FAIR MOUNT PARK

IS LOCATED ON

South Salem Hights

Here Stretches Out Before You a Panorama,

THE TRANSCENDENT BEAUTY AND GRANDEUR

Of which enralls the beholder with bewildering admiration and wonder. In the distance the rugged Cascade Range draws out its serpentine length, while along it at intervals rise up like grim sentinels all the white and weird SNOW-CROWNED PEAKS of the great northwest, their heads extending high in the celestial vault. The river goes winding northward "like a silvery ribbon wide," and on every side are elements of beauty. Lovely drives are being laid out and graded through the shady elevation and altogether the site is a grand one for elegant homes.

The Willamette Investment Company

Have the exclusive sale of this beautiful addition. Lots will be sold on the installment plan. This Company also have a large list of choice city and farm property, 5, 10, 20 and 30 acre-tracts adjoining Salem.

Money to loan on farm and city property, insurance in reliable companies. 245 up-stairs, Moores' Block.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

A Pertinent Straw.

The JOURNAL has been saying for some time, that the immigration to Salem was permanent, and that the people coming here are staying. To prove this fact, a reporter interviewed baggage man Darling at the depot to-day. He said: "Yes, it is an assured fact that the people coming here are mostly staying. For the proof of this I can say that the baggage checks are rapidly accumulating. The number here at present is about twice as many as we had on hand at this time last year."

Committed to the Asylum.

P. A. Anderson was committed to the asylum to-day from Corvallis. He is about forty years old and a laborer by occupation. He has been committed to the asylum before. The cause of his insanity is strong drink. He is melancholy at times but is not violent. He came to Corvallis on May 8, and wandered about the streets picking up chips and acting in a demented manner.

Articles of Incorporation.

The Corvallis amalgamator and mining company of Corvallis filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state to-day. The principal place of business is to be at Corvallis, with a capital stock of $1,000,000. The incorporators are Nathan Leroy Raben, C. K. Clarke, E. E. Raben, Walter Johnson and J. R. Bryon.

Slowly Improving.

Norman Parish, who was struck with an epileptic fit yesterday evening, is some better to-day. He had a severe spasm this forenoon and a light one this afternoon, but otherwise is improving nicely. The doctors think he will be out again, soon.

Salem should and will celebrate the glorious Fourth of July this year, and it is fully expected that she will have the grandest celebration ever witnessed in Oregon. Now Squire Farrar is never behind in such work and is coming to the front already, by offering his large stock of first-class groceries at astonishingly low prices.

Fresh lot of strawberries at Strong's.

Who Said That State Capitals Were Not Prosperous Cities?

Boston is 6 times,
Providence 5 times,
Denver 3 times,
Richmond 3 times,
Little Rock 3 times and
Wheeling 3 times.

As large as any other cities in their respective States, while in Alabama, Minnesota, Nebraska, New Hampshire, Oregon and South Carolina, the capitals rank second.

And still a fine residence lot on the street car line in Highland Addition to the beautiful capital city of Oregon can be bought for $300—will be worth $1000 in five years—of the OREGON LAND COMPANY.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH.

Albany Topics.

ALBANY, May 10.—A small but enthusiastic meeting of citizens was held last evening to take the preliminary steps toward celebrating the coming Fourth of July.

The county court held a session last evening to hear the report of Frank Miller, who had been sent to confer with the county court of Marion county in reference to building a bridge across the North Santiam at Stayton. The Marion county commissioners sent a letter stating that they did not desire to take any action until after Linn county had decided upon a course of action, and the commissioners' court of Linn county decided to build the bridge at Waterloo, instead of waiting for the action of the Marion county board on the Stayton bridge question.

The contractor for the building of the ice works has a full force of men busy at work laying the brick and stone foundation, which will be completed this week. The machinery will be ready for shipment as soon as the buildings are completed.

Veterans of 1840.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—The Association of Veterans of 1840, composed of the members of the Tippecanoe club, who assisted in the election of President William Henry Harrison, called at the White House in a body to the number of seventy, to pay their respects to the president. The president responded as follows: "I beg to assure you I appreciate very highly this evidence of your respect and confidence. If I were to set before me an ambition which would insure success to my administration it would be that I might continue to hold fast the respect and confidence of such men as yourselves—matured of mind and unbiased of judgment. I thank you for your coming and for your kindly words."

Stole the Cogwheel.

PASADENA, May 9.—A bold theft was made in the Union office in this city. The first side of the paper had been run off, and the press-room was temporarily deserted, when an unknown party entered and took off the cogwheel and made off with it. The police were informed, and the search resulted in finding the missing cogwheel in a restaurant where, it was alleged, it had been pawned for two glasses of beer. There is a prevalent opinion that the work was that of enemies who wanted to damage the paper by preventing its publication.

Fish to be Released.

AUBURN, N. Y., May 8.—Next Saturday morning James D. Fish, ex-president of the defunct Marine bank, who was convicted nearly four years ago of maladministration of the bank's finances in connection with Ferdinand Ward's transactions, and sentenced to ten years in the state prison, will be a free man.

The commutation of the sentence of the ex-banker was one of the last executive acts of ex-President Cleveland before he left the white house.

All For Her Faith.

PHILADELPHIA, May 7.—Miss Kate Drexel, the second daughter of the late Francis A. Drexel, who left $6,000,000 to each of his three daughters, has practically renounced the world. The young lady has become a postulate, or earnest seeker of the order of the Sisters of Mercy in the mother house of the order of Pittsburgh. She arrived at the convent last night and entered formally on her new life here to-day.

Discovery of a Hidden City.

MEXICO, May 9.—News was today received of a discovery of great archeological importance in the state of Chiapas, near the ruins of Palanque, being a large city hidden in the depths of the forest. Some of the buildings are five stories high, and in a good state of preservation. A well paved road several miles long is perceptible midst the tropical forest. Few particulars have reached here as yet, though the report comes from good sources.

This is Kansas.

HUTCHINSON, Kas., May 9.—The windstorm which has been raging in this vicinity for three days, culminated in a cyclone, stretching over three counties, and left nothing but a waste of ruin with houses, barns, fences, etc. About thirty were more or less injured. More than 100 people are homeless, without food or clothing.

Portland Paragraphs.

PORTLAND, May 10.—Since the Idaho was put on the route to the Sound and British Columbia, Portland is regaining her flour trade in that country.

A lot of remarkably fine, large strawberries was received from Mt. Tabor yesterday. If we get fine weather there will be the greatest strawberry crop this year ever known. The cherry crop will be immense if no long-continued rains interfere.

Wool of this season's clip is beginning to come in, and the market prospects are somewhat better.

The Portland, Mt. Hood & Eastern railroad company say they have not abandoned the scheme of building a road to Mt. Hood, but are going to build it, sure. The stock books are opened and stock is being subscribed. The company is awaiting developments in the new bicycle railroad, and if this proves a success, it will work a revolution in rail-roading.

Fighting in Africa.

ROME, May 9.—Count Antonelli, the leader of the Italian mission to the king of Shoa, telegraphs that in a recent fight between the Abyssinian forces and dervishes Ras Alulu escaped wounded.

Legendary stories concerning the battle are afloat. The Abyssinians were victorious on the first day. Negus was wounded, and while suffering from a fever he ordered 2,000 devishes to be beheaded in his presence.

On the following day, after proclaiming himself the elect of God, he headed his army and was again wounded in the neck. He fell and the army fled, leaving 4,000 dead.

To Ascend Mount Rainier.

SEATTLE, May 9.—A C. Warner, D. W. Bass, H. F. McClure and H. Schroeder of Seattle and W. G. Steele of Portland compose five of a party of eight that will ascend and illuminate Mount Rainier on the night of July 4th. The party will take along seventy-five pounds of red fire and burn it at 11 o'clock at night. It is proposed to spend all night on the summit of the mountain. The night before will have been passed at an altitude of 10,000 feet. Bass and Warner have been on Rainier before. McClure, who is from Eugene, once went up on top of Mount Hood alone.

Spreekels Strikes Natural Gas. SAN FRANCISCO, May 9.—A telegram was received here this afternoon to the effect that at Claus Spreekels' sugar refinery at Philadelphia today a strong flow of natural gas was struck. The flow is thought to be sufficient to furnish light and fuel for the entire refinery.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

Chauncey Depew wants the system of railroad pooling legalized. Reports from many points in Minnesota say that a howling wind prevailed, doing much damage to growing crops.

Fifteen blooded horses were burned to death in the stables of Captain Moore, near Cynthia, Ky. Their total value was $49,000.

While testing an elevator at Providence, R. I., it fell five stories and killed one of its occupants. The other two were seriously injured.

The Michigan senate passed a law prohibiting the sale of tobacco to minors under sixteen years of age, and another to prohibit the manufacture and sale of cigarettes.

United States Consul Crowell at Amoy, China, has forwarded a report to Washington that the Chinese of that region are sending filthy and adulterated tea to the American markets.

Unless a change is made in the tariff on lead ore mine owners in the northwest declare they will have to close their mines. Two mines in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, have already shut down.

Farm for Sale.

365 acres, 7 miles southwest of Salem, near Prospect Hill, all fenced and crops fenced. 143 in cultivation, 16 seeded to grass, balance timber, plenty good spring water, good 3-room house all finished near a seven hundred dollar school-house, fair barn and other out buildings. Good grain, grass and fruit lands. Slightly and healthy location, good neighborhood and good road to Salem. Can be divided into smaller fruit farms with pure spring water on each. Don't monkey with the real estate agent's buzz-saw, but come right to the farm (it will cost you nothing to stay all night), see my neighbors, get the unstuffed facts and save fees. Price $30 per acre. Terms reasonable. For particulars see Charlie Robertson, Orange St., Salem.
