The Band's Benefit.

The Capital city band gave a street parade at noon today, and people were reminded that this was the evening upon which the Boston quintet club was to appear here.

An Inaugural Choke.

The Oregon land company has an agent at Albany who passes through the overland train, which stops there in the morning for breakfast, and freely distributes cards which read something like this: "The leader of this card, should be call at the office of the Oregon land company in either Albany or Salem, will be given free transportation to and from the depot, and will be furnished a carriage and driver to assist him in looking at real estate."

An Alaskan Excursion.

About the middle of June a large party of eastern people, numbering over 200, will arrive in Oregon on their way to Alaska. This party will stop in Portland several days, both on reaching the coast and on returning from the north.

Only a Mistake.

The Willamette has not "risen four feet above the level of the recent rains" nor has she been so very low this winter that the gauge marked "four inches below low water mark."

Call For Treatment Homes.

The demand is so great that it will soon be an impossibility to erect a dwelling house in Salem. Many are under course of construction, but it will be several weeks before they are completed.

The Markets.

The markets all remain about the same as last week. Wheat now stands at 90 cents for storage or 60 cents, when it is bought outright and is not stored.

A New Boat House.

A JOURNAL reporter in making the rounds of the city this morning learned that Salem was to have a boat house, and that Ed. Herren was to be the proprietor.

A New School House.

A special tax has been levied for that purpose and a neat new school house is being built on the right selected in the Capital city fruit farm.

A New Meat Market.

Messrs. Hanson and Angvaine are fitting up the building formerly occupied by Jas. Coffey as a meat market, and will open a meat market.

Matters in Probate.

In matter of the estate of George Smith, Stephen Smith the administrator, files final account; bearing date for May 25th. John Calvert, administrator of the estate of Henry Seibauer, files final account, which is allowed and estate is declared settled and closed.

Street Railway Work.

Work is progressing rapidly on both ends of the street railway extension. On the south end cars will be running in a few days. On the north, the iron and ties are being placed along Commercial street, and work will be hurried next week.

Riverside Addition SALEM.

The Oregon Land Company's BEAUTIFUL RIVERSIDE ADDITION

Is situated just north of Salem, upon the banks of the Willamette. The land lays HIGH AND DRY and affords a magnificent view of the river. A GOOD INVESTMENT. Lots are selling rapidly in this popular tract, 51 having been sold during March. The purchase of lots here is a good investment, as they are sure to double in value within the next few months, when the street railway will run through the addition.

STREET CARS AT ONCE.

Riverside is to be placed at once in close connection with the city. The street railway will be extended immediately and will pass through this popular tract. The Oregon Land Company has purchased 3100 feet of railway from which is now on the way here and the construction of the street railway line will follow shortly.

GO AND SEE THESE LOTS.

Improvements are already being made and before many weeks a large number of new cottages will be under course of construction in this popular and attractive suburb. Go and see these lots, make the best investment of your life by purchasing some of them while they are cheap, and you will make a home and a fortune at the same time.
