A Home Picnic.

Since it has been decided not to observe the Fourth of July in Salem with a grand celebration it has been suggested that a home picnic be given in one of the parks here.

Again Under Quarantine.

Down on French Prairie the small-pox from last winter's few cases has not entirely disappeared. A son of Victor La Chappel is now confined under quarantine with this disease.

They Delight in Change.

Human nature delights in change. Something for nothing is what everybody wants. It is through no other reason than this that Salem people speculate quite freely each month in the tickets of the big Louisiana lottery.

Weather Report For May.

During May, 1889, there were fourteen days on which rain fell and an aggregate of 2.77 inches of water.

Running Once More.

The narrow gauge on the east side were successful in getting out a train yesterday. And now the tie-up on both sides of this more or less celebrated road has ended.

The Indian Wars.

Judge Shaw will continue his report of the early Indian wars in Monday's issue. These snatches of history are full of interest and the old pioneers cherish them as the only written history of those memorable times.

The Brooks Picnic.

A large number of people from Salem went to Brooks to-day to attend the big union Sunday school picnic being held there to-day. Great preparations had been made for the occasion, and the day has no doubt been happily spent.

Snobs and Snobbery.

Prof. L. F. Copeland will deliver his celebrated lecture, entitled "Snobs and Snobbery," at the M. E. church on the evening of Saturday, June 8th. He is spoken of as a great orator—popular, eloquent and witty.

Blasting Out Stumps.

East of Salem and on the road to Howell prairie the roads are being improved by the blasting out of the large fir stumps. In this process dynamite is used and the stumps are thrown out satisfactory.

Salem Sons of Veterans.

An effort is being made to organize a camp of Sons of Veterans in Salem. No doubt the effort will meet with success, as there are many of the young men of Salem who are working diligently to effect such an organization.

Saved From the Flood.

Johnstown, Pa., was destroyed by water last night. Hundreds of lives are known to have been lost, while the loss is placed by many as being among the thousands. But as yet the extent of the awful catastrophe can only be conjectured.

Bushels of Berries.

Garden City extension, to the east of Salem, is one vast swarm of berry pickers. Mr. Savage has sixteen acres in strawberries and yesterday had fifty pickers in the field.

Was It Right?

All through Memorial day the different county school superintendents were busy with their examination of applicants for teachers certificates. The law is at fault here in having such examination occur on a legal holiday.

Through to Arbor Creek.

The street car line was completed to-day as far south as Arbor spring, in the Yew Park annex, and tomorrow those in search of a pleasant shady bower and a drink of pure spring water of mountain coolness should board the car and take a ramble over the grassy lawns.

Heap Much Chinee.

The road supervisor on district number 13 is having considerable trouble in trying to make the Chinese work their road tax. He is going to test the case and if they can be compelled he will enforce the law and make them pay their tax or work on the road.

This Is a Holiday.

In Oregon June 1st is a legal holiday, it being Labor Day. The day is not being generally observed, as it follows so closely upon the observance of Memorial Day.

UNIVERSITY NOTES.

Mrs. Kern and her daughter of East Portland witnessed chapel exercises Monday.

Fred Legg has taken Mr. Magee's place as bookkeeper for the Pacific elder company.

Phillip Weisner has been confined to his room with sickness this week, but is now able to be out again.

Miss Jessie Looney of Jefferson was visiting at the Woman's College during the first part of the week.

The seniors to-day went to Silver Creek falls. Several others went with them, and all were anticipating a pleasant time.

J. A. Gross, a delegate to the State grange, from Helix, called upon a number of the boys from his neighborhood Monday.

Quite a number of the young ladies and gentlemen took advantage of the opportunity and visited the asylum Thursday morning.

The university wood for next year is being delivered. It is said that there will be 100 cords delivered 15th at the university and at the Woman's college.

Messrs Fitzgerald, Otto Wilson, McKinney, George Bruce, F. N. Mills and a number of other old students were seen meandering about the university at various times during the week.

The Philodorian society held its last meeting last evening. The debate was one of the most interesting of the year, the question being an old one notwithstanding. The seniors made some impressive farewell remarks.

The University academy class are preparing for their graduating exercises Tuesday evening, June 11. The best musical talent of Salem has been engaged for the occasion. Lily, Conner, Skidmore, Cunningham, Brown, Boeth, Jones and Nelson will read essays or deliver orations. The mayor of Salem takes charge of the exercises, and Edward A. Austin, Frank Heath, Miss May Scott and Miss Grace Bushnell have been requested to act as ushers. Miss Lillie Bennett, Miss Mable Jones, Miss Jennie Cunningham, O. N. Nelson and C. O. Wilson will graduate from the teacher's course. Miss Mary Brown, Miss Martha Tenney, Joseph Atkinson, L. L. Mann, Chas. Spangfield, Wm. Tenney, J. Booth and R. Conner from the business course, Miss May Lilly and J. H. Skidmore from the third year classical.

Salon Decoration Union.

There will be a special meeting of the S. D. U. at the residence of Mrs. Z. F. Moody, on Monday evening, June 3d, 1889. Special business of importance is to be transacted. All are earnestly requested to attend. E. M. WAITE, Pres.

An Interesting Narrative.

The second chapter of Mr. Holden's narrative appears on the second page of to-day's issue. This is a most interesting story of suffering and adventure, and should be read by all. Every word of it is true.

A Marriage License.

A license to wed was this day granted to Allen M. Shaw and Miss Laura A. Bonney, both of Marion county.

DON'T GET CAUGHT.

This spring with your blood full of impurities, your digestion impaired, your appetite poor, kidneys and liver torpid, and whole system liable to be prostrated by disease—get yourself into good condition, and ready for the changing and warmer weather, by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. It stands unequalled for purifying the blood, giving an appetite, and for a general spring medicine.

An Insane Man.

B. F. Wade, Jr., of Sam's Valley, Jackson county, was brought down to the asylum to-day. He is eighteen years of age. The cause of his insanity was when eight years of age he fell on his head and when fourteen years of age was struck on the head by a rock and when sixteen years of age he was kicked by a horse. He is violent in his moods of temper.

Proposals for Wood.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at the office of the secretary of state until 12 m. of June 19th, 1889, for the delivery on the capital grounds on or before August 1st, 1890, of all or any part of 60 cords of oak and 60 cords of fir wood, corded close together. Oak must be sound body timber cut from 12 rifty trees and not more than six months out.

Fir must be cut from large live trees. All wood must be four feet long, reasonably straight and not less than 2 1/2 inches in diameter. Separate bids will be received at the same time and place for cutting into three lengths the above wood and storing the same in the capital building; storage to be completed by September 15th, 1889. All bids will be opened at the above office at 2 p. m. June 18, 1889. GEO. W. McBRIDE, Secretary of State.

DR. H. SMITH, DENTIST.

Has a new process by which he can fit plates of artificial teeth so perfectly that one can eat with them, wear the first day they are inserted. Those wearing loose plates, rattling around in the mouth while eating, and the great annoyance of themselves and company, should call on Dr. H. Smith and get a set with which they will enjoy comfort. Dr. Smith's office is now moved across the street over Dearborn's harness store. All work warranted to please. Teeth filled or extracted with out pain. Remember the place over Dearborn's harness shop, Commercial street, Salem, Oregon.
