PERSONALS.

Those Who Were Cured of Catarah. Deafness, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Heart, Liver, and Kidneys, and Various Other Complaints.

Drs. Darrin submit the following list of names as reference of their cures:

Wesley Graves, formerly of the Chemekete hotel, Salem, Oregon, now residing at Moscow, Idaho—Cured of Sciatic rheumatism and the opium habit.

C. McLaughlin, corner of Nineteenth and Jefferson streets, Portland—Catarah deafness, could scarcely hear a sound or the car bells and was in constant fear of being run over by wagons, cured so he can hear ordinary conversation.

Mrs. S. Wooden's girl, 94 Fifth street, Portland—Nervous debility and malarial fever and discharging ear, restored.

Mrs. Mervie Gebfort, Seattle, W. T.—Boy five years old, deaf since 16 months old; discharging ears and catarrh entirely cured after several treatments.

J. S. Ryekman, Knapps, Ogn, can be referred to in reference to the successful treatment of himself and wife for skin diseases and catarrh, and other ailments.

Frederick Mohs, Sprague, W. T.—Catarah, general debility and bronchitis, etc. His wife cured also of dropsy and varicose veins, milk leg and running sore.

T. L. Mills, 30 Columbia street, Portland—Soreness through the kidneys, liver and stomach, inflammation of the prostate gland and catarrh of the bladder, restored to health.

A. A. Durham, Tualatin, Washington Co., Or., writes that Drs. Darrin are working wonders on his kidney and bladder troubles; also rheumatism of thirty years' standing.

Geo. B. Henry, janitor, Odd Fellows' hall, 141 First street, Portland—Chronic catarrh 10 years. Had despaired of ever being cured. Has had no symptoms of it for months.

Mrs. Mary Cline, West Union, Or., (formerly of Sauvie's Island, Or.)—Complication of diseases peculiar to her sex; liver and kidney trouble, rheumatism and dyspepsia—restored.

Troman Butler, The Dalles, Oregon, chronic rheumatism and contracted joints and impoverished blood, all of years' standing, given up by all treatments until Drs. Darrin cured him.

C. V. Fowler, Yakima, W. T., total deafness in one ear, cured in ten minutes. Also a pterygium, or fleshy growth, was removed from his eye which had nearly rendered him blind.

Mrs. M. Rebe, 148 Water street, Port and—Pimples and blotches on the face for years, pains in the back and disease peculiar to her sex cured, also, her son was cured of cross eyes.

Mrs. F. E. Dewey, 561 18th street, East Portland, nervous and general debility, heart disease, dyspepsia, liver complaint and female troubles in all its various complications, permanently cured.

Mrs. J. J. Evans, living on the International hotel, Portland, confined to her room nine months with an eye affliction, called "nervous abhorrence of light," accompanied with inflammation, cured.

Mrs. J. J. Evans, living on the White House road, Portland, neuralgia of the stomach and heart, weak lungs and greatly emaciated, cured and gained ten pounds in two months.

Mrs. A. Baniester, Meadow, Lewis county, W. T.—Exercising pains in eye balls, liver and kidney complaint, deafness 31 years, and a lump in her side thought to be an ovarian tumor, cured.

Wm. M. Colwell, Skamokawa, W. T., sciatic rheumatism and liver complaint, restored to health; also his brother, George L. Colwell, Skamokawa, W. T., was cured of a numbness of the arm.

Mrs. E. Ahl, 190, North Fourth street, Portland cured after nine doctors had failed, of painful menstruation and womb trouble in every conceivable way, general debility, pain through the heart and lungs.

Charles Christerman, Portland, Ogn., scrofulous catarrh so bad that destruction of his nose was threatened and had become so offensive that it was sickening both to himself and friends, cured in two months.

Levi Bartimas, Stayton, Oregon heart disease, dyspepsia, pain thro' the heart and lungs, and general nervous debility; many times he would fall as though dead, when everything seemed to turn black before his eyes, successfully treated.

D. Campbell, Fulton, Oregon, says he would not take $10,000 for the cure he received by Dr. Darrin. He says his trouble originated by three small lumps or tumors coming on the arm, which rendered his arm and hand perfectly helpless for one year.

OFFICE HOURS AND PLACE OF BUSINESS.

Drs. Darrin can be consulted free at the Chemekete Hotel, Salem, Or., for a short time only.

They will under no circumstances take a case they cannot cure or benefit. Charges are reasonable, and the poor treated free from 9 to 10 a. m. daily. Office hours from 10 to 4 daily; evenings, 7 to 8; Sundays, 10 to 12. All curable chronic diseases, loss of manhood, blood taints, syphilis, gleet, gonorrhoea, stricture, soerematorrhoea, seminal weakness, or loss of desire of sexual power in man or woman, catarrh or deafness, are confidentially and successfully treated.

Cures of private diseases guaranteed and never published in the papers. Circulars sent free. Most cases can receive home treatment after a visit to the Doctor's office.

N. B. The doctors' stay in this city is limited.

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

Breezy Correspondence From the Towns Around Us.

JEFFERSON ITEMS.

On Sunday morning at the close of Sunday school at the M. E. church at Jefferson the children completely surprised W. T. Rigdon, the retiring superintendent, by calling him forward and presenting to him an Oxford Teacher's Bible. It was presented by Miss Leafy Carl, as a token of the school's appreciation of his long and faithful services.

He has been superintendent of the Jefferson M. E. Sunday school for fifteen consecutive years, with the exception of about a year and a half, while living in Portland.

As Mr. Rigdon is preparing to move to Salem, the Sunday school will miss him very much, but the children wish him success in his new field of labor.

WEST STATON NOTES.

John McCune is on the sick list. Our Narrow gauge railroad is being furnished with new ties.

Ernest Neal, eight year old son of C. Neal, had a pitchfork run entirely through his leg. Two younger children of the family have the chicken pox.

Alice McKinney, Lura Skinner, Frank Skiff and A. O. Condit of Salem, Mrs. Morris and daughter of Turner spent the holidays in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Mother went to spend Christmas with their friends in the hills west of Turner. While there Mrs. Mother was taken with lung fever and has been unable to return home.

E. E. Porter and L. W. Condit report the surprise party at Mr. Walker's on the night of Dec. 31st, as a success. The evening was pleasantly spent in singing and other amusements. Popcorn balls and a nice lunch were served. There were about thirty present.

Small Catarah is probably one of the most disagreeable ailments that a person can be afflicted with. It causes the eyes to be sore and even causes the eyes to be inflamed, according to directions, morning and evening, a radical cure can in most cases be effected.

Albany and Astoria.

ALBANY, Jan. 8.—An enthusiastic meeting of citizens was held last night for the purpose of organizing a company to co-operate with the Astoria & South Coast Railway Co. in the construction of the proposed railroad line from Astoria to connect with the Oregon Pacific at this city.

The meeting was attended by many of the most influential and wealthy citizens of the city, who had assembled with a determination to take definite steps in the matter. S. E. Young was chosen chairman of the meeting and F. P. Nutting, secretary.

Enthusiastic speeches were made by leading citizens, and communications were read from E. C. Holden, secretary of the Astoria chamber of commerce, and from the citizens of Independence expressing a desire to join with Albany concerning the building of the proposed road.

It was decided that a company be incorporated at once for the purpose of co-operating with Astoria in building the road, the Herald says and to this end a committee of five was appointed to draw up articles of incorporation to be submitted at a subsequent meeting to be called by the chairman.

The committee named was George E. Chamberlain, H. H. Hewitt, C. E. Wolverton, H. Bryant and J. K. Weatherford.

A meeting to adopt the articles of incorporation will be held early next week, after which the company will be duly incorporated.

Judge Lynch's Court.

SEATTLE, Jan. 8.—Alfred Schaffer, a Bohemian, fired a heavy charge of giant powder, under the house of George Bodala, at Gilman, yesterday morning, instantly killing John and Michael Scherriek and Anna, the nine-year-old child of Bodala, and badly wounding Bodala, his wife and little son and another daughter.

Schaffer was found by the people of Gilman at his own house after the explosion, every indication pointing to him as the perpetrator of the deed. He was placed under arrest and turned over to the sheriff yesterday afternoon. A crowd of a hundred broke open the door of the house where Schaffer was confined, took him to a tree and strung him up, first trying to make him confess. He refused and was hanged up. After thirty seconds he was taken down again and given another chance to confess. Still declining, he was again elevated and cut down for the second time, after forty-five seconds. He was then very weak and efforts to make him divulge being still fruitless he was hanged for the third and last time.

The Real Live Murchison.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 8.—The mystery as to the real name of Murchison the now famous Pomona correspondent of Lord Sackville, was cleared away yesterday and the announcement made, on authority of those who have been in the secret from the first, that George Osgoodby, of Pomona, was the author of the Murchison letter. Osgoodby is a native of New York, and 34 years of age. His father is an Englishman by birth, and resides in Pomona, as does also a brother. Murchison is a family name, and is attached to that of Osgoodby by marriage.

A Princess' Lucky Escape.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 7.—Princess Lieven, while sleighriding at Clark-off, attempted to cross the railway track, and the train rapidly approaching struck the sleigh and killed the coachman. The princess was hurled to the middle of the track, where she lay senseless. The train passed over her, but did her no injury.

An Oriental Famine.

SHANGHAI, Jan. 4.—Famine and drouth are prevailing in the interior and are increasing in severity, causing terrible sufferings. In the province of Shan-Tung crops have been destroyed by the overflow of the Yellow river.
