

THE LEGISLATURE.

Both Houses Hear Second Readings and Reports.

BEGINNING TO WORK RAPIDLY.

They See the End Approaching and Are in a Hurry.

ALREADY ON THE WANE.

They Begin to Call These The Last Days of the Session.

When the House was called to order Thursday morning several members moved to reconsider certain bills and amendments that had been lost on yesterday.

That was a very good bill that passed the Senate this morning to allow Safe Deposit companies to act as trustees, administrators, guardians and assignees.

H. B. 49 caused some of the members to bring their oratorical powers into service this morning.

H. B. 182, introduced by R. A. Miller to appoint the places and times of holding supreme court, etc., has passed to third reading and will, no doubt meet with some opposition.

Wilson, from Marion, is against the state appropriating money for any provisions made in H. B. 49, or 103.

H. B. 103 will meet with strong opposition in the house, and Representative Bean made an elegant and logical speech against its passage this a. m.
