SHREWD ADVERTISERS. Readers of the newspapers of the day can't fail to be impressed with the fact that the modern advertiser is progressive. He is compelled to be, else competitors more active in the invention of new advertising devices, will outstrip him in public favor. The value of printers' ink judiciously and scientifically employed cannot be overestimated; it is the medium whereby a meritorious discovery is raised from local fame to a position in the public esteem. Hence the columns of newspapers are daily used by hosts of advertisers and in the competition which is indulged in to attain the desired end, the reader is oftentimes amused. The greatest of American advertisers, and it may as well be said in the world, is H. H. Warner of Rochester, N. Y., whose name has been made everywhere familiar in connection with Warner's Safe Cure, widely advertised because of its merit in the prevention and cure of kidney diseases. By printer's ink this great discovery has achieved world-wide popularity and thousands feel grateful for the knowledge thus acquired of this greatest of modern remedies. Furthermore, the public has been taught that disorders of the lungs, brain, heart and liver which have hitherto been regarded and treated by the profession as distinctive diseases are not so in fact, but are the attending symptoms of disease of the kidneys; therefore, the consumptive, the apoplectic, the paralytic, and the sufferer from nervous disorders can be restored to health by Warner's Safe Cure, which will remove the true cause of those disorders by restoring the kidneys to healthy action. The advertising methods employed by this greatest of advertisers are invariably instructive and, although the reader may sometimes be "caught" in reading an advertisement, which was not at first supposed to be such, there is nevertheless no time lost since useful information is invariably gained concerning life's great problem.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH. The Whisky Trust. CHICAGO, April 19.—George W. Kidd, a wholesale liquor dealer of New York, and many times a millionaire, has started to down the whisky trust. He has just let the contract 5000 for barrels to the distillery at LaSalle, Illinois, as a beginning. The Street Car Strikers. MINNEAPOLIS, April 19.—There is no change of any consequence in the street car strike. Seventy-five cowboys arrived from Kansas City this morning to take the places of the strikers, but they have not yet gone to work. Cars are running with occasional minor disturbances. The Plots of Russia. St. PETERSBURG, April 19.—The police have discovered the existence of a nihilist plot to assassinate the czar with dynamite, while attending the funeral of General Pansker, minister of roads. The czar was immediately warned not to attend the funeral. A number of persons have been arrested. Squandered His Fortune. NEW YORK, April 19.—Charles Durant, Jr., who inherited $350,000 from his father three years ago, has been examined in supplementary proceedings, and testified to the total loss of his fortune. One item was $100,000 spent upon Estella Clayton, the actress who recently impersonated Barbara in "The Quick or the Dead."

Prosperity at Corvallis. CORVALLIS, April 19.—A large and enthusiastic meeting of citizens was held last evening in the parlors of Hamilton, Job & Co., for the purpose of taking active steps towards bringing water into this city for manufacturing purposes. A committee was also appointed to draft articles of incorporation of the Corvallis water ditch company. More Appointments. WASHINGTON, April 19.—The president made the following appointments to-day. Harrison Kelley of Jacksonville, Oregon, to be receiver of public moneys, at Drewsey, Oregon. James R. Hayden of Olymnia, W. T., to be receiver of public moneys at Seattle, W. T. Jay B. Huntington of Oregon registered the land office at Drewsey, Grant county, Oregon. Violating the Laws. WICHITA, April 17.—A special from Purcell, I. T., says the chief deputy marshal at that place, with a posse, this afternoon has been engaged in hunting boomers in Oklahoma land, opposite the city. They returned this afternoon with one party, and have now corralled in the woods and ravines 300. Intelligence has also been received that an engagement took place between a party of boomers and deputies, in which several persons were wounded. The boomers, who were mostly Texans, it is said, were attacked in a barriade of logs and stones, by deputies, and commenced firing. Volleys were returned with spirit for some time, but the boomers surrendered after some had been wounded.

An Immense Fire. NEW YORK, April 19.—The largest and fiercest fire witnessed here for years, swept the east bank of North river today from Fifty-ninth street to what would be Sixty-fifth street, if that street ran to the river. It destroyed more than a million and a half of property belonging to the New York Central railroad company, and at least half a million dollars worth of land, flour and the like, belonging to other persons, notably N. K. Fairbank, the great Chicago lard merchant. The flames destroyed two big elevators of the Vanderbilt system, a big brick building stretching from Fifty-ninth to Sixtieth street, and occupied jointly by the Fairbank lard refinery and the Rossett stores, and wiped out the dock property of the New York Central railroad, from Fifty-ninth on past Sixty-fifth street. Henry Benning, a woman in the Fairbank refinery, was killed by a jump from a third story window. Many others were injured by jumping out. In the great confusion attending the conflagration, the names and extent of the injuries of but a very few were obtained. Rumors were rife all the evening that a number of workmen had been caught and burned in the refinery, but it has been impossible to verify them.

Tarred and Feathered. ST. LOUIS, April 19.—Information comes from State county, Alabama, that five Mormon missionaries were severely whipped and driven from the county last Monday night. These men had been holding meetings among the ignorant classes in the county and had formed a colony to go to Utah. Monday night some forty citizens of the northern part of the county, without the slightest attempt at disguise, surrounded the house of Gid Irons, a recent convert, who was entertaining five missionaries, and without delay they were brought out, stripped to the waist and tied in a row. Then each of the regulators, with long switches struck each of the prisoners a resounding blow. By the time the last blow was given two of the men had fainted, and the others were wet with blood. After the whipping the Mormons were given a thick coating of tar and feathers and they were warned to leave instantly or suffer death. They left without hesitation. Charges of Bribery. ST. PAUL, April 19.—At various times during the present session of the legislature there have been rumors of bribery. To-day an investigation committee was appointed by each house, but the proceedings did not develop anything sensational. The statement is made that warrants are soon to be issued for thirteen persons, whose names are withheld, for bribery and corruption. These are not all members. RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE. HOLINESS MEETING—Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at 115 High street. BAND OF HOPE—Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the W. C. T. U. Hall, Court St. CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN—High street, Rev. B. F. LOOS.—At the home of her father, Fred Loos, three miles west of Salem, in Polk county, on Friday morning, April 19, 1889, of fever, Annie Loos, aged seventeen years. The funeral will be conducted tomorrow at two o'clock at Zenn. SLOCUM.—At her home in Roseburg, Oregon, April 20, 1889, Mrs. Sarah Martin Slocum, a mother of Mrs. W. H. Byars of this city. Mrs. Slocum was born in the state of Maryland, Dec. 20, 1813. She was married to William Slocum of Kentucky, Feb. 20, 1833, came to Oregon in 1853, settling in Douglas county, where she has continued to reside. Her husband, two sons and three daughters survive her. LANE.—At her home in South Salem, at six a. m., Saturday, April 20, 1889, after a lingering illness of several months, Mrs. M. G. Lane, aged 56 years. The above announcement is no surprise to the many friends of the estimable lady whose death it chronicles. Mrs. Lane was the wife of Prof. M. G. Lane, an honored citizen of Salem who is highly connected with her schools. She was the sister of J. C. Cawood of Turner. Her home has been in Salem since 1875, when the family removed here from farther east. She was a lady of high social standing and one who was well liked by a large circle of friends to whom the news will be sad indeed. The funeral occurs at 2:30 to-morrow afternoon, the remains being interred in the Odd Fellows' cemetery.
