DESPERATE CHARACTERS.

The Country Around Tacoma Infested With Thieves. TACOMA, W. T., Sept. 10.—Sheriff Price has received a large addition to his boarders in the persons of fourteen desperate characters, who had assembled at Pollyup for the purpose of preying on the hop pickers in the valley. The sheriff has about a hundred deputies at various points along the river, looking after the desperadoes who have been committing burglaries and robberies for the past few weeks. They are supposed to have run out of Seattle recently. The men had been caught by some of the deputies and committed by a Pollyup justice for sixty days as vagrants. On being searched every one was found to have some kind of dangerous weapon, slingshots and sandbags being favorites. The Sheriff expects ten more to-morrow, and says he will make their imprisonment as pleasant as possible, so they will not want to come back to this county. It is thought that the desperadoes have caught onto the racket and are making south for San Francisco and Portland.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR.

Proceedings of the Oregon Grand Conclave at Eugene Yesterday.

EUGENE, Or., Sept. 10.—The grand conclave of the Knights Templar of the state of Oregon met in the asylum of Ivanhoe Commandary, No. 2, of this city, to-day. The sessions were well attended by the members and quite a number of visiting sir knights. The following officers were elected to serve the grand commandary the ensuing year: R. P. Earhart, grand commander. F. N. Shurtleff, deputy grand commander. D. P. Mason, generalissimo. S. M. Moran, captain general. I. W. Pratt, prelate. J. M. Hodson, senior warden. B. E. Lippencott, junior warden. A. Roberts, treasurer. F. J. Babcock, recorder. The officers were installed at the evening session, in the presence of a large number of sir knights and their ladies, after which a fine banquet was partaken of, under the auspices of Ivanhoe, No. 2, served in the excellent style of Mrs. Munro of the Huffman house. It was a highly pleasing affair throughout.

Whitechapel Murder.

LONDON, Sept. 11.—At 5:30 this morning the police found the body of a fallen woman lying at the corner of the railway arch on Cable street on Whitechapel. An examination of the remains showed that the head and arms had been cut off and carried away, the stomach ripped open and the intestines lying on the ground. The manner in which the limbs were severed from the body show that the murderer possessed some surgical skill. The woman was about thirty years old. Her clothing was shabby and she was evidently a great drinker. The remains have not been identified. The most intense excitement prevails over the matter. Later dispatches say the poor victim was murdered at some other place and carried to the spot where she was found as there is no blood on the ground where she was found.

Another Road for Oregon.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 10.—There is being some speculation done here as to whether Colonel J. Mervign Donahue, president of the San Francisco & North Pacific railway, intends extending his line north to Crescent City, Del Norte county. A prominent resident of Crescent City had a conversation with Col. Donahue recently, in which the Col. suggested that the San Francisco & North Pacific railway would be built eventually to Crescent City. "If he builds to Crescent City," you may be assured he will build beyond. He would have a good road, to be sure, but by building a hundred or so miles further north, he can quadruple his income. "In what way?" was asked. "Why, by making his road a branch of the great Northern transcontinental line, or if not a branch, an adjunct. Donahue is looking to the Northern Pacific now, and I think his plan is plain. He will continue his road from Ukiah along the coast to Eureka and Crescent

City. Crossing the state line he will pass on and will stop at Yaquina Bay." This would give an outlet for transcontinental lines.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

—The electric lights are now burning all night. —Don't neglect to read T. Holverson's advertisement in this issue. —The State insurance building is being painted red. It looks attractive. —Remember the big restaurant on the fair grounds is just the place to get a first class meal. —A valuable brood mare belonging to Amos Strong broke her leg yesterday morning and the animal was killed. —Painless dental operations at Dr. T. C. Smith's, 92 State street. —The accidents that have happened in the city this week have had no effect on the low prices at S. Farrar's for groceries. See their fine display of fruits. It's tempting. —Remember that the Bon Ton restaurant is the place to get a good meal for twenty-five cents. —You will find some interesting reading to-day on the second and third pages of the JOURNAL. —The work on the new brick block on the corner of Commercial and Chemekete streets is progressing nicely. —Epileurean tea, paints, oils, varnish, window glass and a fine line of general groceries at Gilbert & Patterson's. —The front of the favorite cigar and tobacco store is being treated to a new coat of blue paint. This makes a combination of colors on that corner. —For a good square meal you should go to the Bon Ton restaurant. The coffee made in their patent coffee urn is delicious and healthful. Try it. —FOR SALE.—Monroe's house on Church street, opposite the M. E. church, with or without furniture. A bargain can be had. Call at the house for terms. —A swarm of yellow jackets have established their home in one of the crossings at the intersection of Commercial and Marion streets. They give the boys lots of fun in that locality, when they attack inquisitive dog or an unwary traveler. Trouble is liable to come, if the swarm is not destroyed.
