

CAPITAL CITY NEWS.

Recital of the Daily Doings Compiled From Various Sources.

Happenings Over the City and News From the Country.

New Portland Was Named.

It is not generally known how the city of Portland received her name and the following note was related to a JOURNAL reporter last evening by Chas. Hellenbrand. A man by the name of Frank Pettigo and his partner took up a claim where Portland is now located. When a small settlement was started the question arose as to what it should be called. Mr. Pettigo insisted on naming it after his native town Portland, Me., but his partner insisted on some other name. The matter was settled by tossing up a coin, and Pettigo was the lucky man, therefore they named it Portland.

Howard Succumb.

Frank Howard, the desperate five year convict who cut his hand off to avoid work, has relented and now says that as soon as he is able he will go to work. His arm is paining him considerably now, but W. W. Saunders, in the absence of medical attendants, carefully looks after the bandages, and sees that all goes well. Howard until this morning declared that his right hand should follow his left before he would perform labor, but calm afterthought and painful meditation have brought the convict to a realization of his position and he has decided it is better to succumb.

The Murderer Will Hang.

In the decisions of the supreme court yesterday evening was one opinion handed down by Justice Strahan affirming the decision of the circuit court. It was in the case of the state of Oregon vs. Patrick McGinnis, appealed from Grant county. McGinnis is the condemned murderer for whom Governor Penneyer a few weeks ago granted a respite of sixty days that the case might be presented to the supreme court for rehearing. The decision as given by Justice Strahan gives the man no further lease of life and he will hang at Canyon City within a few weeks.

Silverton Goes Dry.

The city council of Silverton met last night and refused to renew the dram-shop license of the one saloon that is now running there, the license of which expires on Wednesday. This will leave Silverton without a saloon. There is considerable objection made to the action of the council in this matter, as it leaves the city without her customary revenue of $300 per year. The vote of the council stood four against the saloon to one for it.

The Independence Robbery.

The sensational robbery that occurred at Independence about Christmas time is about to meet with solution. The theft was that of $1100 in greenbacks and several checks from an old trunk. The man who is suspected of the crime is now in Portland where he is closely shadowed and any attempt to pass any of the stolen money will be followed by his arrest.

The Annual Meeting.

To-night at the council chamber will be held the regular annual meeting of the Salem Board of Trade. A full attendance is earnestly desired, as there will be several matters of prime import proposed for discussion. The matter of advertising Salem in the East will be talked of as also the Salem, Tillamook and Astoria R. R.

Soon be Ready For Business.

The new real estate firm of Duncan, Ellis & Booth, recently organized in this city, will soon be ready for business. Their office will be on State street, near that of Thomas & Payne. These gentlemen are full of enterprise and are sure of success.

Two Hours Late.

The overland train from San Francisco was two hours late this morning. The delay was occasioned by the engine coming in collision with a cow, down about Cow Creek canyon. The engine was derailed.

Known in Salem.

Morris Johnson, who with Agnes Woodward, is held to answer to the murder of Frank Cunningham a few weeks ago, is well known in Salem, where he stopped several months a few years ago.

Why We Smile.

The CAPITAL JOURNAL is publishing biographical sketches of the members of the legislature. That is an enterprising paper in more ways than one.—Umpqua Herald.

HE WAS AN INSANE MAN.

Dearborn The Drugged Man Taken to the Asylum.

F. W. Dearborn, the man who says he was drugged on Saturday night, has not yet recovered from the effects of the dope administered him by "his old acquaintance." He passed a very miserable night. He but recently arrived in Salem from St. Johnsbury, Vt. He says there is not a reasonable doubt but that he was drugged and for what purpose other than robbery cannot be imagined, the "morning clip" to the contrary notwithstanding. Mr. Dearborn was seen by a JOURNAL reporter and gave the facts as presented in Monday's JOURNAL, but wished the matter kept quiet as he was a stranger here and its publicity he thought might injure him in securing work.

It transpires that Dearborn is an insane patient who had been released as cured. He came to Oregon three months ago and has been in the asylum ever since. His little son was in the orphans home. This morning the officials at the asylum, having learned of his misfortune and illness from last night's JOURNAL, took him once more to the Asylum for continued treatment.

Not An Arbitrary Ruling.

The visitor to Oregon's state penitentiary need feel no pangs of conscience, if, after collecting little oddly shaped pieces of metals and scraps of convict uniform as mementoes of a journey through the institution, upon leaving this home for erring humanity the guard politely taps him on the shoulder and reminds that he is about to violate the rules. At first glance the rule seems an arbitrary one, but when it is considered how many people visit the prison each day, every one desirous perhaps of bearing off a relic, the reason is obvious. The sum total of metal and goods that would be carried away in this manner annually, were it permitted, would be simply astounding.

Veterans of the U. S. A.

Last night at the hall of the Grand Army of the Republic was conducted a "camp fire," around which were assembled the members of the Sedgwick Post and a large number of invited guests and fellow soldiers. The evening was most pleasantly spent. An extensive musical and literary program was enacted, followed by a delicate spread prepared by the ladies of the Relief Corps. The brave battle scarred veterans and their friends will long remember the evening as one of the most happily spent in the history of the organization.

A Prosperous Revival Year.

Of the many revival meetings held throughout Marion county this winter all are successful to an unprecedented degree. Following the Moody meetings in Salem, Mrs. Malloy closed her labors after having wrought sixty-eight conversions. The splendid tidings also come from Brooks of thirty accessions to the church and many conversions. Also at Clymer Rev. Osborn has brought twenty sinners to a realization of their position. Baptisms were conducted at the latter place Sunday afternoon.

Two Lot Sales.

Mrs. Nettie Benson this morning purchased through Thomas & Payne two lots in North Salem; consideration $250.

C. W. Sears' residence on Asylum Avenue was this morning sold to Charles Calvert for $3000. Moores & Manning made the sale.

A Joint Presentation.

To-night in the legislative hall occurs the presentation by Oregon pioneers of Dr. McLaughlin's picture to the state. Hon. John Minto will make the presentation on behalf of the pioneers, and Governor Penneyer will respond in the interest of the commonwealth.

This Smells Fishy.

A splendid salmon was on exhibition at the state house this morning whose weight was stated to be forty-three pounds. It was caught in Clackamas river, Clackamas county. Its noble proportions caused it to attract no little attention.

A New Incorporation.

Articles of the Albany Building & Loan Association have been filed with the secretary of state. The sum for which the incorporation is established is $200,000, divided in 1000 shares of $200 each.

Dotard's Specific is an absolute cure for all eruptive diseases of the skin, such as Salt Rheum, Herpes, Itch, Ring Worms, Scald Head and all itching or inflamed conditions of the skin, whether arising from disease or exposure. It is guaranteed in every case. Sold by D. W. Mathews & Co.

THE GOVERNOR IGNORED.

The Railroad Commissioners Don't Give up the Ghost.

Yesterday evening, contrary to general expectation, the board of railroad commissioners conducted their regular monthly meeting. It will be remembered that the governor peremptorily discharged the commission a few weeks ago, but as the commission was not a thing of his creation, the members of the board refused to be "knocked out" by one whom they term a disinterested party.

This is the position Commissioners Slater, Waggoner and Secretary Bell find themselves occupying, and accordingly they were engaged in transacting the routine work of the board yesterday evening. They hold that as their existence is due to an act of the legislature their decapitation can be performed only by the same power. Here arises a nice little point. The commission consider themselves as alive, while the governor looks upon them as dead, with the legislature as but an interested spectator as yet.

The Annual Meeting.

To-night the Salem Board of Trade will hold their regular annual session at the council chamber. The meeting will be one of great interest, as several amendments to the constitution will be proposed, as well as the consideration of the woolen mill project. To-morrow night it is thought the citizens' meeting will be held, after which the work of raising the subsidy will be proceeded with. It is quite certain that there will be very little trouble experienced in securing the $20,000. Salem realizes what a grand thing for her a woolen mill will be and her capitalists and business men are going to raise the bonus in short order.

The constitution of the Board of Trade will perhaps, as it should, be amended by providing for the creation of the secretary to whom should be paid a salary. This is proper. Hire a secretary and better work is assured. Make it somebody's business to answer the correspondence and the results will be for the best.

An Old Pioneer.

Hon. W. S. Gilliam, of Walla Walla, W. T., is in the city, the guest of Hon. T. C. Shaw. Mr. Gilliam is an old settler of this valley. He settled in Polk county in 1845, having crossed the plains the year before. He is a son of Gen. Gilliam, after whom Gilliam county was named. Mr. Gilliam served Polk county as sheriff and also as a legislator, and after moving to Walla Walla, he filled the same honorable trusts for that county. It is unnecessary to say that he is a republican from the party's earliest history, and a red-hot Harrison man. He will return home in a few days and has hosts of friends in the valley who are glad to hear of his prosperity.

Suicide At Mehama.

D. D. Preityman has just returned from the vicinity of Stayton and from him we learn of the suicide at Mehama, on Thursday last, of a young lady. The unfortunate one was a Miss Shelton by name, and being tired of this life, as she said, took a quantity of arsenic. Her death occurred on Friday. She was but twenty years of age and highly respected by all who knew her.

An Escaped Patient.

Cromwell, a young insane patient and trusty at the asylum, made his escape this morning. He was detailed to go to the barn for some tools, but failed to return. He is a tall, slim man, and is originally from Marion county. He has not proceeded far, for he was missed after a few minutes and at once followed.

You Cannot do Better

Then call at the Grange Store, 126 State street, if you want a good tea or anything else in the grocery line. Don't fail to look at the White Cross Extracts, the best in the market.

Woman's most faithful friend is Oregon Kidney Tea. It is specially adapted to complaints peculiar to delicate systems, and works like magic without leaving any unpleasant after effects. Oregon Kidney Tea is a purely vegetable preparation and is unequalled in kidney and urinary complaints. Sold by D. W. Mathews & Co.

Get up For Vagrancy.

Harry Dunn goes to jail, convicted of vagrancy, for a term of twenty days. He is a first-class nuisance and vagabond.

A Seasonable Hint.

Genuine new buckwheat flour, and a fine article of table syrup, at the Grange store, 126 State street, Salem. If.

Short and Long Courtships.

Daisy Dandelion, Essex, Ct., is perplexed over the question of short and long courtships, and wants our advice. Well, Daisy, it is hard to make a rule to fit every case, but in general we will say that long courtships are not advisable. Many women, pale, haggard, wan and wasted from long continued uterine ailments, are forced to banish all thoughts of marriage. Such unfortunate sufferers should know that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of leucorrhoea, excessive flowing, painful menstruation, unnatural suppressions, prolapsus, or falling of the womb, weak back, "female weakness," anteversion, retroversion, "bearing down sensations," chronic congestion, inflammation and ulceration of the womb, inflammation, pain and tenderness in ovaries, accompanied with "internal heat." For all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels, take Dr. Pierce's Pellets.

A Missouri man says he can invest $1,000 in sheep and burn every pound of wool produced for five years and make more clear money than can be made on horses, cattle, or hogs. This seems like pretty strong talk, but it is very evident that our western sheep raisers do not generally appreciate the profit that is possible to be made from the mutton and lamb products of their flocks.—Pacific Farmer
