

SLEEPING APART.

Married people sustaining monogamic relation, especially, make a great mistake in allowing themselves to sleep together. This practice, in a measure, leads to un- congeniality. From five to eight hours of bodily contact every twenty- four with one person not only causes an equalization of those magnetic elements which, when diverse in quantity and quality, produce physical attraction and passionate love, but it promotes permanent uncongeniality by making the married pair grow alike physically. The interchange of individual electrical- ities and the absorption of each other's exhalations lead directly to temper- mental inadaptation, and to this cause may doubtless be ascribed one of the chief reasons why a husband and wife manifest such tendency to grow alike after many years of mat- rimonial companionship. There is nothing that will so derange the nervous system of a person who is eliminative in nervous force as to lie in bed all night with another per- son who is absorbent in nervous force. The world is overrun with afflicted people from the effects of nervous exhaustion and physical decay. To such Dr. Darrin invites them to try his electric treatment, so successfully applied to thousands of our citizens, and that they will not seek in vain, he submits the following names of people cured who have languished in the throes of disease and now enjoy the bless- ings of health and happiness.

If the white people make strong drink let them sell it to one another or drink it in their own families. This will avoid a great deal of mischief which will otherwise happen from my people getting drunk and quarreling with the white people."
