Important Events of the Whole World for Twenty-four Hours.

The Forty-Third Star.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—A very strong delegation from Idaho spent the last week in Washington, and are much encouraged over the prospects of statehood for that territory.

Disappointed Miners.

LOS ANGELES, March 12.—A Los Angeles gentleman who has just returned from Tia Juana, met a number of experienced miners there who said that the Santa Clara placer mines were frauds and that there would be much suffering among the crowds that were flocking there.

Nothing Known of It.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—At the state and navy departments the same reply, which is now becoming somewhat monotonous, "We have no information," is made in answer to the request for some news regarding the alleged destruction of the Nipsic.

Attempted Suicide.

LEBANON, March 11.—J. Hyde, an aged resident of this place, father of J. T. Hyde, attempted to commit suicide at about 10:30 o'clock this morning. He had been in poor health and dejected.

Almost a Burglary.

VICTORIA, B. C., March 11.—Professional crooks drilled a hole in Henry Saunders' wholesale grocery hall safe last night and set off a charge of powder, but failed to open the safe.

Presidential Appointments.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—The president sent the following nominations to the senate: Thomas W. Palmer of Michigan to be minister of the United States to Spain; John F. Swift minister to Japan; John D. Washburn of Massachusetts minister to Switzerland; George Tichenor of Illinois assistant secretary of the treasury, vice Mayer, resigned.

Out on Strikes.

FALL RIVER, Mass., March 12.—A weavers' strike for an advance in wages occurred yesterday, and is one of the most serious in the history of the labor troubles here. The weaving departments of fifty mills are practically shut down.

To Abolish Polygamy.

CHICAGO, March 12.—Bishop John Sharp of Salt Lake is in the city today, and to a reporter, talking of Utah affairs, said that the Mormon church is willing to abolish polygamy if necessary.

"For what," he said, "can a mere handful of us do? I had two wives, but under the law I put away one of them, and, although she is no longer my wife, I continue to support her. I believe in our religion, but we will not antagonize the law of the country, and will try to live up to it in all respects."

Watkind's Damage Suit.

ALBANY, Or., March 12.—In the circuit court the suit of W. H. Watkind, of Portland, against the Southern Pacific company for $10,528 damages for injuries recently received by falling from the company's sidewalk at the Lebadon depot, was transferred to the United States court, on motion of the railroad company's attorneys.

Points of Personal Mention and Notes of News.

Wizard Oil Concerts.

Remember, only two more nights of the Wizard Oil concerts. Another screaming farce to-night. Tomorrow night the handsome gold watch, bought at the jewelry store of W. W. Martin and fully warranted by him, will be given away and everybody will be there, so those who wish to be sure of a good seat should go to-night.

They not only give a new program each evening, but each one seems, if possible, better than its predecessors. Every lover of good singing and clean, jolly fun should attend for concerts like these are seldom within our reach.

Harney County Officials.

Gov. Penneyer to-day appointed officials for the newly created county of Harney as follows, with county seat at Harney: W. E. Grace, clerk; A. A. Cowing, sheriff; T. J. Shields, judge; J. F. Morrison and T. B. Jones, commissioners; Wm. Harvey, assessor; L. B. Baker, school superintendent; W. R. Graddon, surveyor; V. J. Miller, treasurer; S. B. McPheeton, coroner.

E. C. Cross, admr. et al, vs. Mary L. Baskett, admx.; former opinion adhered to; opinion by Strahan J. Ferguson vs. Jones; motion for rehearing denied; opinion by Lord J.

A. N. Church resp. vs. Jno Melville, app.; appeal from Multnomah county; argued and submitted. SALEM, March 12, '89.

Some Sam Jonesisms.

No wonder Sam Jones is popular. He will get off by the hour a lot of odd stuff like the following, and every now and then often strike right where it does the most good:

"I don't go much on culture—so-called. Do you know I once knew a fellow that spoke seven languages, and he lied once out of every three times he spoke. They put me down as an ignoramus. I've had letters saying 'Jones, tell us your nationality and color.' Well, I told them I was a Caucasian and for color I'm a yellow-buff. But if you take me for an ignoramus you'll get left. You ask me why I mix my language so for? I take short cuts. The devil does the same thing and gets there while the Christian is pulling on his boots. I'll tell you what, though, if my sentences are as distorted or out of shape as the fashionable women of this town, I'll—well, I'll quit, that's all.

"But I tell you it's no use talking, when God's given a man a wife with six or eight or ten children, the Lord's done a big thing for him, but when he gives a man a wife and a canary-bird—well, he just throws off on him, that's all."

Owing to this changeable climate, it is difficult to preserve a fair complexion and our fair sisters are annoyed by roughness of the skin, chaps, red nose, etc. If Putard's Specific is applied to the face and hands night and morning, a clear and healthy complexion can be preserved.
