

Her Name.
"I'm losted! Could you find me please?"
Poor little frightened baby.
The wind had tossed her golden fleece,
The stones had scratched her dimple knees And stooped and lifted her with ease, And softly whispered "May be."
Tell me your name, my little maid, I can't find you without it."
"My name is Shiny-eyes," she said, "Yes, but your last!" She shook her head:
Up to my house 'ey never said A single thing about it."
But, dear, I said, "what is your name?"
"Why didn't you hear me tell you?"
"Just Shiny-eyes." A bright thought came,
"Yes, when you're good; but when they blame you, little one—it's just the same." When mamma has to scold you?"
"My mamma never scolds," she moans, A little blush ensuing.
"Capt when I've been a-frowing stones, And then she says (the culprit owns) "Meleahie Sapphure Jones What has you been a doing?"

"Tis time, my hearts! 'Tis time." There are more young men, remarks a paper, learning trades inside the penitentiaries in this country than outside of them. The principal cause of this is that we are educating young men for idle gentlemen, trying to make lawyers, preachers, doctors and clerks out of material that is needed for blacksmiths, carpenters, machinists and other honest "hewers of wood and drawers of water." It is a mistake, and a big one, to teach boys and girls that labor is disgraceful, and that to do nothing for a living is more becoming of society in which they have to move and have respect.
Hang such society. It is rotten to the core and is ruining our country to-day. There are many sons and daughters who are now being educated to play the part of "leading lady" and "walking gentlemen" in the great drama of life who will fight out for the poor house or the penitentiary before the curtain drops in the last sad act of the play to which they have been educated by their too indulgent parents.
Persons wishing to improve their memories or strengthen their power of attention should send to Prof. Loiset, 237 Fifth Ave., N. Y., for his prospectus post free, as advertised in another column. No 8, sidw

Harney County.
The formation of Harney county out of the southern part of Grant county, has, says the Union Republican, about it the air of accomodation at least. Grant county was a big county and there was a stretch of sixty miles between Harney valley and Canyon City broken by mountain ranges interspersed by valleys having but few inhabitants, and possibly never will be populated.
Thus sixty miles away commences the Harney valley—a level plain flat as a trench, and embracing a territory of over fifty miles wide and nearly a hundred miles long. Time is not far distant when this plain over which the immense herds of cattle roamed ad libitum will become the house of an industrious people. These Harneyites have had a struggling time in battling against cattle kings and land grabbers, it reports be true. With a county seat in the valley no longer will the people, many of them however, be compelled to travel one hundred miles to pay their respects to their authorities. Grant county has enough left to still give them ample room to develop, providing surrounding marauders do not rob it of its birth right.

The total number of immigrants landed at Castle Garden, during the year 1888 was 470,122.

Dainty little globules, Fine, and white, and sweet,
Easy to be swallowed;
In their work complete.
No discomfort waking.
Inner gripes, or aching.
What are they? Why, Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets—the perfection of laxatives. Contain not an atom of mineral poison; are especially appreciated by those whose taste revolts from the coarse, violent drugs, which tear their way through the system like steam cars, actually doing harm, instead of good. Of druggists, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures female weakness and kindred ailments, says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother also was very low with Malaria fever and Jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life." Mr. D. I. Wilcoxson of Horse Lave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: "He positively believes he could have died, had it not been for Electric Bitters."

BLACKSMITHING and WAGONMAKING.
JOHN HOLM, THE OLD RELIABLE Blacksmith, has removed his shop to corner of Commercial and Chemekete Sts., where he is ready to serve the public. Having associated with him Mr. R. Bannan, an experienced wagon-maker recently from Portland, he is now prepared better than ever to do all kinds of wagon and carriage making and repairing; all kinds of blacksmithing and repairing, and a general horseshoeing business. He has all kinds of shoes, steel, trotting, hand made, etc., and fits them in a scientific manner. Special attention given to the construction of wagons and carriages. Remember the place, opposite State Insurance building.
