Office, corner Court and Liberty Streets.

New Butcher Shop.

Salem will soon have another first-class meat market. Mr. Lafore expects to have his shop open for business about the first of the month. He will occupy the room now occupied by E. C. Cross.

Almost Out of Danger.

The little child of R. B. Duncan is resting much easier to-day and it is thought all danger is passed. The little one's tongue was badly cut by the glass, but as the glass was on a piece of meat it is thought the dangerous substance was thrown up and that no serious consequence will follow.

Krebs' Cases again.

Today in Justice Chase's court is being heard evidence in the case of State of Oregon vs. Robert Krebs, charged with carrying concealed weapons. A number of witnesses are present and the case is somewhat tedious. Considerable trouble was had in getting a jury. But as this goes to press the case is still in hearing and it will be late before a decision is rendered.

A Salem Girl's Marriage.

News is received in the city of the marriage at The Dalles of Miss Maude Baker and Hon. George Watkins of The Dalles. Miss Baker will be remembered as the daughter of Rev. J. C. Baker, formerly pastor of the Baptist church of Salem, while Hon. George Watkins is the senator from Wasco. They have many friends in this city to wish them well.

Placed Under Bonds.

The Capital school proprietor, Mr. Wm. Schroeder, appeared before Justice Goodell this morning, on the charge of permitting minors to frequent his place of business. Justice Goodell, after hearing the evidence in the case, placed the defendant under $200 bonds, to appear before the grand jury. Schroeder claims that the boy Chad Strahan told him he was of age.

The River Falling.

The river is falling and now stands at four feet above low water, which still affords excellent boating. The Three Sisters came in last evening with an immense cargo of merchandise for Salem. She has been doing a large business since the Hoag has been on the upper river. The Hoag came in this morning from the upper river, and after discharging a good lot of general freight, proceeded down the river to Portland, and will resume her usual trips as before.

Articles of Incorporation.

The secretary of state to-day filed the following articles of incorporation: Second Baptist church at Dalles City in Wasco county. The incorporators are H. J. Hill, J. C. Harper and S. J. Hill, who will act as trustees for said corporation for one year from time of incorporation. The Baker City street railway, with capital stock of $10,000, divided into shares of $10 each; the object is to build and maintain a street railway in the town of Baker City. The incorporators are John Geiser, Henry Rust, E. Silvers, H. Dale, and T. Calvin Hyde.

The Galled Jade Wins.

Success is written all over the CAPITAL JOURNAL. When it attempts anything it may be depended upon that that thing is going to be accomplished. For instance, cast your eyes over the social notes. Last week it was announced that such a department would be established. Note the result—a page smilling with a burden of good tidings of doings in the social realm. Others may boycott, pigout or imitate, but if you want ALL the news, social as well as local, the CAPITAL JOURNAL is the paper for which you should subscribe.

The Gritsman-Davies Company.

This celebrated dramatic company arrived in the city this morning and will give a Salem audience a most enjoyable entertainment. "The World Against Her" is a strong plot, each part being well taken. The title roles are sustained by Miss Davies and Mr. Gritsman are above criticism and merit but the highest commendation. At Albany last night their attraction drew the largest house that the city up to the river has known for many days and the entertainment is highly praised by the Albany press. This evening's entertainment will be of a high order.

SALEM SOCIAL NOTES.

Doings Among the Society Folk—The Attractions, Etc.

The columns of the CAPITAL JOURNAL are so crowded on Saturday evenings, on account of the Social Notes, as to be forced to leave out a large amount of interesting local matter. Also religious intelligence and general miscellaneous reading for Sunday is about to suffer curtailment. For this reason the space allotted to social events has been curtailed, hence it has been thought advisable to publish the social notes on Friday evenings, which may be done hereafter. This would give the week's pleasures completely as there are few parties or balls given on the last two evenings, and will probably be more satisfactory all around.

A THURSDAY TEA.

Mrs. J. H. Albert gave a "Tea" at her residence last evening. A bountiful lunch was served and a most enjoyable time had by all present.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

Cards are out announcing the betrothal of Miss Clara Simon and Mr. Leopold Kallen of Portland. Miss Simon is a sister of L. Simon of this city.

THE HESPERIANS.

The Allen-Hesperian society this evening will discuss the question: Resolved, That the right of suffrage should depend upon a property qualification. This is a subject rich in argument and its discussion promises to be of great interest.

A THURSDAY LUNCHEON.

At the residence of Mrs. R. P. Boise in North Salem a pleasant family luncheon was given Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Hastings of Boston. The afternoon was pleasantly spent. There were none present save relatives, but the occasion was an enjoyable one.

A COMING THEAT.

On Monday evening at the opera house will be presented a pleasing program in commemoration of the Washington inaugural centennial anniversary. The entertainment is being given by the ladies of the Christian church, and will be an elaborate affair.

THE WINTER CLUB.

The Winter dancing club last night gave the most pleasant party of the series. On this occasion Diamond's hall was the scene of a merry throng of happy dancers. At one time eight sets were on the floor and joy was unconfined. The tripping of the light fantastic was continued until a late hour and when the last number was announced there were many to regret that the season was so nearly at an end.

THE PHILADORIANS.

This club of forensic debates last night discussed the question: Resolved, That the Chinese should be expelled from the United States. The affirmative argued with no little effect that on account of the foul habits of the Chinese, their love for opium and utter degradation the brown-skinned sons of the land of poppies should be banished, while the negative labored to establish the thought that as a matter of justice and right the Chinese should be retained here. President Anderson rendered a decision favoring the negative.

OLD FOLKS WHIST CLUB.

This popular club met at the residence of Mrs. J. J. Murphy last evening. There were present: Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Breyman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Keller, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Flemming, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Waite, Mr. and Mrs. Skinner, Mrs. Webb, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Chadwick. Much amusement was occasioned by the distribution of prizes to the "unfortunate whitewashed," and after a bountiful lunch, the club adjourned to meet next week at Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Holverson's.

A MUSICAL RECITAL.

Every seat in the University chapel was taken last night, the occasion being a musical recital by the students of the conservatory of music. The program consisted of eighteen numbers, among which were instrumental quartets, trios, solos, and vocal solos, duets and quartets. The recital was a pleasant occasion, many of the renditions being particularly worthy of note. It is to be regretted that these recitals should occur the same evening as the regular meeting of the Philadorean society, as many are thus kept away from each.

A HAPPY PARTY.

Friday evening Misses Lena and Minnie Breyman entertained a number of their society friends in a most charming and hospitable manner at the residence of Mr. Eugene Breyman, corner of Court and High streets. Billiards and cards were the features of the earlier part of the evening, when a delicate luncheon was discussed, after which the rooms were cleared for dancing, which was indulged in until a late hour. Present: Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Breyman, Misses Lena and Minnie Breyman, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Manning, Misses Ada and Annie Breyman, Maggie Cosper, Lizzie Church, Nellie Boise, Ethel Cusick, Edna Moody, Messrs. E. P. Thompson, R. P. Boise, Jr., W. J. Clark, Ralph Moody, F. S. Dearborn, E. Willis, H. H. Thompson, H. S. Jordan and O. W. Hinsdale of Santa Clara.

THE LITTLE FOLKS.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. I. N. Gilbert entertained a host of young friends in honor of Mr. Harold Gilbert, the occasion being his seventh birthday. Presents, numerous and costly, were received by the young gentleman. The young folks enjoyed themselves playing games until late in the afternoon, when they were marched out to a delicate repast, after which they departed, all joining in wishing their young host many happy returns of the day. Those present were: Misses Eula McCully, Greta Rosenberg, Leona Hirsch, Gertrude Hirsch, Hattie Litchfield, Genieve Church, Ruth Church, Loyes Frances Arnold, Mabel Jones, Ida Jones, Hattie Edwards and Carrie Willis, and Masters Harold Gilbert, Myer Hirsch, Claude Belle, Clifford Brown, Eddie Scott, Russell McCully, Merrill and Ralph Moores.

A FAREWELL PARTY.

Friday evening Dr. and Mrs. S. R. Jessup gave a farewell party in honor of Miss Mae Carpenter, who leaves this afternoon for Portland, where she will be joined by Mrs. L. D. White, and thence proceed to Michigan. Cards and social conversation were indulged in until late in the evening, when a delicate repast was served and the guests departed, wishing Miss Carpenter a pleasant and happy trip. Among those present were: Miss Mae Carpenter, Miss Minnie Perrine, Miss Ruth Matthews, Dr. and Mrs. Jessup, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rogers, Dr. and Mrs. D. W. Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Ragan, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hoover, Mr. Albert Jessup, Mr. H. P. Keller and Mr. Clyde Keller.

A PLEASANT RECEPTION.

Decidedly one of the most pleasant society events of the week was the reception, Monday evening, given to Messrs. Cooke and Hal Patton at the residence of Mrs. E. N. Cook, by Mrs. J. M. McCully and Miss Ethel Crane. The young folks to the number of about thirty assembled in the spacious parlors at the delightful Cook residence, and a most joyous evening was passed. The earlier hours of the evening were pleasantly spent in parlor games, after which the parlors were cleared and all enjoyed themselves by gently tripping to the tune of a number of excellent quadrilles, waltzes etc. A sumptuous repast was prepared and all present partook of the good things the entertaining hostesses had prepared, after which dancing was again indulged in, and all departed wishing for many happy returns of the occasion. Those present were: Misses Ethel Crane, Josie Brown, Jessie Breyman, Zaidee Palmer, Maud Runette, Jessie Croighton, Lydia Parrish, Myra Albert, Addie Plamondon, Blanch Albert, Clara McCully and Eula McCully. Messrs. H. D. Patton, E. C. Patton, T. C. Smith Jr., E. C. Crawford, F. O. Baker, R. V. Gilbert, H. J. Singleton, G. W. Cook, Allen Cook, Howard Davis, Guy Hirsch, H. B. Fisk, Chester Murphy, Mrs. S. W. Church and Miss Lizzie Church.

AN INTELLECTUAL TREAT.

It is not often that a Salem audience has the privilege of listening to an intellectual treat equal to the one given at the opera house on Tuesday evening. The high encomiums which preceded Miss Hinds were fully justified in her renditions, which showed culture of the highest type, and were fully appreciated by the large and cultivated audience present. Her readings from Dr. Sevier and Impersonation of the "Female Camvasser" were irresistible, and "Katharine's Visit to New York" kept the audience convulsed with merriment. Her powers in tragedy were fully tested in her painfully realistic impersonation of Meg Merriles, from the immortal Scott, and was a reminder of Charlotte Cushman in her best days. The entire evening's entertainment showed the ease of her changing from "grave to gay, from lively to severe," and a wealth of native talent improved by culture of the highest order. The home talent was up to its usual standard, the orchestral, vocal and instrumental music being so entirely pleasing to the listeners as to render special mention almost invidious. The duet by Misses Hughes and Hirsch was delightfully rendered, also the solo of Miss Jessie Dalrymple, whose rendition of that difficult composition "Polacca Brillant" was excellent. Miss Parrish's "Magic Song" was irresistible, while her rendition of "Love Comes to

All," found, it is to be hoped, a responsive chord in every heart. Her rich and powerful voice charmed the entire audience. Miss Jones as accompanist was as usual, superb, and assisted materially in making the evening's entertainment an entire success. The playing of guitar and banjo, under the skillful fingers of Messrs. Keller and Chase, completed a successful program.

THE CLOSING PARTY.

Wednesday evening at the opera house was given the closing party of the season of the Salem social club. The party was a great success, as was the entire series and formed a glorious ending for the season which was opened under such favorable auspices and continued with such prosperity. This party was of crowning excellence, the cap-sheaf as it were, of the winter's program of this most charming club. The success of the event is due in no small degree to the untiring labors of the executive committee, consisting of Messrs. L. A. Manning, R. P. Boise, Jr., C. S. Riely, and H. S. Jordan. Success rewarded their efforts and shortly after nine o'clock on the evening of the final party the first notes of the opening march were wafted across the highly decorated hall and the grand march had opened, with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hirsch in the lead. Those present were Hon. and Mrs. J. J. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Manning, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Church, Mr. and Mrs. Singleton, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Boggs, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McCully, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Krause, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Strang, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Gatch, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Riely, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Edes, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson, Misses Clara Gaines, Myra Albert, Pearl Harrington of Portland, Ella Dearborn, Ida Harrington of Portland, Maggie Savage, Jessie Dalrymple, Gertrude Hirsch, Grace Gillingham, Anna Breyman, Louise Huelst, Esther Hall, Ethel Cusick, Lena Breyman, Edna Moody, Hattie Parrish, Nellie Boise, Lella Waters, Laura Watkins of Portland, Minnie Caldwell, Ella Hirsch, Kate Dalrymple, Margaret Macrum, Ruth Matthews, Ethel Crane, Mae Carpenter, Frankie P. Jones and Lizzie Church; Messrs. H. P. Keller, Geo. Brown, T. C. Smith, Jr., R. P. Boise, Jr., R. F. Prael, G. P. Nugh, A. Deem, W. J. Clark, O. W. Hinsdale, Hugh Thompson, F. W. Waters, C. Keer, H. S. Jordan, J. H. Albert, C. A. Piper, Fred Baker, B. C. Towne, P. H. D'Arcy, John Griffith, Frank Cross, Hal Patton, Isaac Scott, F. S. Dearborn, Cooke Patton, Ralph Moody, J. B. Phillips, Chair Baker, A. L. McCully and Dr. W. H. Byrd.

THE SURVEY TO BE MADE.

The Board of Trade Holds a Special and Important Meeting.

The board of trade last evening held a special meeting and appointed a committee consisting of Dr. H. J. Minthorn, P. S. Knight, and J. H. Albert, cashier of the Capital national bank, to raise the necessary funds for the preliminary survey of the Salem, Tillamook & Astoria railroad. No trouble is anticipated in raising funds, and the work is expected to be commenced with a practical engineer in a very short time.

There was much business of importance before the meeting. Among other things a communication was read from Department Commander McElroy of the G. A. R., relative to making an exhibit of fruit and other products of this state at the National Encampment G. A. R. of the United States at Milwaukee, Wis., August 27th. It is proposed to send an exhibit of several car loads of Oregon's products.

An advertising committee of five was appointed as follows: H. W. Cottle, R. Hendrix, E. M. Waite, C. B. Moores and F. E. Hoover. They will raise a monthly fund, to be used in the advertising of Salem. Of this sum $300 will be appropriated to the G. A. R. car display.

B. S. Cook, J. H. Albert and C. B. Moores were constituted a committee by-laws of the board.

This meeting was one of life and activity and its result will be a general awakening all along the line. Her citizens realize that Salem is at the threshold of a grand advance movement, and they are ready to assist her.

They Have Arrived.

In speaking of fine new spring stocks of goods it would not do to omit mentioning that of the Capital Adventure Company. This firm, in the lead as always, is in receipt of the finest line of dry goods, clothing, dress goods, furnishings, shoes, etc., that have been brought to Salem for many days. They sell so cheap that all who see must purchase. Call on them and see for yourself.
