The Best Advertising.

The most efficient advertising in behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla is that which comes from the medicine itself. That is, those who are cured by it, speak to friends suffering similarly, who in turn derive benefit and urge others to try this successful medicine. Thus its popularity is rapidly widening from this cause alone, and more and more are becoming enthusiastic in behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla as it actually demonstrates its absolute merit. All that is asked for Hood's Sarsaparilla is that it be given a fair trial. If you need a good blood purifier, or building up medicine, try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

CLAUS SPRECKLES TALKS.

He is Sanguine Over the Successful Beet Culture on the Pacific.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—Claus Spreckles, the sugar king, arrived last night, after several months' absence in Europe and the Eastern states, here he has been engaged in business connected with his new sugar refinery at Philadelphia.

Spreckles stated to-day that everything was in readiness for the starting up of the gigantic establishment at Philadelphia. "I propose to devote the balance of my life, said the financier, "to my sugar business, leaving my other interests to the management of my sons."

Speaking of the beet sugar industry of the Pacific coast, he said: "It will not be long before the farmers of this country, and especially of the Pacific coast, will arrive at the conclusion that the production of sugar in the United States is of more vital importance, as far as profits are concerned, than is the production of wheat. Of course, when I speak of this matter, I refer to the production of beet sugar. Beet raising is the coming farming industry of this coast, and I propose to show the farmers that this statement is a fact. Careful calculation will show that a sufficient amount of beets can be raised on the soil of this state alone to make enough sugar to answer the demand for consumption of the entire United States. Farmers can easily net $50 per acre from their land by raising beets. When our ten new factories are started in this state, they will be able to consume all the California farmers can produce.

United States Marshal Barn- drick came down from Jefferson this morning and took an Indian from this city to Portland for trial.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

—The motor line question on the third page. Read it.

—T. Holverson is making some very low prices. Read his advertisements in this paper.

—Don't fail to read the news on the second and third page of to day's paper.

—Painless dental operations at Dr. T. C. Smith's, 92 State street.

—Preaching at Wade's Hall, Sunday, at 2:30 o'clock p. m. by Rev. Dollarhide.

—Read Joseph Myer's ad. It will interest you.

—Holiness meeting every Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, 115 High street near Agricultural works. All are welcome.

—Remember the big restaurant on the fair grounds is just the place to get a first class meal.

—There will be a train running to and from this city to the fair grounds next week which will accommodate a large number of people.

—People are wondering why Caterlin and Lussier's photograph gallery is so crowded lately, and by inquiring it is found that they do the best work in the city.

—Services at the usual hour at the Christian church to-morrow. Morning subject: "That Jesus is the Christ and Son of God."

—The accidents that have happened in the city this week have had no effect on the low prices at S. Farrar's for groceries. See their fine display of fruits. It's tempting.

—The Windsor ties that we advertised are gone and they went for less than 18 cents. However, we will have more in a few days again and will sell them at the same price. T. Holverson.

—Remember that the Bon Ton restaurant is the place to get a good meal for twenty-five cents.

—There will be Sunday school at the Congregational church next Sunday. You are all invited to attend.

—Epicurean tea, paints, oils, varnish, window glass and a fine line of general groceries at Gilbert & Patterson's.

—Harriet Gordon was admitted to a scholarship to the mute school according to the act approved by the legislature Oct. 25th, 1889.

—For a good square meal you should go to the Bon Ton restaurant. The coffee made in their patent coffee urn is delicious and healthful. Try it.

—The man who is too stingy to spend a trifle each week to support his home paper, but will borrow his neighbor's paper, is certainly doomed for that place, "where the worm dieth not and the fire is not quenched."

With fatal speed impure blood courses through the system with death in its wake. Wright's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla cures all blood diseases. Sold by R. W. - - - and J. J. Fry.

The Great Strike Ended.

LONDON, Sept. 13.—A conference was held to-day between Cardinal Manning, on behalf of the strikers, and the directors of the dock companies. The cardinal submitted proposals for a settlement. These the cardinal believes will be accepted.

The joint committee to consider the proposals of the strikers agreed that the wages demanded be conceded, to take effect Nov. 4. The lord mayor, at a conference with the directors of the dock companies, gave assurances that the men would be ready to begin work on Monday. The strike is virtually settled.
