Interest in the Mines. The Gold Mountain and Dry Gulch consolidated mining company will soon be ready for business.

Without George Belslow of Lane county the Oregon state fair wouldn't amount to so much. The following from the Guard will be good news to all.

Salem Being Illustrated. Artists of the Denver & Rio Grande western railway are in Salem making views of the principal buildings and taking sketches of the best scenes.

The Democrat regrets very much seeing Albany firemen inactive in reference to a team for the N. W. tournament. It is to be the most important in the history of the Northwest and will be noticed more than any other yet held.

For one reason or another the coroner was summoned yesterday to inquire into the cause of the death of Charley Bismarck, alias Karl Berk, who died suddenly yesterday morning.

P. H. Easton, who has leased Beck's old stand on State street from T. M. Patton, has rented a portion of the store to W. W. Brooks for guns, sporting goods, etc.

At a late hour last night in the case of G. A. Webb vs. J. A. Knight, brought here for trial from Silverton, judgment was awarded plaintiff for $17.50.

The fine horse belonging to Thos. Howe that was badly injured by a defective bridge between Salem and the fair grounds, is reported no better. This horse was under training and it is hoped that the accident will not prevent it from trotting at the coming State fair.

Two More New Bricks. Amos Strong is considering plans for a two-story brick building, to be erected on the site of his present restaurant. As soon as the buildings next to him are completed, his restaurant will be moved into one of them and work will at once begin on tearing out his old frame building and the building of a new brick one.

Home From Outings. Although September is one of Oregon's most pleasant months, still the majority of Salem people who have been to the coast or mountains on outings have returned.

Delays Hop Picking. The rain of last night and this morning will somewhat delay the picking of hops. In many of the yards pickers were about ready to begin, but must now wait a day or so.

They Are Coming. The University opens Monday for the school year of 1889-90 and already the students are beginning to arrive in the city to make arrangements for entering school.

An Insane Visitor. Several days ago Miss Fidelia A. Rigdon arrived in this city, on a visit from Pleasant Hill, Lane county. Her actions were strange and this afternoon she was examined before Judge Shaw by Drs. Rowland and Cusick and committed to the asylum for insane.

Alleged Reform in Salem. Hon. T. T. Geer, in the Oregonian, discredits the report of the reform forces held in Salem on a recent Saturday. He says: "The old saying that you must go away from home to hear the news was most signally exemplified by a report of a 'combination conference' of various 'reform forces' held here on the 10th of this month."

Still Crossing the Plains. It is supposed that the good old times when people came the plains across are gone never more to return, but that is not so. A gentleman, who lives on the old Emigrant road, in Gilliam county, sees many passers-by. Of course, there are many ways now open to come into Oregon, and this is only one.

D. B. Pletymann, who has been out collecting specimens of fruit and grain for the Oregon land company, yesterday ran across several trees full of late Duke cherries. He says fully ten bushels are going to waste. These cherries are very large and of fine flavor.

At the Evaporator. A reporter of the JOURNAL visited the Willamette evaporator this afternoon and found things to be running in good style. The new cider mill is nearly completed and they will be pressing as soon as the barrels arrive. The capacity of the evaporator will be about 900 bushels per day.

The Opening of Bids. Bids for the construction of the water tank to be built at the penitentiary were opened to-day, but the contract has not been awarded. The bids are as follows: G. A. Stephens, $542 with tower and $3142 without; Colter & Minor, $3676, tower and tank; Rankins, $3437, tank and tower or $2962 without tower.

Two Marriage Licenses. Licenses to wed were this afternoon granted to Samuel L. Lovell, aged thirty-six, and Alice A. Higgins, aged twenty-four; also to Wm. Powell, aged twenty-five, and Lotta Kincaid, aged twenty-three.

Must Register. The public schools open a week from Monday. Parents must register their children before they can enter school. You will find David Simpson, the clerk, or a deputy at his office in the opera house block.

Hope They Will Stay. To-day dozens of Chinamen have been leaving town for the various hop yards of the county. They go by wagon and by rail. In all, several dozen have left the city and will be away several weeks, until the hop picking is over.

PURELY PERSONAL. -A. Grant took the morning train for Jefferson. -Rev. J. L. Parrish left on the afternoon train for Portland. -Geo. Misner and Myron Briggs left yesterday for Tacoma.

-Mrs. Ira Adams left yesterday for a visit to her old home in Ohio. She will be absent several months. -Ben Taylor returned home this afternoon from his trip to Newport. He reports having a good time and is now ready to carry mail. -Mr. S. M. Apolph returned home to-day from his trip to Chicago. He came by way of Boise City, where his wife and daughter were visiting and they all returned on the morning train.

LOCAL SUMMARY. -R. M. Wade & Co. will add another story to their brick building on Commercial street now occupied by Dugan Bros.

-Painless dental operations at Dr. T. C. Smith's, 92 State street. -Salem is giving employment this season to large numbers of mechanics. There are many buildings going up and more contemplated.

-Epileurean tea, paints, oils, varnish, window glass and a fine line of general groceries at Gilbert & Patterson's. -The new street car line will give steady employment to quite a force of men. Cars will be running in less than six months, the projectors say.

-Another survey is being made, but the shortest and best route is found to lead direct to the grocery store of Squire Farrar & Co. There you will find what you want at prices to suit and goods of a quality that is bound to please. Go now. -P. H. Eaton will sell for cash or installment the celebrated Chickering & Sons, Colby and opera pianos, also Wilcox & White organs.

A GOOD CUP OF COFFEE. Is a great attraction for a restaurant. The coffee drawn from Hellenbrand's Patent coffee receptacle is one of the many Great Attractions of his eating parlors.

Disturbance of the peaceful summer such as Diarrhoea, dysentery and cholera infantum, promptly evicted by Wright's blackberry cordial. Sold by all druggists. Put to Flight—Nervousness and indigestion by Wright's Hop Colony and Chamomile Bitters. A healthful stimulant, and strengthening and invigorating. Sold by H. W. Cox.

Eleven Atlantic cables in all have been successfully laid, and the first two are dead or lost. Of the nine cables, only four are in really good order, the other five being old and having little chance of continued life. The average life of a cable is only ten years.

Country people amuse the cockneys and cockneys amuse the country people; and so the account is kept even. A man from the rural districts—from the famous town of Wayback, perhaps—had gone with a friend into a city restaurant.

"Why not?" "Why not? Why, jest look at the strainers they use. You could shove a catbird through 'em."

A young man with a great deal of hat and a small amount of grip-sack came into the depot on a train the other day, walking through to the backstand he said to the driver of a vehicle: "I want to go the Wayne Hotel."

Are quickly given to every part of the body by Hood's Sarsaparilla. That tired feeling is entirely overcome. The blood is purified, enriched and vitalized, and carries health instead of disease to every organ. The stomach is toned and strengthened, the appetite restored. The kidneys and liver are aroused and invigorated. The brain is refreshed, the mind made clear and ready for work. Try it. One of the poorest consolers in the world is an empty purse.
