People who are superstitious are in high feather these days. They remind the skeptical that the year began with an eclipse on the 1st of January and will end with an eclipse on the 31st of December; and asking triumphantly, what might not be expected in such a portentous twelfth-month point by way of an answer to the elemental furies which have smitten the Conemaugh valley and the city of Seattle in the new world and Chang King in the old. What next? they inquire. Plain and unimaginative folks regard these happenings as coincidences. We remember that fire and water have broken loose before, and that the only new thing is the electric girdle which to-day runs into every newspaper office and makes these occurrences a matter of universal and simultaneous knowledge.

The next census of this country will be taken with electrical census machines. The census collector will take the names in the usual way, but his report will be rewritten and printed by a novel device which is said to be incapable of making a mistake. An excited clergyman wrote to a Washington editor asking if it was true that there would be dancing at Harrison's inauguration. "Yes," replied the editor "and you had better engage your partners now. There will be a rush."

Albany Points. ALBANY, June 21.—The old hose of the fire companies has become so worn out as to be absolutely useless, which leaves the department with only a small amount of the new hose that could be used in case of a fire. This is an alarming state of things, which the chief engineer says must be remedied at once. In case of any considerable conflagration the supply of hose that would stand a pressure of 120 pounds of steam, which would be required, would be so limited as to render the fire department almost helpless. Less than two years ago a divorce was granted dissolving the marriage of M. Schlosser and wife, yesterday afternoon Schlosser discovered his former wife at a millinery establishment on First street, and entered and began abusing her in a shameful manner. Marshal Hoffman appeared promptly on the scene and arrested him, but he refused to be arrested, and showed fight, when the Marshal dealt him several good blows with his club and with several men carried him to the calaboose.

A Riot Feared at Johnstown. JOHNSTOWN, June 20.—Sixteen bodies were found to-day and many of them were immediately burned, after being completely covered with oil. The stench is growing daily more sickening and unbearable. The workmen complain of over-bearing bosses and short rations for which they are made to pay liberally. A largely attended meeting of the strikers was held this morning. A committee of twenty was appointed to confer with the men at work and find the exact number in sympathy with the strike. Three carloads of Italians arrived striking morning. A committee of striking Italians persuaded them not to leave the train until the trouble is settled. They were sidetracked and beset with strikers.

A Verdict of Not Guilty. SEATTLE, June 20.—The jury in the case of T. C. Kline, tried for the murder of G. A. Basler, at a laundry near Lake Union, last September, brought in a verdict of not guilty at an early hour this morning, after one hour's deliberation. Kline was immediately released from custody, and is now enjoying freedom after eight months' close confinement in jail. Kline is a G. A. R. man and an Odd Fellow. He is said to have been at one time private secretary for Henry Ward Beecher during one of his journalistic ventures.

Her Medicine Was Harmless. A wealthy lady of uncommon sagacity and good health recently died at the ripe old age of ninety. Her will, which was opened on the day of her death, contained the following clause: "I bequeath to my doctor the entire contents of the old trunk in my dressing room, the key to which will be found in the mattress of my bed." Great excitement among the relatives, who imagined the treasures of the deceased to be escaping out of their clutches. At last the doctor was sent for, the trunk was opened, and found to contain intact and corked all the drugs and mixtures that he had prescribed for her during the last thirty years.

Introduced in Style. Mrs. Livermore humorously tells this about herself: She went to a town in Maine to deliver a lecture. A young minister, who felt greatly his importance in having to introduce so large a light, announced her in these words: "Ladies and gentlemen, you have all heard of the illustrious man across the water, so beloved by his people, and who is known by the sobriquet of the 'Grand Old Man.' I have now the pleasure of introducing to you a lady beloved in Boston and known there as the 'Grand Old Woman?'"

Portland Points. PORTLAND, June 21.—Chas. Olds, better known as "Sandy," who killed Emil Weber, on Third and Alder streets, May 10, is on trial for his life before Judge Stearns and a jury, in the criminal court. The evidence for the state is very strong and conclusive, and tends to prove a deliberate murder; still Olds' lawyers feel confident of their ability to establish that the killing done was in self-defense.

Natural Gas at Stockton. STOCKTON, June 20.—Natural gas has been struck in a well being bored at St. Agnes academy, in this city, sufficient to furnish light and fuel for that institution.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES. An earthquake shook up things in California yesterday. Prohibition met its Waterloo in Rhode Island yesterday. Southern Kansas has suffered from freshets and crops are destroyed. Confessions are said to be forthcoming in the Cronin case, and no doubt Burke will be implicated. Disastrous Floods. ST. LOUIS, June 20.—Dispatches from South Mound, Kansas, state that the Neosho river is at flood height, and many thousand acres of wheat and other grain is destroyed. In Neosho county alone the damage to crops is estimated at over half a million dollars. A Fiend's Work. NEW LONDON, Conn., June 20.—This morning Alvin Park, a widower aged forty years, and a fisherman, murdered a girl named Lottie Field, aged 14, because she did not reciprocate his love. He shot her four times. More Mormon Recruits. NEW YORK, June 20.—Three hundred and forty Mormon proselytes under the guidance of Elders Ellis and Anderson landed at Castle Garden this morning. They go to Utah by way of Norfolk, Virginia. A Lover's Dream. A girl at Hackney, aged 19, with her two brothers and a younger sister, were left in charge of the house while their parents attended a funeral in the country. In the evening the girl's sweetheart called. As she was alarmed at noises which she fancied she heard, she stayed at the house all night to reassure her. During the night he dreamed that he saw the girl walk past him, beckoning him to follow. He awoke, and, becoming alarmed, went into the passage. Having dressed, he went to the door of deceased's room and knocked. Receiving no answer he then awoke the others. On the bedroom door being opened deceased was found lying on the floor, with blood issuing from her mouth. From a doctor's examination it would seem that the girl died at about the time that her sweetheart dreamed she beckoned him.
