CALL AND SEE US.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1st, 1888.

Messrs. WELLER BROS., Salem, Oregon.

Gentlemen: - We had the pleasure recently of making shipment to you of our new "White Cross" Extracts, and send you by mail to-day a very neat show card which we would like you to place prominently in your store, and which will call the attention of your trade to the goods.

It has been our intention for some time past to place upon the market the finest line of flavoring extracts manufactured in this country, and after months of study and experimenting with the prominent brands now before the public we have at last succeeded in placing before you a quality which beyond doubt has no superior.

We can not too strongly impress upon you that you can unhesitatingly recommend them to your customers as the finest that can possibly be manufactured. The package and style generally is such as to attract attention, and we predict that when your trade have tested the quality of the goods your sale for "White Cross" extracts will be large.

By complying with our request you will confer a favor upon yours truly.

A. SCHEIDT & CO.

The Oregon Land Company

Is a corporation duly organized and operated under the laws of the State of Oregon. It began business in March, 1888, with a capital stock of $20,000.

The First Sale Made By This Company Was in April Last.

During the nine months which have since elapsed it has made 107 sales to 104 different persons. Of the purchasers 85 have bought farming lands. It has also, during this time sold 61 residence lots in Salem. Of those purchasing but 25 were residents of Marion county prior to purchasing.

This shows that sales are not confined to former residents of this locality, but that people are swarming in from the East to make their homes among us. The business of this company is constantly increasing. More than half of its sales have been made within the past three months, although this is a season of the year when sales are usually dull.

This company is now spending more money to advertise Salem and the surrounding locality than

The Salem Board of Trade and All Other Agencies Combined!

Within the past twelve days it has paid for and contracted for advertising to the amount of

Over Fifteen Hundred and Twenty-Five Dollars,

The second edition of the company's pamphlet descriptive of Salem and the Willamette Valley is now in press. This is an edition of

TWENTY THOUSAND COPIES

Of a beautifully illustrated fifty page pamphlet. We cannot advertise so extensively in our home papers as we wish, for the reason that parties whom we most desire to reach are residents of the Eastern States, where these papers do not circulate. We do not advertise every sale we make in the local press, but we have advertised in more than

ONE THOUSAND PAPERS

In the East, as we depend upon Eastern buyers for the great bulk of our patronage. During the next few months our advertisements will be read by millions of readers of Eastern newspapers, who will thus be placed in direct communication with us, and nearly all of those who come to this coast will come ticketed for the office of

THE OREGON LAND COMPANY.

For these reasons parties desiring to sell will find it to their interest to place their lands in the hands of this company. If you wish to sell property leave it where

BUYERS COME TO BUY

If you wish to buy property come where property is left for sale. Your neighbors have land and don't want to buy.

EASTERN PEOPLE DO.

Our advertisements catch the eyes of Eastern people everywhere. We have five teams and comfortable conveyances ready at all times day or night, to convey parties to the properties we have for sale.

DON'T BE MODEST.

You are welcome to ride with us whether you buy or not.

TELEGRAPHIC TIDINGS.

Important Events of the Whole World for Twenty-four Hours.

The Sleeping Woman.

ATTICA, N. Y. Mar. 1.-Mrs. E. Althouse, the famous sleeper, is in a condition bordering on death. She woke after sleeping eleven and a half days, and since then her pulse has been very quick and feeble, her temperature unnatural and her muscles motionless. Attempts to nourish her failed.

Mrs. Harrison's Views.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 1.-The wife of a naval officer says that the good lady from Indianapolis is going to shock the fashionable stagnation of Washington form in more ways than one. "Mrs. Harrison told me a few days since," said she, "that she didn't propose to be bound down by the formalities that have been established at Washington as presidential etiquette."

Around the Horn.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 2.-The transcontinental association having refused to reduce the rate on canned goods, local shippers have chartered a vessel and will send an amount equal to 300 car loads of canned goods around the horn to New York. The ship's rates are 55 cents per hundred, which added to the rail rate to Chicago of 22 cents will place the goods on the market in the latter city at 77 cents per hundred, exclusive of wharfage, insurance, etc.

The Samoan Question.

BERLIN, March 1.-The Deutsches prints letters on the Samoa question from a correspondent at Sydney, N. S. W. The writer blames the Germans for supporting Tamasese, who, he says is neither by birth nor intelligence acceptable to the Samoans as a ruler. Mataafa is far more intelligent and influential than Tamasese, who is regarded as an usurper and traitor, willing to sell his country to strangers.

Sackville's Successor.

OTTAWA, March 1, 1889.-A report is in circulation that Sir John Macdonald has been offered the post of British Ambassador to the United States. The British Government, it is stated, has begun to realize the necessity of sending to Washington a representative well informed on North American affairs.

Wilcox Acquitted.

PORTLAND, March 2.-The celebrated case of the state of Oregon against John D. Wilcox, for attempting to extort money from Mrs. Dr. Francis Murray, came up before Judge Stearns yesterday, and resulted in his acquittal.

Affairs in Alaska.

WASHINGTON, March 1.-The governor of Alaska accuses the missionaries of slandering the people of Alaska, and recommends the Presbyterian Board to make a thorough investigation.

No Seed Wheat.

ABERDEEN, Dakota, Mar. 1.-There is not enough wheat in the state for seed and bread. The deficit is over three million bushels.

Cleveland's Last Reception.

WASHINGTON, March 2.-President Cleveland held his last public reception yesterday afternoon. Over 1000 persons called, most of whom were ladies.

Very Warlike.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 1.-The Afghan forces are advancing from Herat and the Ameer of Bokhara is preparing to attack them.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

Senator Tongue came near being killed by an Ayershire bull on his place. But for a prompt rescue he would have been gored to death.

In the great six days walking match Frank Hart won by five laps; Moore came out second. The distance made was 575 miles and two to seven laps.

A big fortune in California is on the search for Jim Duncan who left Newark, New Jersey, or some Newark for California in the old times and afterwards disappeared.

As an item of startling news we will state that there is considerable scrambling for office among leading republicans, not a little jealousy and some ill feeling. At least the democratic papers so state.

The accident on the great Western R. R. at St. George, Ont., was one of the most fearful that ever occurred in the annals of Canadian travel. The list of killed and wounded foots up nearly one hundred.

The celebrated Belle Boyd was not killed, but is corresponding with the newspapers. She will probably take the lecture stand in company with the equally celebrated Cow-boy Kate during the next season.

The London News speaking of the miserable fiasco of the Times and its humble apology says, "Never again shall any man who respects himself read its base accusations without a smile of disgust. No other English paper would be capable of engaging in such abominable traffic."

Eloquent Words.

"A vision of the future arises; we see our country filling up with happy homes, with firesides of content; the foremost land of all the earth. I see a world whose thrones have crumbled and Kings are dust. The aristocracy of idleness has perished from the earth. I see a world without a slave. Man at last is free; native forces have been enslaved; lighting and light and all secret subtle forces of the earth and air are tireless toilers for the human race. I see a world of peace, adorned with every art, with music's myriad voices thrilled, while lips are rich with words of love and truth. A world in which no exile sighs, no prisoner mourns; where work and worth go hand in hand; where the poor girl trying to win bread with a needle-the needle that has been called the sap for the breast of the poor-is not driven to the desperate choice of crime or death, of suicide or shame. I see a world without a beggar's out-stretched palms, the miser's heartless, stony stare, the piteous wail of want, the livid lips of lies, the cruel eye of scorn. I see a race without disease of the flesh or brain, shapely and fair, a married harmony of form and function. As I look, life lengthens, joy deepens, love envelops the earth, and over all the great dome shines the eternal star of human hope."-Robert G. Ingersoll.

Coin Collectors.

The Scott Stamp and Coin Company of New York paid for three stamps, a two, five and a thirteen cent of the Sandwich Islands, issued in 1839 called missionary stamps, the sum of $650 and sold them to a wealthy collector for $850.
