TELEGRAPHIC TIDINGS.

Important Events of the Whole World for Twenty-four Hours.

MERELY A CANARD.

The Story of the Naval Engagement Discredited Generally.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—The story of the engagement between the German man-of-war Olga and an American man-of-war in the harbor of Apia, is generally discredited at the navy department. No information upon the subject has been received at the department of state. It is said there that news of any such importance would surely reach the United States at least as soon as Germany.

Trouble at Panama.

NEW YORK, March 8.—An officer at the navy yard received a letter from one of the officers on the cruiser Atlanta at Aspinwall by the steamer Newport this morning.

The writer says that trouble can hardly be averted when work on the Panama Canal is absolutely stopped, as it will be on March 15th.

The Columbia authorities, the commanders of the United States vessels Ossipee and Atlanta, and the British and French war vessels are making preparations to meet it.

The writer says there has been a gradual reduction in the force for several months, until now there are about 10,000 men idle, and these are living in camps all along the line of the canal. A large number of the discharged men have found employment in other parts of the Central and South America, several hundred have gone over to Port Limon to work on the Costa Rica Railroad.

It is said that the men will be left without money or work, and with little food. They are made up of negroes and imported cheap labor of various nationalities.

It is feared that they will not only try to take possession of the Panama Railroad, but that the revolution which is reported to be brewing in the interior may break out at the same time.

The New Exodus.

RALEIGH, N. C., March 8.—What looks like the beginning of an extensive exodus of colored people is noted here. Last night addresses by two colored preachers and a lawyer were made, in which negroes were urged to go to Kansas or Arkansas but not to Louisiana and Mississippi. This advice was listened to by about 2000 persons all colored, and made a great impression, particularly upon the women. It was stated that meetings like this would be held all over the state, and the announcements had been made from the pulpits of many churches, and would be made from all. It was further stated that 40,000 negroes are wanted in Kansas and that the negroes would also be given work and made welcome in Maine, Vermont and Massachusetts.

A Big Poker Game.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 8.—The biggest game of stud poker ever played took place in Midland Hotel here. The game was between J. Schwartz, a well-known jeweler, and John Davis, a stockman and former member of the city government. The ante was raised from 25 cents to $1500. Schwartz lost $52,000 on a pair of nines, and $10,000 on a pair of trays. After several hours' play Davis held his opponent's check for $82,500. Then the luck changed and Schwartz quit the game only $8000 behind. Both men are well-known in business circles and both are able to pay the stakes.

The Celestial Davis.

MILWAUKEE, March 8.—Two Chinamen are under arrest for enticing young girls into their dens for immoral purposes. The investigations of the police show the appalling fact that at least twenty-two school children have been enticed into laundries and subjected to inhuman treatment. The revelations are not completed. Threats of lynching are made.

Wright's Myrrh Tooth Soap gives Pearly White Teeth, Purifies the Breath, Prevents Teeth from Decaying. Sold by all druggists.

Crazy Over Mines.

LOS ANGELES, March 8.—Los Angeles is fast getting crazy. The excitement about the Escondido mines is getting intense. Trains to San Diego are crowded and the roads are liberally sprinkled with teams. Indications are that in a few days a stampede will set in. San Diego merchants are out of stock, and are ordering all the pans, picks and shovels they can get. This afternoon several companies were formed of a semi-military character of twenty-five to fifty men each, who will go together for mutual protection. Men willing to go on grub stakes are snapped up quickly. Rancheros from the country seem to have the fever worse, and sacrifice property to get money to pay their passage.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

Stanley Matthews, of the U. S. Supreme Court, is not expected to live.

The king of Servia has abdicated and Crown Prince Alexander is proclaimed in his stead.

The big strike of the O. R. & N. river employes still continues. Boats are tied up all along the river.

Some ten thousand men are still left on the Panama Canal, and much trouble is looked for when the work is stopped.

On Thursday of next week the trains begin to run regularly on the O. & W. Railway, from Walla Walla to Tacoma and Seattle.

Mascot, the fine colt, was sold in New York to Quinton for the Mike Daly company at twenty-six thousand dollars, last Thursday.

It is said that one of Harrison's sons shoots his mouth off as freely as formerly did one of Blaine's, and makes things rather embarrassing at times.

The Willets Manufacturing Co., of Trenton, N. Y., has failed. So has the Mahoning National Life Association, with risks amounting to ten million dollars.

The New South Wales ministry has resigned, being defeated in its attempt to establish a tariff. That State will continue its old policy of free trade under Sir Henry Parkes.

The rolling mills at Maomi and Gibraltar have just closed down for the want of orders. The Keystone rolling mills of Reading have also closed since the failure of the big Reading works.

President Harrison is surrounded by office-seekers who press on him a thousand deep from all quarters. If nothing else can be had a consulship at the Antarctic or a postoffice in the infernal regions will be gratefully received.

The British government proposes to build eight first-class men of war, two smaller ones, nine first-class cruisers, twenty-nine smaller ones at a total cost of over 107 million dollars. Fifty millions are asked for now.

Another man killed by a fool with a gun, at San Francisco Thursday last, who fired at a mark in the door of a supposed empty out building, and was astonished to see the game come tumbling out in the shape of a man, shot through the brains.

The big convention of millers in secret session at St. Louis formed a strong combine to control the wheat and flour market of the west. It represents Kansas, Missouri, Iowa, Illinois, Arkansas, Tennessee, Texas, Kentucky, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Dakota and West Virginia.

The Lower California diggings are attracting some attention, although two-thirds of the gold hunters are doing nothing. Provisions are high, flour $20 per barrel and whiskey 50 cents per drink. The great obstacle is the Mexican tariff, a four horse team is charged two hundred dollars.

The suicide of Rocherau a director of a big banking concern at Paris caused a considerable collapse in the copper market. He committed suicide because of the connection made between the copper syndicate and his bank by the other directors and of the ruin it was causing to the bank. It has made a great flutter among some London and Paris speculators.
