Always in the Lead!!

Everybody knows that, without any exception, The Capital, Adventure Company have the most complete general stock in Salem and we guarantee to undersell any of our competitors. We have the largest and best assortment of Clothing, Hats' Boots and Shoes for gentlemen, and can please any one either in quality or price.

People who have to labor and want the most for their money will find it to their advantage to trade with us. We always give full weight and good measure. We make a specialty of country trade, and farmers will find our prices (quality and weight being taken into consideration) lower than the lowest. We handle country produce and pay the highest CASH price for wool. We have plenty of room for all, and can make everybody feel at home in our store. We offer you no baits, expecting to make it up on something else, but mark our goods at a uniform low price.

These are facts in the case, and by calling at the Opera House Corner we will show you goods for prices that will prove all we say to be true.

Stanley Heard From.

ZANZIBAR, June 13.-Letters received here from Urui, on the southeast shore of Lake Victoria Nyanza, dated December 2d, state that Stanley arrived at Ururi, stayed there for a short time, and returned to Victoria Nyanza. He left behind seventy-six men owing to sickness, and forty-six rifles. Most of the sick eventually died. A short time after Mitchell arrived they took away the rifles. It was reported that H. M. Stanley had sustained a heavy loss of men owing to sickness and no provisions. Emin Pasha is at Unyara, fifteen days distant. Stanley took away everything and returned letter to take personally to his agent.

Upon being refused they threw the boy down, cut off his ears, cut him about the throat and face and otherwise maltreated him, leaving him in the field for dead. At last reports he was still alive. Much excitement prevails at Linville, and if the brutes are caught they will be probably lynched.

Death His Only Relief.

STILLWATER, Minn., June 14 .-Bob Younger, the youngest of the three famous bandit brothers, who have been within the walls of Still water penitentlary since the day, to plunder the First National bank at Northfield, Minn., when they were prevented by a plucky cashier, whom they shot down in cold blood, is in the shadow of death. The prison physician says his days are numbered, and the chances are that he will not live.

Canada Aroused.

NEW YORK, June 14 .- A corres pondent from Ottawa, Ontario, says. The allowance of the Jesuits' Estates bill, granting $401,000 to the order of Jesuits for land claimed to have been owned by the order in Quebec previous to their expulsion or departure from the country, was the last act required to kindle into flame the bitter feelings of animosity against the government for their pandering to the support of the French in Quebec.

A simple device is reported to have fourteen years ago, they attempted been perfected in, Illinois, which will render farmers independent of the binding twine trust. For some weeks a harvester has been at work in the tall grass on the Missouri bottoms, opposite Quincy, binding with wire instead of twine and the device for doing so is pronounced a complete success. A twister is simply substituted for the knotter used in the twine binder. The farmer can therefore use either wire or twine, and the change can be made in a moment. It is stated that the old objections to wire binders have been obviated in the new attachment.
