WHAT LIQUOR DID.

A Sensational Item Spoiled—H. C. Johnson, of Heppner, Causes a Little Fun.

About 8:30 last evening G. Crichbaum, guard at the gate at the State penitentiary noticed a strange looking man in the yard, and knowing that something was wrong he ordered him to halt. But instead of doing as ordered he ran. Mr. Crichbaum then went to the prison office and got the night watchman's revolver and went to the strange form and ordered him to throw up his hands, which he did.

The appearance of a stranger inside the prison walls at that time of night caused quite a sensation, and Warden McKinnon for fear an attempt was being made for a wholesale delivery of prisoners, caused a thorough search all around the walks and over the buildings and shops, but had he known the whole circumstances he would have known that there was no danger.

HOW IT WAS.

As soon as it was made known in the city this morning that a man had "attempted to break in the penitentiary" a JOURNAL reporter was sent to see that man, as it is always just the other way. The above facts were learned at the penitentiary, and this evening at 3 o'clock when a reporter called at the county jail to see Mr. H. C. Johnson, of Heppner, who it was that caused the commotion at the penitentiary, the following facts were learned: Mr. Johnson arrived in Portland yesterday on his way to Salem, from Heppner.

Mr. Johnson says how he got there he does not know only that he was crazed with liquor as above stated.

Mr. Johnson is a good citizen of Heppner, and is a gentleman well connected. A look at him will satisfy anyone that no evil intentions were intended by him, but he was simply overcome by the power of liquor. He was on his way here to look after some business matters, and it is to be regretted that he has been the victim of the unfortunate circumstances. It is hoped that the matter will be satisfactorily arranged.

THE STATE FAIR.

Busy Scenes at the Fair Grounds—People Arriving—It Will Surpass all Previous Fairs.

A reporter of the JOURNAL made a visit to the Fair grounds to-day and found a large amount of work going on. The new stables are now completed and the grand stand is being repaired and the grounds receiving their final arrangement.

Work has begun in fixing up the grand pavilion and a number of stands are now at the grounds in running order. Among those that have stands are Wm. Benson, Charles Henderson, S. L. Jones and Speight & Roach and two restaurants Louis Rennie and L. S. Winters, all of Salem. A bar room has been put in at the race track by Adolph Anderson, and a number of other stands will be in running order by Monday.

The race track is in excellent condition and a large number of horses are already there and more are expected to-day and to-morrow. Campers are moving in and their houses are being repaired. The street cars are running every few minutes and by Monday five extra cars will be put on. A large number of visitors are riding to and from the grounds all day long. The car makes the trip from the grounds in twenty minutes, and after the extra cars are put on they will travel in much less time.

The races this year will be very interesting and will no doubt be the attracting feature of the whole affair. The amount of live stock that will be on hand will also be a great feature of the occasion, while the grand pavilion will be crowded with some of the most elegant displays of goods that has ever met the critical eye of anyone that will be in attendance. There is an abundance of pure and wholesome water on the grounds, and other accommodations that will tend to make life as comfortable as possible while in attendance. As stated before people are arriving on the grounds, and by Monday when the gates will be swung open, it is expected that several thousand people will be in attendance.

THE CONSOLIDATED MINES.

A Reporter Holds An Interview With the Secretary, and Gives the Readers the Benefit of It.

A JOURNAL reporter called at the office of the Gold Mountain and Dry Gulch Consolidated gold and silver mining company, in the post-office block, and was shown some white quartz, full of free gold with an assay of $451 25-100 per ton; some rotten quartz, with string gold plainly to be seen with the naked eye, assayed at $375 80-100 per ton; samples of Galena ore that will average 75 per cent. pure metal; also samples of copper ore that will average one-tenth pure raw metal, and also other silver and gold bearing ore that ranges from the assay from $40 to $220 per ton, and some placer dirt that gives a showing of $1.25 per cubic yard.

The secretary on being asked what advantage would be derived by purchasing stock in the company said: "There are several reasons." 1st. The stock has more real value than the price for which it is sold. The company owns and controls the best placer mining grounds ever opened up on the Pacific coast, and also some extra good quartz leads. Eighteen miles of toll road running from King's prairie, to the mines, originally built at a cost of $32,000, has been purchased in the interest of the company.

2d. The company is organized on a basis wherein a small holder of stock has an equal showing with the larger, and no one need have fear of being froze out on account of assessments, as the stock is made absolutely paid up and absolutely non-assessable on the payment of $10 per share. The par value of the stock is $50 per share, but after a careful estimate it was decided that $10 per share would thoroughly open up the mines.

3d. The directors are not allowed to run the company into debt beyond the money on hand, and stockholders are not liable for company debts.

4th. Parties holding stock with the company have a preference over all others in getting employment with the company.

The company is now building the necessary buildings at Quartzville, and expect to complete surveys this month, and also commence work on the road purchased in about ten days, so that they can haul in the necessary machinery to operate the mines.

The Big Four.

A few days ago it looked as if Salem was not to have an opera company here during the great state fair, but the matter is settled now and the many people who will be in attendance to the fair will have the pleasure of enjoying an evening with the Big Four minstrels who will hold forth at Reed's opera house the entire week. This company is a first-class minstrel combination and will give you a chance to enjoy a good hearty laugh, one that will drive away all thoughts of trouble and strife. The company carry a first-class band and give a fine and gorgeous street parade. The company is composed of such artists as John T. Long, Charley Cobb, Fred Cooper, Harry Woodthorpe, James Kelleper, Harry Foster, Ed Meredith, Charley Strong and Dou Carlisle. Altogether the managers of the opera house are to be congratulated over their efforts in securing the services of the Big Four.

He Will Go Over the Road.

This morning Deputy United States Marshal Henry Barndrick, accompanied by Police Officer Rube Glaze went over in Polk county to the hop yard of Mr. Doves, near Independence, and arrested an Indian by the name of Moses Gilliam, for selling and giving liquor to another Indian in the city on last Sunday. The prisoner was brought to this city and tried this afternoon before United States Commissioner Walton and plead guilty. He will be taken to Portland in the morning and tried in the United States court. It is a settled fact that he will not handle "fire water" again soon. The case was worked up by officer Glaze and credit is due him over the arrest.

Insane Man.

J. B. Nichols was brought to the asylum to-day. He is sixty-five years of age and talks wildly. His case is caused from dyspepsia and enlargement of the prostatic gland and bright disease. Also David McNally, aged thirty years. He has been free in the use of alcoholic drinks. They were brought from Douglas county.

COOK'S HOTEL.

Mrs. Fred Brewer, George Brewer, Jefferson; H. C. Zinn, in room, Washington, D.C.; John Elliott, Portland, Or.; Fred Walker, B. Ragson, W. Wilson, Jefferson county.

PURELY PERSONAL.

—N. S. Debois returned home to-day from Belknap Springs. —Henry Barndrick the Jefferson warehouse man is in the city. —Thos. Hubbard left on the morning train for a trip to Portland. —Fred Piper of Albany is in the city on a visit, and will attend the state fair.

—Uncle Wm. Hunter, of Brownville is in the city and will remain until after state fair.

—Uncle Wm. Hunter, of Brownville, is in the city and will remain until after the state fair. Mr. Hunter is selling a book containing the history of his own life, which is very interesting it also contains good reading matter about the early days.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

—S. Huelat of Oregon city was appointed notary public by the governor to-day.

—T. Holverson is making some very low prices. Read his advertisements in this paper.

—Carpenters commenced work this morning on the new bridge across the mill race on North Liberty street.

—Remember the big restaurant on the fair grounds is just the place to get a first class meal.

—People are wondering why Caterlin and Lusser's photograph gallery is so crowded lately, and by inquiring it is found that they do the best work in the city.

—The accidents that have happened in the city this week have had no effect on the low prices at S. Farrar's for groceries. See their fine display of fruits. It's tempting.

—The Catholics of The Dalles intend erecting a brick church that will be an ornament to the city. Some five thousand dollars are pledged for the purpose.

—Remember that the Bon Ton restaurant is the place to get a good meal for twenty-five cents.

—Epicurean tea, paints, oils, varnish, window glass and a fine line of general groceries at Gilbert & Patterson's.

—Two young men at Molad City, Idaho, shot each other to death over a senseless young lady last week, who didn't possess any brains above her shoe tops. The poor fellows occupy narrow graves in a lone cemetery, and the young lady is hale, hearty and haughty.

—For a good square meal you should go to the Bon Ton restaurant. The coffee made in their patent coffee urn is delicious and healthful. Try it.

—The strange disappearance of several young girls between the ages of seventeen and eighteen in the past two weeks is creating quite a little excitement at Tacoma. No trace whatever has been found of any of them, and in each case they have disappeared without taking any clothing except what they were wearing at the time. Kidnaping is suspected, as the girls were handsome and intelligent, and it is thought they were abducted for the purpose of prostitution.

Marion Street Sewers.

A large force of men are now at work on the Marion street sewer. The work of excavating the trench is going along nicely and the work of laying the sewerage will commence shortly.

Articles of Incorporation.

Articles of incorporation were filed with the secretary of state to-day as follows: The Columbia Investment company of Astoria with R. L. Cherry, C. R. Donhoe and E. G. Rogers as incorporators; principal office is in Astoria, Or.; capital stock is $60,000, divided into shares of $100 each.

Dyspepsia

Makes the lives of many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. We know of no remedy for dyspepsia than Hood's Sarsaparilla. It acts gently, yet surely and efficiently, tones the stomach and other organs, removes the faint feeling, creates a good appetite, cures headache, and refreshes the burdened mind. Give Hood's sarsaparilla a fair trial. I will do you good.

A GOOD CUP OF COFFEE.

Is a great attraction for a restaurant. The coffee drawn from Hellenbrand's Patent Coffee receptacle is one of the many great attractions of his eating parlors. Thousands of cups of his excellent coffee are sold every week. And as for oysters and meals he cannot be equaled in the state.

Put to Flight—Nervousness and indigestion by Wright's Hop Celery and Chamomile Bitters. A healthful stimulus, and strengthening and invigorating. Sold by H. W. Cox.
