Irrigating the Sahara.

I saw, says a Paris letter, a facsimile of an enterprise commenced by the province of Algeria, which bids fair to revolutionize a large portion of the world. It was the representation in miniature of the third plantation of 10,000 palm trees which had been made since 1880-81 in the desert of Sahara as artificial oases on the lines of the principal routes of travel. These have all been perfectly successful. The trees have grown magnificently and become a source of refreshment and rest, which put aside the risks and dangers of the deserts. The system is based upon the production of water from artesian wells, conducted through the fields in shallow ditches, which nourish the roots of trees and plants, and change the plain of sand into a garden of shade and verdure. Later on other forms of vegetation will be introduced in the shadow of the trees, which will shelter the frailer growth, otherwise impossible under the fervent sunshine. Long ago, in the time of the empire there was some question of a process invented by De Lesseps and much encouraged by the Empress Eugenie to form a great lake in the center of Sahara by a canal cut from the Mediterranean. Whether feasible or not the disaster of Sedan caused the collapse of this scheme also, and the possibility of the success in the enterprise must be left forever in doubt. But it is strange that this simpler method was not earlier attempted; or, now that its perfect feasibility has been proven, that it is not made of more general use.

Deafness Can't Be Cured. By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

It is a well known fact that Mrs. David S. Terry, the widow of the man killed at Lathrop, Cal., had a desire to enter the dramatic profession when she yet was Sarah Althea Hill and had attained so much notoriety as plaintiff in the Hill-Sharon divorce suit.

A Pittsburg physician recently in Oregon City went home and said that most of the people of the city were bow legged from climbing the rocky streets and the adjoining bluffs.

This is the season of the year when the raw, cold winds create sad havoc with the hands and complexion. Soft white hands and a clear "peachy" complexion can be assuredly preserved by the frequent application of Dutard's Specific. If rubbed into the skin well it leaves no greasy surface. The skin absorbs it. Sold by D. W. Matthews.

Just a little difference of opinion between the Walla Walla Journal and a woman by the name of Clara Point, has resulted in a libel suit for $10,000. The Journal called the woman a milk and she begged to differ from.

Oregon is one of the most productive states in the Union. It has vast mineral regions containing gold, silver, copper, iron, and lead. Its immense tracts of grazing lands support thousands of cattle and sheep, and its extensive agricultural regions produce all the cereals in abundance, the yield per acre being, in some instances, the largest in the world. Among the useful and valuable products of the Web Foot State may be mentioned Oregon Kidney Tea, which has proved a boon to thousands afflicted with pain in the back and kidney difficulties. It is purely of vegetable composition and never fails. Sold by D. W. Matthews.

If newspapers were printed on gold with ink made out of silver, and the subscription price put down to ten cents a year, some poor, deluded specimen of humanity would kick because there was not a diamond set in the corners of each page.

It should be generally known that Dr. Henley's Dandelion Tonic insures a hearty appetite and increased digestion, dispels nervous depression and low spirits, overcomes lack of energy and wastefulness, and will infuse new life and strength into the weakest invalid. Sold by D. W. Matthews.
