TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. DAILY. One year by mail $5.00...

Office, corner Court and Liberty Streets SATURDAY JUNE 8, 1889

Many Strangers.

There are a great many strangers coming in and seeing the city every day. They appear to be seeking for homes and all speak highly of Salem and the surrounding country...

A Social Dance.

Tuesday evening Diamond's hall was the scene of a pleasant gathering of young folks, it being the occasion of the last social hop given this season by the Young folk's dancing club...

A Big Show.

To-night the Chicago comedy company close their engagement with that old-time favorite, "Ticket of Leave Man." Years and years ago this powerful drama had a heavy run but has not been played much of late years...

A Narrow Escape.

Yesterday afternoon, while Hunter Forsythe, the teamster, was transferring some household goods from the O. R. & N. wharf an accident occurred which came near being fatal...

Where Are the Ball Players.

Salem has fine base ball grounds and any number of good players but there is no organization. This city should stir around. It could have one of the best, if not the best, club in the valley in a very short time...

News of the River.

The Three Sisters came up the river from Portland last evening, bringing a load of general merchandise for Salem, and taking on a load of wheat. The Hoag came down en route for Portland. She had on about 1000 sacks of wheat for Oregon City...

Children's Day.

In the Presbyterian church the services to-morrow morning and evening will be appropriate to the occasion, it being children's day and as such will be observed throughout the United States by the Presbyterian churches...

Program. For the prize declamation contest to be conducted at the Willamette University chapel Monday evening, June 10th, 1889: Music. "On to the Battle" Misses Dairymple, Adair, Hirsch, Hughes...

County Court Proceedings. In matter of the county road petitions for in section 23 the report of the viewers was read and road ordered opened and established. Report of viewers on Aurora and Butteville road read and road ordered opened and established.

Berries in Market. Wild black berries are now ripe in this section of the country, the first seen in market were in the city today and were selling at 75 cents per gallon. They will be plentiful this season, as the vines are very full and this nice weather will ripen them rapidly.

A New Water Wheel. The Salem water company having found their present power inadequate to the demands, have ordered a new and more powerful wheel from Portland. The new wheel will be here in a very few days, when it will be erected at once.

For Vaquino Bay. On Tuesday or Wednesday of next week, F. J. Strayer, in charge of a party, will go to Vaquino and Newport for a few days' sight seeing and recreation. A ready quite a number have agreed to join the party, and as there are especial low rates offered it will be an inducement for still others to go along.

Salem's Streets. Supt. Thompson is doing good work in fixing up the streets. On North Commercial street he has graded the hill and hauled out the dirt, making it level, and he is now placing fine gravel on the streets, filling up the chuck holes. Let the good work go on and Salem will soon have her streets level, making it pleasant riding throughout the summer.

Advertising Pays. Six wagon loads of Missourians passed through town yesterday on their way to Webfoot. They said they were in search of "big red apples."—Prineville News. That "big red apples" ad is familiar to thousands of easterners. It may be depended upon Salem will get her share of the heavy immigration.

Congregational Church. The morning service will be omitted that the congregation may hear the Baccalaureate sermon, by Rev. Gordon, to be preached before the students and friends of the university, in the Methodist church, Sunday school and Bible classes at 12 o'clock. Evening services as usual. Service will commence at 8 o'clock.

Crops a Failure. An observant gentleman who has just arrived in Salem from an extensive tour through eastern Oregon says crops near The Dalles are very poor, owing to the dryness of the ground. He says if it does not rain soon they will be a total failure. The crops in other sections of Oregon are reported flourishing and a good harvest is expected.

On to the Sea. Every mile of track laid decreases the distance to the Seaside, where on doubt the travel will be very great during the hot summer months, as the few last days indicate, will soon be here to stay for three or four months, and may be much longer. When it reaches Seaside let the watchword be, "On to Salem or bust!"—Astoria Transcript.

At the Prison. John McAllister, the young murderer, who has been sick at the penitentiary, is reported to better. Some change will have to come soon as he is lying very low and doubts for his recovery are entertained. There is a kind of a malarial fever now at the penitentiary. Four cases are reported, but they are not dangerously sick.

Real Estate Transactions. Daily transfers furnished the CAPITAL JOURNAL by the Union title abstract company: H. A. and J. M. Thomas to S. S. Martin, lots 4, 5, 6 and 7, blk. 3, Reed's Add. $1400 00

An Imperative Necessity. But pure air is to an unhealthy locality, what spring cleaning is to the neat housekeeper, so is Hood's Sarsaparilla to everybody, at this season. The blood purified and vitalized, the germs of disease destroyed, scrofula, salt rheum, and all other blood disorders are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, the most popular and successful spring medicine.
