Why is my wife so precious in my sight? Is it because her eyes are always bright, And grace and modesty are in her air? Neither, believe me, though she's very fair, She says and says it with an earnest diction: "This growing old, I find, is all a fiction. Since fortune sent me 'Favorite Prescription'—

Change the liver, stomach, bowels and a whole system by using Dr. Pierce's "Fruit"

Anti-Slavery Congress.
LONDON, April 27.—The international anti-slavery congress will be held at Lucerne in July next. The papal delegate will participate.
White Caps Again
CINCINNATI, April 28.—Last night a body of masked white caps administered a whipping with long willow switches to Frank Gehrling of Riverside, Ohio. Gehrling's offense is said to be general worthlessness, while his wife supports him and the family by keeping boarders. A crowd of spectators cheered the white caps as they showered blows upon the victim.
A Good Ending.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—Tom Avery, a local prize fighter, fell dead yesterday morning in the ring, during a sparring exhibition with Ed Cuffe, a recent arrival from the East. It was a six-round contest, and in the fourth round Avery fell unconscious to the floor, where he expired in a few minutes. Physicians said that death was due to heart failure, caused by over exertion. Cuffe was arrested.
Letuce Have Peas.
The Newberg Graphic tells a vegetable story that beats all previous records. It says: The housewife was looking over some packages of garden seeds preparatory to planting them in the garden and dropped a few lettuce seeds through a crack in the floor. These instantly took root and before she could get the children out of the house, the lettuce had raised it off of its foundation and at present it is still suspended high in the air.
Lower California.
LOS ANGELES, April 28.—R. W. Waterman, governor of California, says, in an interview: "I thoroughly concur in the views as to the acquisition by purchase of Lower California by the United States. I consider it one of the most valuable sections on the continent, being rich in minerals and having far more tillable soil than the people seem to understand. The Santa Clara mines are, in my opinion, fully realizing the utmost that was expected of them and give promise of producing a vast amount of wealth when properly developed."

A Railway Horror.
HAMILTON, Ont., April 28.—A terrible railway accident occurred on the Grand Trunk line near here at 7 o'clock this morning. The St. Louis express jumped the track and the engine ran into the water tank. Two cars were telescoped and immediately took fire. All the dead, seventeen in number, have been taken out. The only body identified is that of R. S. Gurney of Chicago. He was not burned. Another man, name unknown, was also instantly killed. The other fifteen were burned beyond the possibility of identification. About twenty persons were injured, but only one or two seriously. None of the train hands were killed. The fireman was slightly burned and received a bad scalp wound.

Oklahoma Smallpox Scare.
ARKANSAS CITY, April 28.—The Smallpox epidemic now threatens Guthrie, and other towns in the new territory of Oklahoma. The excitement caused by the knowledge of the brackish, poisonous nature of the waters of the river is not a circumstance to the fear that has seized upon the minds of the people in regard to this fell destroyer. It seems that a man named Joseph Ellsworth of Kansas City, more recently from Leadville, was taken down Wednesday with this dread disease, on his return from Guthrie and Oklahoma City, and is now quarantined at a house near the Santa Fe railroad shops. This man stood in line at the land office at Guthrie for hours, waiting to file his claim, thus exposing to attack those he came in contact with at that time. The people who have heard of this case are anticipating an epidemic. The first outbreak may result in nearly depopulating these embryo cities in Oklahoma. Dr. Moore of Arkansas City, who is in attendance on Ellsworth, says it is a genuine case of smallpox, and the people are excited over the matter, although the officials say they can undoubtedly keep it from spreading. It is quite seriously talked of establishing a quarantine on the Oklahoma border.

THE TWINE BINDING TRUST.
The Tockin Sounded and the Grange of the State Are Joining in the Fight. (Correspondence of the Capital Journal.)
I glean the following in regard to the "Binding Twine Trust" from an eastern journal, which I verily believe to be true, as the statement is backed by the Granges of Illinois and other states:
"It is now well known the country over that a syndicate is formed to rob the farmers of several millions of dollars at one squeeze on the price of this year's binding twine. If the supply was short we would not grumble at honest high prices; but for a few men to control the ample supply for the sole purpose of booming the price and speculating on our supposed necessities, is putting a thief's hand in the breadwinners' pockets, and we appeal to the manly independence and sense of right of our brother farmers of Illinois to join hands with the Grange and the great army of organized farmers all over the grain-growing Northwest-tern states, who have resolved to break down this wicked Twine Trust by refusing to buy the twine at a cent above last year's prices. Keep your money until the twine goes begging for a market. We can bind the grain by hand one season, if it comes to that pinch, or put it up unbound, thus turning the twine money into honest wages for worthy men. We owe it to ourselves as farmers and to the mutual claims of honest labor to break down these thieving combines that prey upon our pockets. If we beat this twine trust we thus serve notice of doom on many a similar ring of rogues, but if we submit now, it is only to be robbed again and again, worse and worse every time. Brother farmers, in union is strength in a righteous cause and we are bound to win. Meet, organize, show the independent colors of determined men, and adopt the battle cry of the Grange, 'Down With the Twine Trust.' All papers friendly to the farmer's rally in self-defense please copy."
J. M. THOMAS, Master,
THOMAS KEATS, Secretary,
J. H. Vanarsdale, G. R. Tate, Executive committee.
The following clipping from a communication published in the East Oregonian is also worthy of a place here:
"The farmers of the Pacific States are treated about the same way with the grain bag organization. How about prices for this year? Prices quoted at San Francisco are, June 28, July 8; and what are the majority of the farmers doing to relieve themselves of this cursed trust? They are meekly submitting to being plundered, thinking if they did do anything in the way of mutual agreement it would not help the matter. Every reform must have a beginning. What class will make the start? It must not be expected from those who sit serenely on the social mountain tops enjoying the benefits of the existing order of things. Farmers, like all other classes, must fight their own battles; they must say that they will not pay anything but an honest price for articles of any kind. The farmers of the United States must demand that those engaged in agricultural pursuits be elected to positions of trust in a ratio commensurate with the interest they represent. How does the past congress suit the farmer? Here is the classification: 120 bankers, 90 lawyers, 21 merchants, 53 manufacturers, 17 doctors, 4 mechanics, 4 farmers and the rest politicians.
W. A. S."
The granges of this section of the state are awake and heartily coincide with "W. A. S.," whose energetic methods will be approved and such action be taken as will work for the interest of the farmer, and if possible give such trusts the lesson they deserve.
What are you doing for our state grange? Keep this question prominently before the people of Salem, as the representatives from abroad will be such men as it will be profitable for that city to honor. Bro. W. A. Sample of Eastern Oregon will visit this valley during the coming month and as he is a well informed Granger and an interesting speaker, Grange parties and other gatherings will be edified by inviting him to be with them.
GRANGER.
