

SLEEPING APART.

Married people sustaining monogamous relation, especially, make a great mistake in allowing themselves to sleep together. This practice, in a measure, leads to uncongeniality. From five to eight hours of bodily contact every twenty-four with one person not only causes an equalization of those magnetic elements which, when diverse in quantity and quality, produce physical attraction and passionate love, but it promotes permanent uncongeniality by making the married pair grow alike physically. The interchange of individual electrical and the absorption of each other's exhalations lead directly to temperamental inadaptation, and to this cause may be ascribed one of the chief reasons why a husband and wife manifest such tendency to grow alike after many years of matrimonial companionship. There is nothing that will so derange the nervous system of a person who is sensitive in nervous force as to lie in bed all night with another person who is absorbent in nervous force. The world is overrun with afflicted people from the effects of nervous exhaustion and physical decay. To such Dr. Darrin invites them to try his electric treatment, so successfully applied to thousands of our citizens, and that they will not seek in vain, he submits the following names of people cured who have languished in the throes of disease and now enjoy the blessings of health and happiness.

NAMES THAT CAN BE REFERRED TO.

Sound Legal Opinion.
E. Baidbridge Munday Esq., County Atty., Clay county, Texas, says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother also was very low with Malaria fever and Jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life."

Mr. D. I. Wilcoxson of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: He positively believes he would have died, had it not been for Electric Bitters.
This great remedy will ward off, as well as cure all malarial diseases, and for all kidney, liver and stomach disorders stands unequalled. Price 50c and $1. at H. W. Cox's.

It is a historic fact that christianity got on and thrived for over 200 years without synagogues or temples. It was not until the end of the third century that christians reared edifices set apart for public worship. Our Lord prayed and preached in private houses, in the open air, by the wayside, from the deck of a chance fishing smack—anywhere, everywhere. So did the Apostles. So did their successors. There is no sanctity in brick and mortar. Nothing makes a place sacred but God's realized presence; and that makes any spot holy ground, from the aisle of the forest to the aisle of the cathedral.

Hint to Piano Owners.

A correspondent asks how a piano can be prevented from getting out of tune so quickly in a dry climate. Easily enough. Keep a growing plant in the room, and so long as your plant thrives your piano ought to, or else there's something wrong with it. Just try it and see how much more water you'll have to pour in the flower pot in the room where your piano is than in any other room. Some people keep a large vase or urn with a sopping wet sponge in it near or under the piano, and keep it moistened, just as a cigar dealer keeps his stock. They keep this up all the time the fires are on.

Dainty little globules,
Fine, and white, and sweet,
Easy to be swallowed;
In their work complete,
No discomfort waking—
Inner gripes, or aching.

What are they? Why, Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets—the perfection of laxatives. Contain not an atom of mineral poison; are especially appreciated by those whose taste revolts from the coarse, violent pills, which tear their way through the system like steam cars, actually doing harm, instead of good. Of druggists, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures "female weakness" and kindred ailments.
