History of Oregon

From the Earliest Period to the Present Time

BY HUBERT HOWE BANCROFT.

Just published, complete in two vols. with index. A magnificent contribution to knowledge. The pride of a people who are proud of their records. A household necessity; a national benefit.

Everywhere. No book ever published can at all compare with this in interest and importance to the people of Oregon, and to all others interested in the welfare of their country. It contains a record of brave doings, of grand emigrations and permanent organizations. It is the life of an important part of the nation. No true Oregonian, no true American will fail to secure this work, now for the first time offered separately from the full set of Mr. Bancroft's marvellous historical series in 20 vols.

Enthusiastic workers should secure exclusive territory immediately, or they will lose a rare opportunity to make for themselves.

$500 or $1,000.

One needs no experience or capital in this business, for if properly presented the work sells itself, and we give our Agents 30 days' trial. We will pay for the book and collect before paying us. Address

Dated at Salem, Oregon, July 23rd, 1889.

F. Levy, Executor of said estate. 7-23-89

Threatened With Hanging.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—Acting Secretary of State Wharton, upon telegraphic representations from Congressman Taylor of Tennessee, that Mrs. Hattie Gibson Heron, a missionary in Corea, was to be lauded for preaching the doctrines of Christianity, cabled Minister Dinsmore at Seoul to investigate the case, and, if necessary or not too late, to use his good offices in securing Mrs. Heron's release.

The state department has no other advice upon the subject.

Fatal Fight Over a Cyprian.

LOS ANGELES, July 23.—At San Pedro yesterday Martin Winters, mate of the schooner Jessie Minor, which had just arrived in port, was stabbed and killed by a French half-breed named Louis Richmond. The men were rivals for a notorious woman and meeting her at her house a fatal fight ensued. The murderer was arrested and there was some talk that he would be lynched.

A Band of Thieves Arrested.

NEW YORK, July 23.—A band of men with "Red" Hickey as a leader, who have been robbing fashionable apartment houses here, was captured here to-day. Thousands of dollars worth of property was recovered from the pawnshop.

Two Half Breeds Murdered.

HELENA, July 23.—A special from Missoula says that it is reported two half-breeds were killed on the reservation there last Saturday by the Indians, and there is some excitement in this place in consequence, nothing definite is known, except that more Indians than usual are seen moving about the southern portion of the reserve.

A few days ago Major Roman disbanded the Indian police, on account of disobedience of his orders, and if there is any trouble the civil officers of Missoula county will probably be called upon.

Forest Fires in Idaho.

SPOKANE FALLS, July 23.—Great alarm prevails in the mining camps of the Cœur d'Alene on account of forest fires in the mountains. The citizens have organized and are on guard duty day and night. The smoke is intense throughout the valley and extends over the Palouse country.

There is no scarcity of water, and efforts are being made to utilize it to advantage in the event of the fires descending the mountains to the towns.

A TERRIBLE DISASTER

A Lady Missionary Threatened With Hanging.

GREAT LOSS OF LIFE BY THE FLOOD.

great Alarm Prevailing in the Mining Camps of Idaho.

The Lu Chow Disaster.
SAN FRANCISCO, July 23.—Advices received by the steamer Belgic state that 87,000 dwellings were destroyed at La Chow recently, and that over 1200 perished in the flames. Nearly 170,000 people were obliged to camp out without shelter, and were dying at the rate of 100 a day from want and exposure. The authorities are providing for their necessities.

The Shih Pae says that in the great fire no less than 36,017 families were rendered homeless. It adds that the number of persons killed, both by suffocation and by being trampled upon, is too numerous to reckon. All of the sufferers that escaped from death now live on the banks of the river. As they have no houses to live in, nor food to eat, the authorities are providing for their necessities and soliciting help from the benevolent.

Two thousand bodies are said to have been buried in the recent floods in Kuang Nung. The people of a town lower down on the Han river picked up 500 bodies outside of the south gate of their city and 200 outside of the north gate.

Did He Confess?

SPOKANE FALLS, W. T., July 23.—Mike Siebold, accused of the murder of Tom Fallon, proprietor of the Montana Exchange saloon, two years ago, was bound over to-day without bail, after a preliminary examination. William Eagan, a former associate, testified that Siebold confessed the murder to him. Eagan says Siebold told him he was out walking with Mrs. Fallon that night, and she said if he got rid of her husband she had several thousand dollars, and they could go to California and start a saloon. When they returned to the saloon she handed him a revolver and said, "Now or never," and he fired the fatal shot.

Siebold, when he took the witness stand, denied making the confession.

Fired Upon by an Indian.

HELENA, July 23.—Delegate Carter arrived at Miles City yesterday on his return from Cheyenne agency, and will arrive at Helena to-morrow. While on his way to Miles City and yet on the reservation, he and Joe Scott, president of the stock growers' association, were fired upon by a young buck Indian. They were riding between a tall butte and a trail of Indian wagons. The Indian crawled upon the top of the butte and aimed at the party, the ball whizzing past Mr. Carter's head, but harming no one. The Indian then ran down the butte and got in among the other Indians in the wagons. There could be no object in his action, other than pure Indian devilry.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

—John Savage Jr., sold his farm consisting of 289 acres to T. B. Wait of this city for the sum of $65 an acre.
—The ladies of the M. E. Church and all other ladies interested are requested to meet to-morrow afternoon to sew the carpet for the church.
—A good many Salem people are at different summer resorts and there are also a large number harvesting which makes the streets of our city very dull.
—The fire department received 1000 feet of hose yesterday which will be divided up amongst the different hose carts to-day. This extra amount it is thought will be sufficient for all purposes.
—On account of the absence of the pastor and to allow the members to attend some other place of worship in the city, there will be no services at the Methodist church next Sunday.
—Dr. W. H. Byrd, George H. Burnett, W. G. Westcott, T. O. Barker, L. E. Pratt, Wm. Staiger and George E. Good went to Month yesterday and assisted in organizing a new lodge, No. 97, Independent Order of Odd Fellows.
—But for the prompt action of John M. Dinsmore, George Mitchell, a lad of 10 years of age, would have been among the missing to-day. Young Mitchell went in swimming yesterday afternoon in the Willamette river, and, losing his presence of mind, came near drowning. Mr. Dinsmore, happening along just in the nick of time, rescued the boy from a watery grave.
