MONDAY.....JULY 1, 1889

An Index of Prosperity.

A well known business man of Salem remarked to a JOURNAL reporter this morning that Salem was doing more business this year than she had ever done before. This is a well established fact, but in proof of his declaration he said the order books of his firm alone contained double the number of orders that they had ever before done. All improvements that are being made are of a substantial character and are calculated to remain as monuments to the thrift and progress of a growing city. New residences and store rooms are going up in every direction, orchards are being planted, timbered lands are being cleared ready for cultivation, and a general air of progress is everywhere evident. That Salem will double, if not treble her population and commercial importance within a very few years, is certain or this prophet is sadly mistaken.

County Normal Institute.

A county normal institute will be held at the court house in Salem, commencing on Monday, July 7th, at which the teachers of the county are earnestly urged to be present. Following is the language of the school law in relation to this matter, which will illustrate the importance of teachers' attendance. "The county superintendent shall hold annually a teachers' county institute for a term of not less than three days for the instruction of teachers and those desiring to teach, and all teachers in the public schools of his county shall be required to attend, and the county superintendent may at his discretion revoke the certificate, reduce the grade or refuse to grant a certificate to any teacher who refuses to attend the county institute without cause."

More Cases of Gleet.

Stock Inspector Herren reports a good many cases of nasal gleet among the horses throughout the country. In the Jory settlement, south of this city, there are four cases, in Gervais there is one and in another section two cases are reported. This is a very bad disease among the stock, as it is necessary for them to be killed in order to keep it from spreading. Mr. Herren is in communication with the state veterinarian as regards the matter and the diseased animals will be killed, this being the only possible means of averting a general epidemic among the horses of the state.

The Old Frame Shell.

The old frame building standing in the middle of Commercial street near the South Salem bridge is to be torn down. This building was caught in that position when the city council passed an ordinance enlarging the fire limits to include the water works. Mr. Adolph worked studiously to get the building in place before the passage of the ordinanance, but met with failure and refused to remove the building. The matter is now settled, Ed. Hirsch having purchased the eighty feet front of Mr. Adolph near the water works. He paid $4000 for it.

An Encomium.

The Albany Democrat says: It hurts a newspaper's conscience to eulogize some of the troups that storm Albany. This is not the case, though, with the Lauri-Bell troup, at the opera house last evening. They are the best company of comedians to visit the city this year, and you see more acting in one of their plays than in a dozen of some that come here. The "Strategists" is funny without any stopping at way stations. You split you sides several times in every act.

This company are here to-night and they are first-class, as all press notices and indications would indicate.

An Incipient Blaze.

At a late hour Saturday night a hose cart was brought out to subdue an incipient blaze that had broken out in the Capital bank. Fire had traveled by means of the root of an old stump on the Breyman lots to the bank, where it had commenced to burn quite lively under the floor. Luckily Mr. Albert was in the bank at the time and the fire was promptly conquered. This old stump was fired with the other rubbish on Thursday and its roots were longer than had been expected.

A Grand Company.

The preliminary season at the Boston Museum opened with the presentation of "Katti, the Family Help," a farcical, domestic comedy in three acts. The title role was cleverly given by Miss Marietta Nash, who made a hit as the German maid of all work, and was generously applauded for her original work. Her dancing was graceful, and the sabot dance especially was heartily applauded. Of the piece little need be said, except that it abounds in the most mirth-producing mistakes and misapprehensions, which are well managed and so presented as to make the most possible of every situation. An exceedingly funny delineation of the part of Finniken Fluffy was given by George Lauri, his efforts to master the clarinet being extremely ludicrous. His dancing was a feature of his presentation that called out deserved applause. The Richard Fluffy of Harry B. Bell was a commendable piece of work, and was given with a spirit and a "go" that was taking.—Boston Traveler.

This celebrated company are at the opera house in Salem soon and will give one of the grandest shows on earth. Secure your seats now.

Mr. White is Better.

A reporter of this paper visited Mr. White, the old gentleman who was thrown from his buggy on last Thursday night, at Turner, and found him a little better than he had been since the accident. The old gentleman is considerably cut about the face and arms, causing very painful wounds. He is able to talk some, but as he is very old it is thought he may not live.

A Big Purchase.

S. T. Richardson and G. W. Johnson have purchased through Thomas & Payne the Earle farm of 119 acres, lying just over the river in Polk county. The purchase price was $10,000. These gentlemen will subdivide this farm, making of it desirable small tracts.

Some Big Contracts.

Mr. Heag informs the Yaquina Republican that the contracts have been let for all the heavy work west of the Cascades and that in a few days he will let some big contracts on the eastern extension of the road. Work is to be pushed from now on without any stoppage.

Campmeeting Closed.

The campmeeting closed yesterday at Turner and also at Macleay. A large crowd has been attending the campmeeting at Turner for the past three weeks and now that little town of Turner will look lonesome in comparison with the lively sessions of campmeeting.

An Uptown Factory.

The Salem cigar manufactury will soon be removed to a more central location and will occupy a part of the room of Thomas & Payne, on State street. The work rooms will be in the rear of this building, while the retail store and salesroom will occupy one-half of the front room.

Extensive Improvements.

Soon there will be made some great and convenient improvements to the Chemekete hotel in this city. An elevator will be put in and several changes will be made in the arrangement of rooms on the ground floor.

Think of Locating.

John F., C. B., and A. F. Derr of Wilkesbarre, Pa., arrived in Salem this morning and are looking the country over, with a view to a permanent location here.

Supreme Court.

The Portland lumbering and manufacturing company app. vs. the city of East Portland resp.; appeal from Multnomah county; judgment of the lower court reversed and the cause remanded for further proceedings. Opinion by Strahan J. Lord, J. wrote an opinion concurring.

Petition for rehearing in the railroad commission case denied.

R. McDonald, appellant, vs. The American mortgage company of Portland, respondent; appeal from Multnomah county. Judgment of the lower court modified, opinion by Thayer C. J Lord J., concurred except, he thought the allowance of attorneys fees reasonable and ought not to be disallowed.

Court adjourned till Tuesday, September 3, 1889.

To This Complexion at Last.

"Alas, poor Yorick, hast thou to this complexion come at last?" Poor Yorick of old was immortalized by Shakespeare, who makes Hamlet pick up and apostrophize his skull in a country church-yard. But the Yorick to whom allusion is here made is one of the horde who has assumed the role of book agent and is demoralized by a Salem real estate firm by their apostrophe, posted conspicuously in the front window of their office "Book agents are requested to call early and often; we wish to hear the old lies a few more times before we go to Abraham's bosom, where agents are not and the subscription fiend troubleth not."

Not the Razzle Dazzle.

The recently organized lawn tennis club have ordered their accoutrements and expect soon to be ready to enter into the great game in earnest. It was decided by some to name the club the Razzle Dazzle but this grated harshley on the ears of a majority of the thirty members and the club will meet at the residence of Mrs. G. W. Gray to-morrow evening and determine upon a new name. J Glesy in president and Miss Edith Hughes, secretary of the new club.

The Bard of California.

Joaquin Miller, the renowned poet who resides in Oakland, Cal., was a passenger on the north bound Eugene express to-day. He was en route to Portland, and during the few moments of the train's stop in Salem he occupied himself in walking up and down the platform trying to gain a view of the capital city.

The Modoc To-day.

The steamer Modoc will probably go into service on the upper Willamette to-day. It is said that she will make Salem, from Portland in two hours better time than is now being made. She will have all she can do and more too, for the O. R. & N. at Portland are receiving about 500 tons of freight for up-river points daily. If they had another light draft boat, such as the Modoc, they could keep her busy on the route.

The Squatters' Claims.

Unsurveyed lands up on the Santiam east of Mehama are being taken and held by "squatters" almost every day. There are some most desirable claims in that region and the parties who are holding them hope to be able to have the government make surveys soon. In this they will no doubt succeed as soon as a majority of the lands are settled upon. Among those who have gone from this city are Mrs. Rork and Miss Hall.

Died at Silverton.

After a short illness, Clinton Hall died at his home in Silverton yesterday morning at six o'clock. He had not been sick a great while and was thought to have had rheumatism. The funeral was conducted this after noon at three.

The Katti Company.

This popular comedy company arrived in Salem yesterday morning and on account of loss of their advertising paper by fire they had to cancel some dates. This time they will spend in Salem, taking in the sights of the city and country, fishing and hunting. They will appear at the opera house Wednesday and Thursday nights.

A Great Battle

Is continually going on in the human system. The demon of impure blood strives to gain victory over the constitution, to ruin health, to drag victims to the grave. A good reliable medicine like Hood's Sarsaparilla is the weapon with which to defend one's self, drive the desperate enemy from the field, and restore peace and bodily health for many years. Try this peculiar medicine.

A Distinguished Party.

A special car containing ex-Gov. Russel A. Alger of Michigan, ex-Senator Thomas C. Platt of New York, Judge John M. Thurston of Nebraska,, and others, passed through Salem yesterday enroute to Alaska.

One More Big Sale.

The Parker place, consisting of six acres, and located in Parrish's addition to Salem, was this morning purchased by a wealthy German, who has but recently arrived in Salem from the east. The purchase price was $6,000.

"Miss Brown would be a charming girl," I heard a young man say, "If she had a good complexion and those spots would go away; But they spoil her looks completely." If Miss Brown would only take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery what a happy change 'twould make. It would drive out all the humors from her blood and make it pure, And the blemishes complained of disappear, be very sure. This medicine is the great purifier of the blood, and disfiguring eruptions and blotches will soon vanish when it is used.
