DYSPEPSIA.

It is that misery experienced when we suddenly become aware that we possess a diabolical arrangement called a stomach. The stomach is the reservoir from which every fibre and tissue must be nourished, and any trouble with it is soon felt throughout the whole system. Among a dozen dyspepsias, two will have the same predominant symptoms. Dyspepsia of the mental power and a bilious temperament are subject to Sick Headaches; those, fleshy and phlegmatic have Constipation, while the thin and nervous are abandoned to loomy forebodings. Some dyspepsias are wonderfully forgetful; others have great irritability of temper. Whatever form Dyspepsia may take, one thing is certain.

The underlying cause is in the LIVER, and one thing more is equally certain, no one will remain a dyspeptic who will

I feel grateful for the relief it has given her, and may all who read this be afflicted in any way, whether chronic or otherwise, use Simmons' Liver Regulator and I feel confident health will be restored to all who will be advised."—Wm. ### A Boy's Essay on Cats.

The following is vouched for as a boy's essay on cats. It is all true, every word of it, and no doubt voices the sentiments of the average small boy everywhere in relation to the comparative merits of dogs and cats: "I'd rather have a dog than a cat any day. Dogs can race cats; they can race other dogs; they can race boys or anything. Nobody ain't scared of a cat. A mouse is, but not if it ain't somewhere that it can't get out of, or a rat either. A dog can make a cat dead if he bites her enough. When he comes in the yard he can make her tail look like a Christmas tree. He can make her fix her back up like a camel. I ain't afraid of thieves, but thieves are afraid of dogs. If a thief comes where a dog can get at him, he'll run like the doot; but the dog won't run. A dog can watch a house better than a policeman. He won't let the dog that owns it come in the back yard in the middle of the night; but a cat would. If a man or any other thief was to sneak in, would a cat care? She'd go through the fence like lightning. That's what. A dog knows when you're home from school. He ain't sleepy then. He has fun with old hats, if you give him one. You've got to pay for keeping him, but you don't a cat, because a dog's some good and a cat ain't. I'd rather have a dog."

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH.

William Tell Outdone.
CHICAGO, Aug. 20.—Little two-year-old Sophie Schwab involuntarily became a balloonist and was wafted high up over the broad bosom of Lake Michigan. A rifleman's skill saved the child's life. The exciting incident was witnessed by 1500 picnickers. An Italian peddler of toy balloons attempted to serve two purchasers at once, and in doing so let go his string of brightly-colored globes. The cord got twisted about Sophie's arm and also in her hair, and the buoyant rubber bubbles started heavenward, taking the youthful aeronaut along.

Bystanders stood horror-stricken, scarcely breathing as the balloons went upward drifting out over the lake.

Gust Koch, a sharpshooter, who was attending the picnic, with his repeating rifle hurriedly jumped into a skiff with two companions and pulled out into range. Koch succeeded in piercing several of the balloons, each shot helping the bunch to descend. Before it finally reached the water the boat was at the spot, and little Sophie didn't even get her feet wet.

Railroad Officials Wanted.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 20.—It was rumored last night that Kilrain had skipped. Sheriff Childs of Mississippi, who is here to take him back, says that he has no fear of anything of that sort, that Kilrain will leave for Mississippi to-day to stand trial. Childs makes a rather sensational statement that Kilrain knows he has nothing to fear. He says the plan is to convict and sentence him to the same punishment as inflicted on Sullivan. This will put things in proper trim for the punishment of the railroad officials who carried the pugilists to the fight, for whom Governor Lowry is gunning especially. Kilrain will be pardoned or allowed to go home.

If Twenty Are Passed.
NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—Twenty Arabs, of both sexes, are detained at Castle Garden until Turkish counsel can be consulted. It is said that there are seven thousand Arabs waiting to come to this country provided twenty are passed through.

Sixty-Seven Days.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 20.—Robert Marvel, after fasting for sixty-seven days, died this morning. His case is so extraordinary that it has attracted the attention, not only of a curious public, but of the medical fraternity far and near. He was 85 years old.

Mormons in West Virginia.

WHEELING, W. Va., Aug. 20.—The Mormon elders have been doing effective missionary work in this state, and the effects are beginning to be felt in a serious way. The situation is critical, and in some sections serious trouble is brewing. In Wheeling there is to be found a congregation of saints, with a church building of their own, and regular services held. The converts made have been mostly women. Some of them have been exported to Utah.

Will Marry a Prince.
LONDON, Aug. 20.—Miss Huntington, daughter of Collis P. Huntington, of Southern Pacific fame, is engaged to marry Prince Hatzfeldt.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

The saloon run in British Columbia is reported to be very good.

Boulanger has issued another manifesto and addressed it "Honest People." He says the French senate procured his conviction.

The French minister of the interior has issued a decree prohibiting the hawking or placarding of documents emanating from Boulanger, Dillon or Rochefort.

Official reports of the seizure of British vessels in the North Pacific ocean by United States cruisers have been received by the dominion government at Ottawa.

AFOOT IN IRELAND.

Edgar L. Wakeman Describes a Familiar but Mournful Irish Scene.

It may well be imagined that when from 200 to 300 souls leave Ireland for foreign shores every working day in the year there are heart and hand wringings innumerable and dolorous mists from the region of tears. Few families are fortunate enough to get away all together. If help has come from America; if the passage money has been saved in secret through years of deprivation by a single person; if an Irish family have, after every manner of sacrifice, provided for the freedom of one who is to go to blessed America that the remainder may, one by one, eventually be released from slavery; however the going of all these wretched people may have come about, in every instance there is a struggle in tearing away from the things to which the heart is rooted, which we of better fortunes and conditions know nothing about.

So many of these scenes have I now witnessed that I am beginning to have some little conception of the real bravery of this act of illiterate, untrained men and women pushing boldly across the seas into untried, unknown walks and ways, with a love, hope and determination for one's own at the bottom of it all that have more real heroism in them than the average American is ever able to comprehend in his whole life.

However lowly, poor and desperately good-for-naught the prospective emigrant may have all his life been regarded among his fellows, the great and generous Irish heart in those around him melts into surpassing interest and tenderness when he comes to leave his neighborhood and those whom he has never been so little a part of through the bitter days that have encompassed all. For every departure reawakens the heart-aching memories of other departures; and in every Irish home I ever shared there is an empty chair whose former occupant is somewhere beyond the sea.

The Delaware crop is not as fine as usual—it has an impediment in its peach.

Exploding Bomb.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 20.—A fight to a finish took place between Joe Ellensworth of New York and Denny Kelleher of Boston, Queensbury rules, for a purse of $1500

In the twenty-second round Ellensworth was knocked down by a terrific right-hander on the jaw, which dazed him for the time.

In the forty-third round Kelleher landed on Ellensworth's neck and the latter went down, knocked out.

More Schooners Seized.

VICTORIA, B. C., Aug. 20.—News was received of the capture of two more Victoria sealing schooners in Behring sea, the Pathfinder and the Minnie. The news was brought by Captain Alger, who left his own schooner, the Annie I. Alger, in Neah bay and came to Victoria in a canoe. At the time of the capture by the Rush the Pathfinder had 800 and the Minnie 800 skins. The American schooners Ariel and Teresa are also reported to have been boarded, but allowed to proceed, although they had seals on board, on condition that they at once leave Behring sea. The Victorians expect to see the two seized schooners follow the example of the Black Diamond.

She Will Not Use a Pistol
STOCKTON, Aug. 20.—Mrs. Terry said: "I shall certainly make no attempt to shoot Justice Field. I shall not raise my hand against him. I prefer to leave him to his own conscience and wish he may live long to enjoy it."

The Chief Justice.
PITTSBURGH, Penn., Aug. 20.—Chief Justice Fuller when asked about the killing of Terry, says: "I had heard that Terry uttered threats against Justice Field, and was surprised when I heard that Field had been arrested. I cannot see what he had to do with the murder or occupant is somewhere beyond the sea."
