What well-directed training schools can accomplish is illustrated in the case of the dairy schools of Denmark. The government has for years spent over $50,000 yearly for the maintenance of dairy schools.
The result has been an immense improvement in dairy products, and a lively demand for Danish butter.
Within twenty years the Denmark exports of butter have increased from $2,100,000 to $13,000,000 per annum.

THE CHINESE CONSUL.

He Will Be Sent Back to China and Beheaded.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3.—The Chinese Consul-General, Leong Hang Tsang, was busy yesterday.

There was every indication about the consulate that the noble Tsang was preparing to migrate with his household for China.

Boek Hing thought that he had talked too much the day before; hence he delegated the talking business to another man who was a countryman of his and apparently of equal intelligence.

"You can say that the books are being expeted and that the money is being refunded."

"Do you mean to say that the $300,000 is now being returned to proper claimants?"

"I can say that. That is the only thing that keeps the suit back. It is quite probable that no action will now be taken in the courts of this country."

"If all the money is refunded will Tsang continue in office here just as if nothing had happened?"

"By no means. He will not even be allowed to remain in this country, but will be recalled."

"And then?"

"Off goes his head. He can make no atonement for his act if the Government find him guilty."

"Then he would be foolish to go back at all, would he not?"

"Ah, but there's the rub. They have a way of bringing people back. Tsang has a father, and I think, mother, living, together with brothers and sisters. If he should refuse the order to go back, do you know what would be done? Why the last one of them would be put in prison. If he held off for a year one of his closest relatives would die; then another would follow, until the entire race of Tsangs had been swept out of China. Any man of feeling would prefer to deliver himself up in preference to having his old parents tortured and his relatives butchered.
No sir; he will not lose a moment when instructed to go home though he will know that it means certain death."

Over the Falls.

NIAGARA FALLS, Sept. 3.—Sunday afternoon Carlisle D. Graham made a successful trip through the whirlpool rapids and the maelstrom that was preparatory to his effort to pass over the falls which, according to Graham himself and a few eye witnesses, was accomplished in safety. The same barrel was used.

At 6 o'clock (this morning) the barrel was towed out into the river by two friends of Graham, and at 6:45 o'clock it was let go at a point opposite Chippewa creek. Down the current it swept, plunging over the reefs, often out of sight, till at 7:10 it approached the brink and dropped 200 feet into the abyss below.

The barrel soon rose intact and descried in an eddy. Elmer Jones swam out from the Canadian shore, caught hold of the rope attached to the barrel, and towed it to shore, where, just at 7:25 a. m., Graham was lifted out.

Graham himself says: "The first thing I knew was when some one struck the barrel and said, 'Graham, are you alive?'"

No Civil Service Law in His.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—In an interview here last evening on the civil service law, Congressman Houk, of Tennessee, said: "At the coming session of congress I propose to test the sentiment of the house on this sham civil service law. When the appropriation bill comes up I shall offer an amendment striking out the item making an appropriation for its support. Nine-tenths of the members know that the law is a fraud, and say so in private. Now I am going to smoke those fellows out, and put them on record. I believe the civil service law unconstitutional, and I am sure the supreme court would so decide it if the question ever came before that tribunal."

Swept by Fire.

URIAH, Cal., Sept. 3.—The largest fire known here occurred this afternoon, after the Palace hotel had been fired three times by incendiaries. The fourth attempt was successful. The annex to the Palace, a wooden building, was soon in flames.
The Palace hotel, Wells, Fargo & Co., the Western Union telegraph office, Hove's theatre and several residences followed. The Odd Fellows' building was partially burned.
The loss will be heavy.

The Montana Fires.

HELENA, Mont., Sept. 3.—Rain has extinguished the fires that have been raging for the past month.
The damage to the timber has been quite severe, but it is not so heavy as was anticipated.

In the vicinity of Elliston snow to the depth of four or six inches covers the ground. The fires raged fiercely Saturday and Sunday. Fifteen hundred people, it is estimated, turned out at Elliston to fight the fires. They worked all night Saturday and till 1:30 Sunday night.
Many came back with scorched faces, burned clothing and bloodshot eyes. Huge cinders were blowing in the air, and the arrival of rain and snow was never so welcome as it was there. In the morning the top of the range was covered with snow, a very rare occurrence at this season of the year.

All For a Woman's Love.

SALT LAKE, Sept. 3.—Malad City, just over the Idaho border, has been thrown into a case of excitement by a fatal duel between two young men, Abraham Likes and Jude Spring, of Clark's Flat. They came there last spring and went into partnership, ranching. Both fell in love with the same woman, Jimma Trauds. Unable to settle the matter amicably, they resorted to a brook side with six-shooters, and there settled the matter by fatally wounding each other. They were buried where they fell; side by side. What has become of the girl does not appear.

Frauds Brought to Light.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—The researches of the interior department of officials are bringing to light frauds perpetrated by a ring, composed partly of officials of the late administration, and fostered by them, relative to the allowance of accounts for surveying, whereby the government was forced to pay between $47,000 and $48,000, some of which was drawn upon orders made out in favor of some of the officials, themselves concerned in the transaction, while others are made out in the name of a prominent democratic ex-congressman who figured as an attorney in the business for a number of surveyors in different parts of the country.

A Duel Expected.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 3.—The French colony in this city is very much worked up over a duel that it is believed will take place somewhere in the immediate vicinity of Los Angeles. The belligerents are Charles Raskin, editor of Le Gaulois, and Felix Viote, editor of Le Progress. The journals are weeklies, each claiming to be the organ of the large French population here, and the rivalry between the editors has been growing in bitterness ever since July 14th.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

Fifty farmers were summoned in Chicago from which a jury to try the Cronin suspects are to be selected.

A race war is imminent in New River Valley, West Va., growing out of trouble between a negro and a white man, in which the former was killed by a blow from a club.

A prairie fire ten miles wide is sweeping the bottom lands near Big Stone, Minn. Hundreds of farmers have lost all their hay and stock.
The fire was started by a party of hunters and got beyond their control.

A petition signed by nearly 10,000 railroad employes has been sent to the inter-state commission at Washington requesting that body to secure the adoption of automatic brakes and couplers of all freight cars on the railroads in the United States.

A Telephonic Church.

The idea of a telephonic church is being carried out at Tunbridge Wells, England, where the pulpit of a Congregational church is connected with sixteen subscribers. We are told that "these include doctors apothecaries, clerks working in various parts of the town, an invalid lady who has been obtaining consolation from the telephone for several months and some lay clubmen who went into the thing presumably more from a spirit of experiment than devotion. Wires are being laid to Maddstone, and soon subscribers living there, in Rochester, in Stroud and Chatham, will be able, without leaving their houses, to attend services in Tunbridge Wells."
