OUR PEN PICTURES.

Short Sketches of Our Law Makers And Prominent Men.

HON. J. J. FISHER.

Hon. J. J. Fisher is one of Multnomah's "chosen nine" in the House of Representatives. Generally speaking the ranks of the medical profession are made up of a class of gentlemen possessing great strength of mind, highly cultured intellects and a loftiness of character which is necessary to command for them the respect of the general public.

Amongst the physicians of Oregon who are highly respected is Dr. Fisher. He was born in Missouri, January 21, 1841, but shortly afterward his parents moved to Indiana, in which state he resided until he had reached the age of manhood. He is a graduate of Rush Medical College at Chicago, and began to administer relief to the sick and afflicted in Illinois in 1869. In 1871, he decided that the state of Nebraska was a better field for his profession, and accordingly removed to that state, where he resided for several years.

For two years he was coroner of Merriek county but 1880 found the Doctor in Oregon, where he has remained. He settled in Albina, Multnomah county, where he is engaged in his profession. We will say in conclusion that the doctor is a stalwart republican and has always been such.

HON. ASA H. CROOK.

Hon. Asa H. Crook is a joint representative from the counties of Curry and Coos. He resides near Ellensburg in the county of Curry, where he is busily engaged in farming, dairying and stock raising, at which he has been unusually successful.

Mr. Crook was born in Whiteside county, Illinois, December 12, 1837, where he resided until he had reached the age of twenty-one, when the western country with its wonderful tales of adventure and of gold became so fascinating that he at once left for Oregon and landed in 1858. Mr. Crook is a gentleman who by his courteous demeanor and considerate nature will make friends wherever he may go.

He has had the honor of being sheriff of his county one term and is now serving his second term as joint representative from Coos and Curry. He is an active and well known republican.

Was He Bled to Death.

George Washington was of superb physical development, absolutely free from all taint of hereditary disease, a very temperate man, and lived during most of his life in conditions favorable to longevity. Yet he died at the comparatively early age of 67. When we read in his biography that the first action of each successive medical advisor was to ask if the patient had been bled, and then to proceed to more bleeding to make a sure thing of it, our wonder at an early death may be moderated. On the last day he was bled four times, and the physician innocently says of the last time that the "blood did not flow freely." One would suppose not.

A cantilever bridge is to be built across the Colorado at Needles. It will be the first of its kind on the west side of the continent. It may humble Yankee pride a bit to know that the Japanese were centuries ahead of us in building this style of bridge. Richardson in his "Girdle Around the Earth" tells of one around the the Earth that was at that time found in Japan that was at least 300 years old, and still a thing of beauty for its splendid workmanship.—Alta.

OCCIDENTAL JOTTINGS.

News and Notes of General Interest to The Westerner.

At Albany no one raises enough celery to supply even the local market.

The Three Sisters has been taken off the upper river for a few weeks, and is now lying at Corvallis.

Linn county has seven incorporated cities, viz: Albany, Brownsville, Halsey, Harrisburg, Lebanon, Seio and Sodaville.

$200 an hour is all it costs to run the Oregon legislature. The present session comes high, and will cost nearly $40,000.

Newport thinks she will soon have a narrow gauge railroad in operation from the bay to connect with the O. P.

Portland's smallpox expenses amounted to $10,185. Smallpox, aside from being a dangerous visitor, is expensive as well.

Thursday will not only be St. Valentine's day but it will also mark Oregon's thirtieth year as a state. Oregon is a full-bearded man all the year round, for grass is green here always, and the school-boy defined grass as whiskers on the face of the earth.

A grange has been organized at Independence. The membership is over forty. They named the new order "Oak View." The grange movement is spreading and gathering force throughout the coast. Their resolutions are many of them full of good ideas and the effect is felt for the better.

MEMORIAL.

IT HAS PLEASED A HIGHER POWER to take from our midst our brother, D. J. Pentland, to a higher sphere. We know not why these things should be. Died Dec. 6th, A. D. 1888. We only know they are. We mourn, but hope to meet in a future that will contain more of the joys and less of the sorrow that fall to the lot of mortal man.

Our brother was a man of whom it can be truly said was everybody's friend. He had been a county commissioner, legislator and over-seer of Butteville Grange No. 7 which he filled honestly to the best of his ability.

Be it Resolved, by Butteville Grange No. 7 that in the death of our brother, D. J. Pentland, this Grange and community suffers an irreparable loss and we sympathize and mourn with the family in their and our loss.

Resolved, that this Grange shall be draped in mourning for thirty days and a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family and one sent to the CAPITAL JOURNAL for publication.
