The Circus Soap Man. I found a man selling packages of soap. He retailed the article at a dollar per cake and guaranteed that each package contained a $20 greenback or thereabouts. Just about that time I noticed a man take a $20 bill out of a package and also about the same time I noticed the soap man put the same amount into a package and a moment later in an absent-minded way he offered me the package. I purchased the package and withdrew from the crowd before opening it, as I was certain that half a dozen people who voted for me at the last county primaries would insist on a divvy if they saw me with $20 exposed and made so readily. The package contained neither soap nor greenbacks, and several leading people in the city afterwards informed me that they had a similar experience with the man, who does not appear to be such a d - fool as he looks. But a few thousand dollars more is needed to make the required amount necessary to complete the Astoria & Coast railroad, and yet there are a few tight-fisted, old mossbacks, and several young mossbacks, who have not taken one share of stock. Be men, or for heaven's sake, get back out of civilization. Your kind are a hindrance to the prosperity and growth of the city. You are stumbling-blocks in the road of progress. You are neither useful nor ornamental. You are a nuisance to yourself and an eye-sore to every one else. For God's sake die and save expenses. - Astoria Transcript.

A farmer in East Corinth, Me., wouldn't give a copper for a bounty on crows. He is able to take care of his own property. When he gets his corn planted he carries out two coops, each holding a rooster, and sets them on the two ends of his field. As soon as it begins to grow light the roosters begin to challenge each other and their music scares all the crows away. John A. Brooks, the prohibition candidate for vice-president last year, will orate in several Oregon towns next month.

Take Hood's Sarsaparilla 100 Doses One Dollar. The Chief Reason for the great success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is found in the article itself. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures Scrofula, Salt Rheum and all Humors, Dyspepsia, Bile Headache, Biliousness, overcomes That Tired Feeling, creates an Appetite, strengthens the Nerves, builds up the Whole System. A Strange Disease. WEST FORK, Ind., June 19. - A curious freak of disease is exhibited in the person of Wm. St. John, the son of a farmer living near St. Croix, on the border of this county. The case is what doctors call "complete ankylosis" of the whole system, and whatever may be the cause, it is a sad fact that there are within a small radius numerous almost similar cases, though each patient assigns a different cause for his misfortune. In the case of young St. John all the joints of his body from the lowest to the highest extremities are completely grown together, as firmly as though no joint had ever existed. He has not walked a step during nearly 18 years, his jaws are so firmly set that he must be fed liquid nourishment by means of a quill or pipe-stem, and although his eyes are as bright and his intellect as clear as ever, he can make but little use of either, owing to his inability to turn his head from one side to the other. The most competent cranialogists express the opinion that the synovial fluid and synovial membrane are as thoroughly destroyed in the head as in the limbs.

The Congo Railway. BOSTON, June 18. - The announcement of Mr. Huntington's Congo railway enterprise excites great interest in missionary circles. Rev. N. G. Clark, secretary of the American board, expressed joy at the new avenue for spreading the gospel which the new road will provide. "The great Congo valley," he said, "with its 50,000,000 of heathen, has hitherto been practically inaccessible, because of the great difficulties presented by the passage of Stanley falls. This proposed railroad will open it up, and the result will be civilization and christianity. Leopold makes of this region a free state open to all, his name will be revered in all time to come. It is the first time that missionaries have been supported by civil authority in entering a new country. With the great powers of Europe cooperating in behalf of order and good government in the Congo country, the triumph of the cross will be unimpeded by those obstacles which have in all other cases had to be overcome before christian teaching could begin."

Albany Points. ALBANY, June 20. - A young man from the country lost $280 yesterday on the thimble racket at the circus. The old adage never to try to down a man at his own game is one that should be borne in mind by such young men. The illustrated issue of the Herald containing a fine birds-eye view of Albany, will be issued on or about June 25. Wm. M. Hoag, vice president of the Oregon Pacific railroad company, arrived in this city yesterday from San Francisco and was taken on a special train to Corvallis. His coming, it is thought, will be accompanied by immediate resumption of work on the road eastward.

The Astoria Railroad. ASTORIA, June 19. - William Reid's visit here to-day brings out the fact that he has made a proposition to the Astoria & South Coast railway company to build the road to Seaside and beyond, if all rights of way, franchises, contracts, stock, etc., are turned over to him, he guaranteeing to complete the road in a specified time to a transcontinental connection. The proposition will be submitted to the board of directors this evening. Mr. Reid says he is backed by the Southern Pacific, whose financial agent he is in the matter. Hard For the Saloons. JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., June 19. - Governor Francis signed the Newberry bill late last evening. The bill prohibits music, cards, dice, billiard tables, pool tables, bowling alleys and boxing gloves, in saloons. The bill goes into effect July 1st. This is the most stunning blow at saloons ever passed in Missouri. Forfeiture of license and closing up the place is the penalty for violation of the law.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES. In the Cronin case the jury has returned indictments for murder against Burke, Woodruff and Sullivan. A passenger train jumped the track at Steubenville, Ohio, yesterday and several were killed. An English syndicate are to erect extensive iron and steel works at Vallejo, Cal. English Capitalists Investing. NEW YORK, June 19. - Samuel Untermyer, agent for the English syndicate which is purchasing American breweries said to-day: "This syndicate, which by the way, is not a syndicate, but merely a number of English capitalists, is going to invest in flour and rolling mills. We are already negotiating for the purchase of different mills, and propose to manufacture flour. I am not at liberty now, however, to state where these manufactories and mills are."

All The Money Subscribed. The $100,000 for the Astoria & South Coast railroad has all been subscribed, says the Astoria Pioneer. The work will now be pushed forward as rapidly as possible. The railroad iron for the first thirteen miles will be on the ground by next Friday. An engine has been purchased and sufficient cars to expedite the work. The work will be pushed through to Grimes' hotel this fall and an effort made to complete the bridge. The road will then probably go up the Necanicum to connect with the valley road. The seaside terminus of the road will be at Grimes'. An effort will also be made to make a survey from Grimes' place to Tillamook and thence to Salem or Albany.

All in the Name. WASHINGTON, June 19. - U. S. Grant has been appointed postmaster at Dallas, Polk county, Oregon, vice J. A. Wangaman, removed. He Looked into the Wrong Eye. A railroad man, occupying a responsible position on one of our great lines, according to a western contemporary, was riding on a train when a collision happened and his car was knocked into smithereens. He was picked up as one dead, and was stretched out in a convenient place to await the arrival of the doctors to officially pronounce upon his condition. If and by a physician bustled up, looked at his prostrate, motionless form and pallid face and said: "That poor fellow's a goner, I guess." Then he knelt down, lifted up an eyelid, and saw a dull expressionless orb. "Yes he's dead fast enough; take him away!" exclaimed the doctor. The supposed corpse suddenly began to move its lips. The startled surgeon listened, and this is what he heard: "You blanked old fool, that's my glass eye." - Philadelphia Times.
