A Very Human Little Boy.
Little S., four years old, was taken to church one day, and in the course of the service, it gradually dawned upon him that the attention of the congregation was centered, not upon himself, but upon the clergyman, who was unobtrusively seated. He felt the neglect keenly. He exhibited signs of restlessness, sighed most wearily, and finally attracted the attention of a lady sitting directly behind him, who leaned over and whispered:
"What is the matter S—?"
"Oh," he replied, "I can think of so many things to do much better than this."—Drake's Magazine.

Concerning the Strike.

[Special to the Capital Journal.]
HOMESTEAD, Pa., July 13.—All quiet. An amicable settlement of the strike is expected. President Werk has arrived and notified the strikers that a conference will be held this afternoon.

A Horrible Tragedy.

[Special to the Capital Journal.]
BOSTON, July 13.—A horrible tragedy occurred at Southwell, near this city. Mrs. Catherine Smith and her son Thomas Smith were murdered by August Rosenberg last night. The neighbors were alarmed by the firing of a pistol. Rosenberg was the husband of Charles Smith's sister and the trouble arose from financial difficulties.

Heavy Loss By Gambling.

[Special to the Capital Journal.]
Great excitement is now prevailing here over an attempt to break John Dally's bank by a well known Hedrew, a straw goods dealer by occupation. He arose from the gambling table this morning after losing eleven thousand dollars.

Trial Trip.

[Special to the Capital Journal.]
NEW YORK, July 13.—The Cruiser Boston proceeds to-day on her trial trip on the sea.

A Refreshing Instance.

RED BUTTE, Cal., July 12.—A masked highwayman attempted to rob the stage which runs from here to Champion Mills this morning at a place about eight miles from town. The driver whipped his team into a run and the robber fired a pistol, wounding one of the horses. The driver had $800 on the stage. Officers are searching for the robber.

The Penalty.

JACKSON, Miss., July 12.—The law imposes a penalty not exceeding $1000 nor less than $500, and imprisonment for twelve months, or both, for prize fighting. The party causing death is guilty of murder. Aiders and abettors are subject to a fine of not less than $1000 or imprisonment in jail for six months or both.

Extra Session of Congress.

PHILADELPHIA, July 12.—A Washington special to the Press says: "After consultation with nearly all the republican members, it has been decided to call an extra session of congress between October 15 and November 1.

The Kilrain Party in Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 12.—Sheffield Smith, of Bartholomew county, makes a statement to-night that Kilrain and party are still in Indiana, and a dispatch from North Vernon last night, announcing that they had boarded the train there, is pure fiction. The officer says he followed the party from Columbus to Edinburg, twelve miles north, but citizens of the town did their utmost to conceal the fugitives, their efforts being successful. Smith says they left Edinburg last night and drove several miles in the country, where they remained until noon today, when they left in a carriage. Their present whereabouts is unknown.

A Foolish Saitor.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., July 12.—Charles Suttles, who for some time has been a suitor for the hand of Mrs. Mollie Garvin, angered by her refusal to make him her ninth husband, went to her house at a late hour last night and attacked her, while in bed, with a hatchet, inflicting wounds which may prove fatal, and making his escape.

She had divorced her eighth husband for the purpose of marrying Suttles, but they had a quarrel and she refused to keep her promise. Mollie was bound over in court yesterday for shooting two men, Gid Palmer and son, who tried to force their company on her.

Obnoxious Mormons Arrested.

TESCOLO, La., July 12.—This city is excited over the workings of a band of Mormons. They have been holding meetings for six weeks and have made many converts. Yesterday five members of the band were arrested for holding boisterous meetings up to o'clock in the morning. They will be given a hearing Monday.

A Train Thrown off of the Track.

TACOMA, W. T., July 12.—As the Carbonado coal train came round by the boat house switch, immediately below the Tacoma hotel to-night, the brakeman failed to reach the switch in time and the whole train was thrown from the track. No one was injured, but the line has been blocked for several hours.

Concerning the Strike.

The charter of the Louisiana lottery company is about expiring, and the question of a new charter is prominent in the politics of the state. The managers of the lottery are offering to pay the entire debt of the state, about $12,000,000, provided that they are allowed in return a 50 years' license. The thousands of upon thousands of dupes who contribute month after month to swell the income of this gambling corporation will be interested in this foregoing announcement. It shows where their money goes. In Louisiana it is said the lottery company own all the politicians. It has on its pay rolls most of the members of the legislature, state officials and active politicians.

An interesting figure on the streets of Quincy, Ill., is the aged but still erect form of Gen. James W. Singleton, one of the old war-heroes of the Illinois democracy. Gen. Singleton lives on a beautiful country place known as Boscobel, just out of Quincy, and every fair day he drives into town. He has retired wholly from politics and is spending the decline of life quietly among his books. He is one of the few surviving ante-bellum statesmen of Illinois, and is filled with entertaining reminiscences of Douglas, Brown, Oglesby, William A. Richardson and other companions of his earlier political life.
