KEEP OUT OF DEBT.

The veteran editor of the Iowa State Register relates a personal experience which conveys a lesson that ought to be studied by every farmer in the Northwest. Debt is a burden, sometimes a necessary one; but often the necessity is imaginary, not real.

OREGON LEGISLATURE.

The fifteenth regular session of the Oregon legislature is fully organized and to-day entered upon its duty of correcting and making laws for the state.

WELL, will surprises never cease? Here we have been wondering and wondering what had become of our highly esteemed editorial friend, Clare B. Irvine and wonderment reached its climax on receipt of the CAPITAL JOURNAL published at Salem, Oregon, by W. H. Byars, editor, and Clare B. Irvine manager.

WHO SAID SO?

It was reported a few days ago that Senator J. N. Dolph was in Salem—a guest at the Chemekete hotel. It may be seen by our dispatches that the senator is still at his post in Washington looking after the interests of the state.

In the opinion of an eminent doctor, some common kinds of mould may give rise to diphtheria. Instances are given in which serious outbreaks have been traced to the mould developed on the wet plaster of leaky walls, while old fleeces of wool and mouldy skins appear also to be sources of diphtheritic infection.

THE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

“What would lawyers think of a law school with a board of directors composed of three farmers to one lawyer? And yet some people wonder why the Vermont Agricultural College—managed by six lawyers to two farmers—does not gain the full confidence and sympathy of the masses of the agricultural community.

The Farmers' Congress.

The adjourned session of the Oregon branch of the national farmers' congress was held yesterday afternoon in the hall over the Grange store. President Wilkins was in the chair. After an enthusiastic meeting, which was addressed by Judge Boise, Prof. Rork, J. P. Robertson, Chas. Miller, and State Master Hayes of the Grange, an adjournment was taken until ten o'clock this morning, when a continuation of the discussion was made.

There was lack neither of fact nor sense in several speeches, the only point of difference being as to whether it is best to complement the work of the Grange or all unite in that order.

MARRIED.

LUNN-HOLMAN.—At the residence of the bride's parents in Salem, at 10 a. m., Monday, January 14, 1889, J. H. Lunn and Miss Victoria A. Holman, Rev. W. Rollins officiating.

The plain announcement in the CAPITAL JOURNAL of yesterday conveyed to their many friends the intelligence of the marriage of one of Salem's most popular gentlemen, J. H. Lunn, and one of the capital city's favorite ladies, Miss Victoria A. Holman. The marriage ceremony was performed in the presence of a small party of relatives and family friends, who, with a large circle of friends and acquaintances, extend to them their warmest congratulations.

Following the ceremony a sumptuous feast was spread, which was highly enjoyed by the assembled well-wishers. The bridal party left on yesterday afternoon's train for Portland, en route to New York, where they will spend several weeks in sight seeing.

Three Days in a Horse's Body.

Capt. Grozier, a ranchman, got caught in the snowstorm while on his way from his ranch on Diamond creek to Clifton, a small mining camp. He was mounted, but soon lost his way. He had neither a gun with him to discharge and thus attract attention and help, nor matches to start a fire. All he had was a pocket knife. When he found he was fast getting benumbed he killed his horse with the knife, took out the entrails and crawled into the warm carcass, leaving only the liver inside. Completely covered up with snow he remained in his retreat for three days eating, meanwhile a portion of the horse's liver. When he was missing a party went out to hunt for him and was successful in its search. He was taken to Fairview, a mining camp on the Cuddito Negro creek. He is badly frostbitten.—El Paso Herald.

What He Dreaded.

“You have been a very faithful employe,” said the editor and proprietor of the Wayback Herald to his assistant; “and now I propose rewarding your fidelity by giving you a share in the business—by admitting you to partnership.” “Oh, don't, I beg of you!” replied the assistant, in dismay. “Remember that I have a family to support! Reduce my salary to seven dollars a week, if necessary but don't make me a partner. You won't do it, will you?”

Are We to Have Another War?

Some political prophets aver that we shall. Be that as it may, the battle waged by medical science against disease will never cease until we arrive at that utopian epoch when the human family shall cease to be afflicted with bodily ailments. One of the most potent weapons which the armory of medicine furnishes, is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which is of special utility as a family remedy, as it is adapted to immediate relief and ultimate cure of those disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels which are of commonest occurrence. Indigestion, biliousness and constipation are inseparable companions, and these ailments are completely eradicated by the Bitters. But the remedial scope of this superlatively wholesome and genial medicine takes in also nervous ailments, rheumatism and kidney troubles; its action in these, as in the other complaints, being characterized by unequalled thoroughness.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL.

The Capitol Adventure Co. was incorporated in March, 1886. Their principal business house and office are in the Opera House, double corner on Court and Liberty streets, Salem. They do a general merchandise business, and in connection do an auctioneering and commission business, buy and sell real estate, cattle, horses and also act as appraisers, administrators, assignees and accountants. They have experienced help that are competent to act in all the above capacities on short notice. The best of references can be given as required, and bonds to any amount necessary. They have given the best of satisfaction as appraisers and assignees.

The Capitol Adventure Co. have, for the short time they have been in business, shown to the public that they are doing a legitimate business, worthy of their patronage. Among their patrons you will find the best farmers, who exchange their products to them for their wares; the mechanics and laborers, who know the value of a dollar, and where to invest it; also the refined and talented people go there for their elegant wares. The immigrants soon find themselves at home at the opera house corner, for the reason that the Capitol Adventure Co. sell from ten to twenty-five per cent. cheaper than any other house in the state, for the following reasons:

First, They buy from first hands in large quantities. They save the profits of the middle men. They save in freight. They also have the advantage of buying bankrupt stocks, and also very often reliable merchants who are pushed for funds sell them the best of goods at twenty to thirty per cent. discount for cash.

Second, They have leased the elegant Opera House building for a long time for almost nominal rent. They have the most commodious and best lighted store rooms in the city. They carry a full and complete stock of dry goods, clothing, hats, boots and shoes, ladies' and gents, furnishing goods, jewelry and silverware, notions, stationery and cutlery, groceries, in fact a general variety such as are usually kept in a first class store. The Capitol Adventure Co. is about the only firm in Salem that tries to command the farmers' trade by buying all their merchantable products, and they retail the farmers' products the same prices they pay, thus saving to the mechanics and laborers from ten to twenty per cent. for the real necessities of life. Therefore the Capitol Adventure Co. asks for the continuance of the public's patronage. You will find them at the Opera House corner, Court and Liberty streets, Salem, Oregon. EUGENE WILLIS, S. FRIEDMAN, Secretary. Manager.
