Gentlemen:—We had the pleasure recently ... shipment to you of our new "White Cross" Extracts, and send you by mail to-day a very neat show card which we would like you to place prominently in your store, and which will call the attention of your trade to the goods.

It has been our intention for some time past to place upon the market the finest line of flavoring extracts manufactured in this country, and after months of study and experimenting with the prominent brands now before the public we have at last succeded in placing before you a quality which beyond doubt has no superior.

We can not too strongly impress upon you that you can unhesitatingly recommend them to your customers as the finest that can possibly be manufactured. The package and style generally is such as to attract attention, and we predict that when your trade have tested the quality of the goods your sale for "White Cross" extracts will be large.

By complying with our request you will confer a favor upon yours truly.

THE QUESTION OF THE DAY.

PROTECTION OR FREE TRADE?

An Examination of the Tariff Question with Especial Regard to the Interests of Labor.

BY HENRY GEORGE.

CLOTH, $1.50. PAPER, 35 CENTS.

This is the clearest, fairest, most interesting and most complete examination of the tariff question yet made, and will prove invaluable to all who wish to understand the subject.

The most thorough investigation of the subject that has yet been put in type—New York News.

The appearance of this book marks a new epoch in the world-wide struggle for free trade. Henry George has a power of putting economic truths in such a clear and limpid language that any child can understand him, while the most learned man can enjoy the accuracy of his statements and the suggestiveness of his thoughts.—Thomas G. Shearman in New York Star.

Whoever wants to see the strongest argument—not only against protection, but against all tariffs—will find it here.—Christian Union.

The singular success of Mr. George is that he has made political economy interesting.—Unitarian Review.

A book which every workingman in the land can read with interest and ought to read.—New York Herald.
