whoever wants to see the strongest argument—not only against protection, but against all tariffs—will find it here—Christian Union. The singular success of Mr. George is that he has made political economy interesting.—Unitarian Review. A book which every workman in the land can read with interest and ought to read.—New York Herald.
