

W. C. T. U. COLUMN.

In the case of Collins vs. Hills, Keokuk, the Iowa supreme court has decided against the liquor-dealers.

"A strong and influential committee has been formed in Bombay, India, for organizing and prosecuting temperance work."

"The British government, through Baron de Worms, has intimated that it will do all in its power to suppress the liquor traffic in Africa."

Wisconsin legislators refuse to investigate the northern dives, probably for the same reason the national government refuses to investigate the liquor traffic.

"From across the seas comes the encouraging information that the Dublin authorities have confiscated thousands of Zola's work, and in London there is a fine for publishing them. May the good work spread until it shall embrace the destruction of all pernicious literature."

"The Union Club, the leading sporting organization of Germany, has decided not to hold races on Sunday. This action was taken in conformity with the desire of Emperor William whose seriousness of character is making a deep impression upon the minds of all classes of his people."

The W. C. T. U. of the first district of Iowa, has filed articles of incorporation with the avowed determination of destroying by all legal means the traffic in intoxicating liquors. The various temperance alliances and municipal authorities of Iowa are taking active interest in the enforcing of the prohibitory law, and Governor Larrabee is showing a disposition to give them the support of the state government.

Of Such Is Life.

On a Boston street car, a boy made a sudden grab among the straw, caught something and, as he straightened up, he inquired: "Who lost a fifty-cent piece?" Seven men held out their hands to him and four more wanted to but felt afraid. There was a painful pause, and then the boy unclasped his hand and exhibited a pants button. The seven men suddenly sank back to meditate and the other four indulged in winks.—Star.
