He Won the Prize.
A business man advertised for an office boy recently, and, as usual, got a big bundle of answers. He got fairly well tired reading the good things the young aspirants for the place had to say of themselves, but finally he struck a letter that really rested him. It was written on a very much soiled and crumpled piece of paper that had never been very white, and ran as follows:
"I'm 12 years old. I hain't got no father nor nuther. I'm an orphan and I've got to hustle. It just betes hel how hard times is."
The gentleman read no more of the letters, but at once sent for the writer of this one and gave him the job. The boy has settled down to "hustling" in earnest, and doesn't complain any more about the "hard times."
The Canadian Pacific railway extends farther east and west than any other road in the country. It runs from Quebec to the Pacific ocean.

Counterfeiters Caught.
KANSAS CITY, Aug. 30.—A special from St. Joseph says that a Marshal there arrested a farmer named Roblison for disposing of counterfeit money. He confessed that he was one of a gang of agents for the counterfeiters recently raided near Dayton, O. He states that $50,000 in counterfeit $10 bills had been distributed among agents around St. Joseph. Later in the day a deputy arrested two other persons implicated. More arrests are expected.
"Brace up Old Fellow."
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—Dempsey received the following dispatch from Guy Tutthill, his backer, dated New York: "Brace up, old fellow. Anything I can do for you I will do with pleasure. Challenge the Marine to fight with skin gloves for $10,000 a side."

A Novel Proposal.
NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—A striking suggestion concerning the proposed World's fair for 1892, was received to-day. It was to have a fleet sail from Spain, visit San Salvador and then New York, and then have the exhibition opened by the baby king of Spain.
Rafting Logs at Sea.
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—The Robertson patent for the construction of timber rafts has been purchased for the Pacific coast by prominent business men of this city. A company is now being organized to carry out not only the building and delivery of rafts, but also manufacture lumber on a very extensive scale in San Francisco. With an unlimited supply of raw material drawn from the forests of Oregon, Washington and British Columbia, it is thought the manufactured articles of lumber can be placed on this market at very low prices. Piling will also be an item in this trade.
Americans Not Wanted in China.
LONDON, Aug. 30.—A dispatch to the Standard from Shanghai says: Pekin advices say that a number of high Chinese officials have petitioned Prince Chun to have all Americans employed in China expelled from the empire. It is reported that Prince Chun consents.

Storms in the Orient.
LONDON, Aug. 30.—Advices from Yokohama state that disastrous storms have recently occurred in Waiyama. Ten thousand persons perished in the floods following the storms, and 20,000 were rendered homeless. The loss of property is enormous.
The Mother Hubbard.
"How loose round my waist were the clothes of my childhood, as my doubled up corset reminds me with pain, the slips that I wore when I used to chop stove wood, had more real enjoyment than bustle or train. The bustle, I know, is a thing highly treasured by ladies built on the mocking bird style, but give me the garment with looseness unmeasured, the old Mother Hubbard that weak men revile; the dear Mother Hubbard, the loose Mother Hubbard, the honored old Hubbard that beats any style."

Inspecting the Jetty.
ASTORIA, Or., Aug. 30.—Senator Mitchell was taken on board the Winona to see the jetty. He expresses himself pleased and gratified to note the progress of work, and to learn that there would soon be thirty feet of water on the bar. After dinner at the Occident, Senator Mitchell had an informal reception, and was then driven to Smith's point to note progress on the railroad bridge work.
Protection From Fire.
SEATTLE, W. T., Aug. 30.—The city council decided to-night to establish a paid fire department of nineteen men, at annual cost of $35,000. This is exclusive of the fire boat, which will be as large and well equipped as that of Boston.
Two Trains Collide.
RUTLAND, Vt., Aug. 30.—A special passenger train and a live stock train collided near Middlebury, on the Central Vermont road, to-night. It is reported that several persons were killed or injured. A wrecking train has left for the scene of the disaster.
Senator Sumner once wrote of Clara Barton: "She has the talent of a statesman, the command of a general, and the hand and heart of a woman."

MUSIC!

Occidental Jottings.
At Pendleton the other day an Indian female stopped under the shade of a tree, dismounted, and gave birth to a child, wrapped the infant in a piece of cloth, jumped on her pony and rode off as if nothing extraordinary had happened, although several spectators in neighboring houses watched the performance with great interest and unbounded astonishment.
News has been received of a fatal and most shocking accident at Forest Grove about noon Wednesday. A fatal accident occurred in the family of J. F. Ellis of the Pacific University. While their youngest daughter, aged about five years, was engaged driving the horse into the barnyard, one of them suddenly kicked her in the head at the base of the brain, killing her almost instantly.
Concerning the recent decision of Judge Deady in the case of Samuel Case vs. the U. S. government to restrain the erection of the government tramway on the north bench at Yaquina, the case was simply brought to determine whether Case or the city of Newport owns certain rights to the river front. The decision will not interfere with the government work.
Paternal Councils.
"Alexander," said the parent, in a voice sad, yet stern, "you are about to go forth into the wide world to carve out your fortune. No doubt you have beautiful dreams of what you will achieve. In your mind's eye you see yourself coming home a year from now clad in velvet and fine linen. I trust that you may come home that way, but I fear your garments may be composed of burlap. You confidently expect to drive homeward down the sunlit road in a gorgeous equipage with servants and retainers; I trust that you will not have to walk homeward on the ties and get turpentine from the hired men to keep body and soul together. You scoff at the idea, and you may scoff until the clangor of brazen bells announces that the cows are coming home. I have heard young men scoff before at words that were speeded to drive homeward down the sunlit road in a gorgeous equipage with servants and retainers; I trust that you will not have to walk homeward on the ties and get turpentine from the hired men to keep body and soul together.
