Too Much Dandelion.

California has a new grievance—the dandelion. Some years ago it is said that a citizen imported from the east the seed of the old fashioned dandelion. He wanted something to remind him of his old home. Like the man who imported the sparrow, he did worse than he knew. The sparrow is everywhere, so is the dandelion. The seed drifts in the wind like that of the thistle, the down is built into the nests of birds, and every seed which gets a lodgement on a lawn or grass plot will, in due time, produce a million more. Now the solitary dandelion is very attractive in bloom, and hardly less so when after the blossom the gauze globe appears, and a few days afterward goes sailing off before the wind like a small balloon. But the citizen who is forced to dig up his lawn because a million dandelion roots have strangled the grass will utter no benediction over this rich golden blossom.

A True Fish Story.

Dr. Abbott of Trenton is a warm admirer of catfish, not so much on account of its culinary excellence as because the females of the tribe are good mothers. He has studied the habits of the fish long and carefully, and he knows this to be a fact. He says that on one occasion he captured an entire brood of little catfish in a hand net, letting their mother, who was swimming with them escape. She would not leave the spot where she had been put, and when the doctor put the fry into a glass jar and put it in the river where she could see it she dashed herself furiously against the obstacle that separated her from her young ones. When the jar was drawn slowly from the water she followed it to the surface, and then absolutely left the river and wriggled twelve inches up the sloping beach in her frantic efforts to recover her progeny.

Albany has gone so far with preparations for a big Fourth-of-July celebration that Salem has given up the idea of celebrating this year, on condition that Albany will stand aside next year in favor of Salem. The towns down the valley are jammed in so close, like sardines in a box, that there is hardly room for all, and they have to take turns. Up here everything runs on the broad-track principle, and every town runs on its own hook and has its own celebration. Like the old woman who rejoiced that she at last had a funeral in her own family and didn't have to depend on her neighbors for one, every man in this county will soon have its own celebration, his own newspaper, his own real estate office, his own store or shop, and will have to depend on his neighbors for nothing, except grub, digging potatoes and the like, being the only kind of enterprise that talent seems to shun.

HE FOLLOWED SUIT.

My wife has been under physicians care for two years, for what they called "liver complaint," she would get some relief while taking prescriptions, but would soon fall back into the same drowsy, inactive state. I got her a bottle of "The California Remedy." Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. It did her immediate good, and when three bottles had been taken she regained her old accustomed health and spirits and is now as well as ever. Seeing the benefit she derived, I used it for rheumatism with the result that I am now entirely free from the disease with which I had suffered for over a year.

It is reported that a valuable discovery of petroleum has been made at Yorktown, South Australia, and that the government has granted the discoverer, A. Tocchi, the exclusive right to search over an area of 90,000 acres of crown land.

They were at the masquerade, where she had recognized him at once. "Was it the loud beating of my heart, my darling, that told you I was here?" "Oh, no," she replied: "I recognized your crooked legs."

For the Public Good.

It is an indisputable fact, that the hand-somest vestibule trains that are now run on the American continent are those on the Burlington route, leaving from Union Depot in Denver, also St. Paul, immediately on arrival of all through trains from the west. The first and second class coaches are magnificent, the reclining chair cars, the Pullman sleepers, extremely luxuriant, and as for the meals that are served in those place Burlington dining cars—yum yum. The next time you go east to Kansas City, Chicago or St. Louis, if you mention to the ticket agent that you want your ticket to read from Denver or St. Paul over the Burlington route, you will get it, and you will always be glad of it.

If you go via the Northern or Canadian Pacific, the elegant vestibule trains of the Burlington route, between St. Paul and Chicago, or St. Louis, will carry you along the eastern shore of the Mississippi river for a distance of 350 miles, amidst scenery that cannot be surpassed; or, if you go via the Oregon Short Line or Southern Pacific, and your ticket reads via the Burlington route from Cheyenne or Denver, you will pass through all the thriving cities and towns located in what is popularly known as the heart of the continent. For further information apply to A. C. Sheldon, General Agent, 85 First street, Portland, Oregon. 4-19d&wt
