

Recital of the Daily Doings Compiled From Various Sources.

Happenings Over the City and News From the Country.

Oregon Pacific Railroad.

The Corvallis Times says it is quietly rumored that the Oregon Pacific road will soon go into other hands and be built with cash instead of badly-kept promises and lawsuits...

Salem and Astoria R. R. Items.

The railroad that is considered certain of crossing the country from Astoria either to Salem or Albany, or both, in the Willamette valley...

Work has been commenced at Astoria on the Astoria & South Coast railroad, and it is proposed by citizens of Salem to unite with those of McMinnville in bringing the road into the valley to Salem by the way of McMinnville...

Bids for railroad ties were opened at the office of the Astoria & South Coast railway company Monday. There was evidently a misunderstanding of the specifications on the part of some of the bidders...

To Enlarge Next Week.

Beginning with next Monday the EVENING JOURNAL will be enlarged to a seven-column paper. This will be a great improvement in the paper, as it will give us equal to one full page more matter than we at present can run...

We are forging ahead rapidly and to-day this paper goes to very many more households than it ever did before. The JOURNAL is on the top wave of success and is still booming. We need your subscriptions, as we wish to place the best paper in the county in your homes...

How It Used to Run.

The Pioneer Oil company is running its oil mill day and night, manufacturing in twenty-four hours one hundred gallons of lincod oil. The company is crowding their works to the fullest capacity, so that they may stop work in about two weeks that some needful repairs may be made on the water race and wheel...

This item is clipped from the Salem Daily Unionist of March 25, 1880. This is in sorry contrast with these mills to-day. They are idle as flax seed cannot be obtained. On the site of these mills will be erected the new woolen manufactory.

Wright's Myrrh Tooth Soap gives Pearly White Teeth, Purifies the Blood, Prevents Teeth from Decaying. Sold by all druggists.

Wheat Swindling Case.

Suit has been commenced in Benton county by Hamilton & Job, bankers of that place, against Elias Keeny for $300 alleged to be due for twenty bushels of wheat at $15 per bushel. This is an issue of the old wheat swindling game which was practiced upon several farmers in Linn county and was exposed...

Likes Prison Life.

William Darragh, convicted of furnishing liquor to an Indian and sentenced to a year in the penitentiary from Portland was brought to Salem yesterday. Darragh says "You may think I am a fool for giving the snap away to the judge, but I like it. I was there for a year and found the fare so fine that I think it is better than knocking about on the cold charity of the world. When my year is out I'll tumble in again."

The Beardsley Examination.

At Dallas this afternoon the preliminary examination of O. P. Beardsley charged with the killing of T. L. Perryman at Eola is in progress. The city was expected to be full of people, as at an early hour this morning the roads in all directions leading to the quiet county seat were filled with teams from the country. How the examination may terminate is no conjecture...

A New Venture.

The prospectus of "The Lance," an independent democratic weekly newspaper, is in free circulation throughout the city. Its editor will be George Roberts, and if sufficient support is pledged, material will be purchased, and the venture placed on its feet very soon. The advance sheets say the paper will be fearless and aggressive. But through one cause or another the soil of Salem does not produce very live democratic papers. It is trusted this will be an exception.

All is Safe.

Nothing new has developed in the smallpox ward at the asylum for insane. If no new cases should come forth by Tuesday, the danger will be over. There is no reason to think any more of the patients will be taken with this disease, as all precautionary measures have been taken.

A Good Move.

A petition is in circulation and is being freely signed praying for the establishment of a daily mail service between Salem and Independence. The service now is but tri-weekly, and its transformation into a daily one would meet with the commendation of all. It would be a great convenience.

Albany Wants It.

Governor Penoyer and the board named by the legislature to locate the state reform school have received a petition from Albany, asking that such school be located at Albany. Citizens there are looking up a suitable tract of ground for the school to the event of Albany being selected the place for the school.

The Quarantined Columbia.

The girl who was sick and caused the smallpox quarantine on the steamer Columbia in San Francisco bay boarded the steamer at Portland. She was sick then with what was termed chickenpox. The passengers number 100 and bear their confinement well.

Scenes in Alaska.

A. R. Campbell an eloquent lecturer on Alaskan scenes and resources, will be at the Congregational church on the evening of the 26th. His efforts are highly complimented by the state press.

Still Delayed.

This morning's overland did not reach here until 10:30. The regulars and the Eugene express are occupying various times and are arriving here at most any time of day.

A Seasonable Hint.

Genuine new buckwheat flour, and a fine article of table syrup, at the Grange store, 126 State street, Salem.

A Good Cup of Coffee.

Is a great attraction for a restaurant. The coffee drawn from Hildebrand's Patent Coffee receptacle is one of the many great attractions of his eating parlors. Thousands of cups of his excellent coffee are sold every week. And as for oysters and meals he cannot be equaled in the state.

Very Heavy Immigration.

A Portland paper says that immigration at present is heavier than it has been for some time. Eastern people are coming into the state in large number. Every train is crowded and hotels are filled to overflowing. This heavy influx of immigration is even noticeable on the streets, for hundreds of new faces are daily to be seen.

The hotel men complain that they can hardly find accommodations for all who come, and often they are obliged to turn people away. In fact, some of the hotels are so crowded, that their cusses are sent to meet trains but every other day.

Most of the Eastern arrivals naturally go to second-class hotels, and it is here that a person must look for the greater number of intending settlers. It is hard to give an accurate estimate of the total number of arrivals per day. A conservative estimate could not be any less than 1000 per day. The average daily arrivals from the Eastern states in the hotels in East Portland is about twenty-five. The question is asked, Where do they all come from?

In most of the hotel registers the arrivals from Kansas take the lead. Michigan comes in a good second, and Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, Ohio, Dakota, and even Pennsylvania follow with a large quota. All are in quest of land and webfoot climate.

Articles of Incorporation.

The following articles of incorporation were to-day filed with the secretary of state:

Articles amending the incorporation of the Brownsville Woolen Mill Manufacturing Co., by which the company may be allowed to carry on the business of the woolen factory at North Brownsville, also to purchase and operate the Linn Flouring Mill. E. F. Croft, J. P. Galbraith and J. M. Moyer executed the amended articles.

The Douglas County Fair Assn., of Roseburg, J. C. Fullerton, G. A. Taylor, W. S. Hamilton, O. L. Willis and A. C. Jones are the incorporators. The amount of capital stock is $20,000.

The Mutual Home Protecting Association with offices at Propeity, Harney county. The object and purpose of the association is for the relief of its members, charitable pursuits, etc.

Two Funerals To-day.

This morning at eleven o'clock occurred the funeral of Mr. J. B. Penoyer, from the residence in South Salem. The remains were borne to their last resting place in the Odd Fellows cemetery, followed by a large cortege of mourning relatives and friends.

At two o'clock this afternoon, from the family residence on State street, was conducted the funeral services of Mr. L. D. White. The funeral was conducted by the M. and brotherhood, and was attended by a large number of friends of the deceased and his family.

In regard to Oregon prunes a writer to the St. Paul Pioneer Press says: "One fact noticeable in the present operations of orchardists is the tendency to make prunes their chief crop. It is believed that Oregon prunes are the best world produce. They are altogether beyond comparison with the European product, and even California does not claim to be able to grow as good prunes as Oregon. They bring the highest price in the market."

It is said that when Ericsson, the inventor, who died last week, realized that the end was drawing nigh, he expressed his regret that he could not live to complete his sun motor. While he could hardly speak above a whisper, he drew his chief engineer's face close to his own and gave him final instructions for continuing the work on the machine, and executed a promise that the work should go on.
