PERSONALS.

Those Who Were Cured of Catarah, Deafness, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Heart, Liver, and Kidneys, and Various Other Complaints.

Drs. Darrin submit the following list of names as reference of their cures:

Wesley Graves, formerly of the Chemekete hotel, Salem, Oregon, now residing at Moscow, Idaho—Cured of Sciatic rheumatism and the opium habit.

C. McLaughlin, corner of Nineteenth and Jefferson streets, Portland—Catarrah deafness, could scarcely hear a sound or the car bells and was in constant fear of being run over by wagons, cured so he can hear ordinary conversation.

Mrs. S. Wooden's girl, 94 Fifth street, Portland—Nervous debility and malarial fever and discharging ear, restored.

Mrs. Mervie Gebfort, Seattle, W. T.—Boy five years old, deaf since 16 months old; discharging ears and catarah entirely cured after several treatments.

J. S. Ryckman, Knappa, Ogn, can be referred to in reference to the successful treatment of himself and wife for skin diseases and catarah, and other ailments.

Frederick Mohs, Sprague, W. T.—Catarah, general debility and bronchitis, etc. His wife cured also of dropsy and varicose veins, milk leg and running sore.

T. L. Mills, 30 Columbia street, Portland—Soreness through the kidneys, liver and stomach, inflammation of the prostate gland and catarah of the bladder, restored to health.

A. A. Durham, Tualatin, Washington Co., Or., writes that Drs. Darrin are working wonders on his kidney and bladder troubles; also rheumatism of thirty years' standing.

Geo. B. Henry, janitor, Odd Fellows' hall, 141 First street, Portland—Chronic catarah 10 years. Had despaired of ever being cured. Has had no symptoms of it for months.

Mrs. Mary Cline, West Union, Or., (formerly of Sauvie's Island, Or.)—Complication of diseases peculiar to her sex; liver and kidney trouble, rheumatism and dyspepsia—restored.

Truman Butler, The Dalles, Oregon, chronic rheumatism and contracted joints and impoverished blood, all of years' standing, given up by all treatments until Drs. Darrin cured him.

C. V. Fowler, Yakima, W. T., total deafness in one ear, cured in ten minutes. Also a pterygium, or fleshy growth, was removed from his eye which had nearly rendered him blind.

Mrs. M. Rebe, 143 Water street, Portland—Pimples and blotches on the face for years, pains in the back and disease peculiar to her sex cured, also, her son was cured of cross eyes.

Mrs. F. E. Dewey, 361 18th street, East Portland, nervous and general debility, heart disease, dyspepsia, liver complaint and female troubles in all its various complications, permanently cured.

Mrs. W. H. Austin, the International hotel, Portland, confined to her room nine months with an eye affliction, called "nervous abhorrence of light," accompanied with inflammation, cured.

Mrs. J. J. Evans, living on the White House road, Portland, neuralgia of the stomach and heart, weak lungs and greatly emaciated, cured and gained ten pounds in two months.

Mrs. A. Banister, Meadow, Lewis county, W. T.—Excruciating pains in eye balls, liver and kidney complaint, deafness 31 years, and a lump in her side thought to be an ovarian tumor, cured.

Wm. M. Colwell, Skamokawa, W. T., sciatic rheumatism and liver complaint, restored to health; also his brother, George L. Colwell, Skamokawa, W. T., was cured of a numbness of the arm.

Mrs. E. Ahlf, 190, North Fourteenth street, Portland cured after nine doctors had failed, of painful menstruation and womo trouble in every conceivable way, general debility, pain through the heart and lungs.

Charles Christerman, Portland, Ogn., serofulous catarah so bad that destruction of his nose was threatened and had become so offensive that it was sickening both to himself and friends, cured in two months.

Levi Bartimas, Stayton, Oregon heart disease, dyspepsia, pain thro' the heart and lungs, and general nervous debility; many times he would fall as though dead, when everything seemed to turn black before his eyes, successfully treated.

D. Campbell, Fulton, Oregon, says he would not take $10,000 for the cure he received by Dr. Darrin. He says his trouble originated by three small lumps or tumors coming on the arm, which rendered his arm and hand perfectly helpless for one year.

OFFICE HOURS AND PLACE OF BUSINESS. Drs. Darrin can be consulted free at the Chemekete Hotel, Salem, Or., for a short time only.

They will under no circumstances take a case they cannot cure or benefit. Charges are reasonable, and the poor treated free from 9 to 10 a. m. daily. Office hours from 10 to 4 daily; evenings, 7 to 8; Sundays, 10 to 12. All curable chronic diseases, loss of manhood, blood taints, syphilis, gleet, gonorrhoea, stricture, spermatorrhoea, seminal weakness, or loss of desire of sexual power in man or woman, catarah or deafness, are confidentially and successfully treated.

Cures of private diseases guaranteed and never published in the papers. Circulars sent free. Most cases can receive home treatment after a visit to the Doctor's office.

N. B. The doctors' stay in this city is limited.

Queer Cures for Pneumonia. Attention has lately been directed to the benefit derivable, in cases of pneumonia, where there is a great embarrassment of breathing from accumulated secretion in the bronchial tubes, by inverting the patient, and having him cough violently while in such position. It is easily accomplished by strong assistant standing on the patient's bed, seizing the sick man, turning his face downward, and then lifting his feet four or five feet above the level of the mattress. If the patient, with his face over the edge of the bed and his legs thus held aloft, will cough vigorously two or three times, he will get rid of much expectoration that exhaustive efforts at coughing failed to dislodge when not thus aided.

Life has been saved by repeated performances of this maneuver in pneumonia accompanied with great cyanosis, due to induration of the bronchial tubes with mucous secretion. It, of course, will have no effect on the exudus in the vesicles. In similar way, gravity is of value in emptying the lungs of mucus during etherization.—N. Y. Tribune.

A woman's name is like some tender flower and should be handled just as carefully. A man will never make use of an honest woman's name at an improper time or in mixed company. He will not make assertions about her which he knows to be false or make allusions about her which the world would blush to hear. Men will not do these things, but creatures called men very often do them. They do not hesitate to make the most reckless assertions about women, at the most unsuitable time and in the most disgusting manner. The vile creature who continually making such remarks should be shunned by all true men as deadly poison. He is an ulcerous cancer to the community. Being low to all sense of honor or shame, he outrages decency, defames character and is a libel on humanity. Such vile and filthy creatures contaminate the boys and youths of the land. This is the great school of vice and crime whose instructions are more widespread than the circulation of the newspaper. It contaminates the heart, roots out purity, subverts virtue, and blasts all that is pure and noble in manhood. It is the base of youth—the bitter wormwood of the soul, the foul a imiquity. The man who has no respect for a woman is ruder than a savage. A malefactor of the deepest dye; a criminal with a darkened soul steeped in the depths of degradation. He is unfit to live in decent society, and is certainly not prepared to die.

TELEGRAPHIC TIDINGS.

Important Events of the Whole World for Twenty-four Hours.

A War With Maniacs.

AUBURN, N. Y., Jan. 5.—Last night five inmates of the criminal insane asylum here made a desperate break for freedom. One attendant had been left in charge of the hall, in which were forty-four prisoners. At a favorable opportunity five men sprang upon him and in their eagerness to secure him nearly tore the clothing from his body. With the keys the gang opened the door leading to the yard. Here they encountered another attendant and another battle took place. The officer broke his musket in pieces over their bodies. The insane men triumphed but gained the open air only to be met by a third attendant who fired into the gang, disabling one of them. This shot alarmed the other keepers, who, after a hard tussle, secured the mad men and returned them to their cells.

An Attempted Robbery.

SAN FERNANDO, Cal., Jan. 6.—An attempt was made to rob the railroad ticket office here yesterday morning. The robbers appeared at the narrow window and ordered the night operator Van Anker to throw up his hands. Van Anker immediately fired at the robbers and the shot was returned, but neither took effect. Van Anker fired again and it is believed he struck his man although the robber escaped, together with the two men who were with him. Ten suspicious characters were arrested this morning.

Decidedly Romantic.

MONTREAL, Jan. 6.—A man named Chas. Est went to California eighteen years ago to seek his fortune. After some time news reached his wife that he was dead. She was married again but subsequently her second husband was killed in an accident. She then married a third husband. A short time since the first husband appeared upon the scene with $30,000. He wished to live with his wife, but she declined. The case is likely to come before the courts.

Blaine, Blaine, James G. Blaine.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—A Washington special of the 5th, says: The republican senators opposed to Blaine were disturbed to-day by the news that Harrison was determined that he could not escape the necessity of offering Blaine a seat in the Cabinet. This is not a rumor, but a fact. General Harrison said as much to one of his senatorial callers.

A Bold Bad Preacher.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 6.—Rev. Andrew W. Wood, a prominent minister of this city, and well known in Portland, Ogn., where he preached for some time, has been sued for a divorce by his wife, who is an invalid. Mrs. Wood accuses her husband of ill treatment and showing too much attention to Mrs. Nancy Ball, a young widow.

Pacific Coast Patronage.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 6.—A special from Washington says: The Pacific slope congressmen have pretty good grounds for believing that their section is going to have a cabinet place. John F. Swift, the republican candidate for governor at the last election, is regarded as the coming man.

$50,000 Reward For Him.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Jan. 6.—Great excitement prevails at Leo, a small village near here, over the arrest of a man supposed to be Tascott, the murderer of millionaire Snell at Chicago.

A Plea For Admission.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—President pro tem Ingalls has laid before the senate a memorial from the Common Council of Seattle praying for the admission of Washington Territory as a state.

Montana's Mines.

HELENA, Jan. 7.—It is estimated that the total output of the gold, silver, lead and copper mines of Montana for the year was between $80,000,000 and $85,000,000 an increase of $10,000,000 over 1887.
