A FOUL MURDER.

An Aged Spinster Killed Presumably for a Ranch.
SAN DIEGO, Sept. 30.—Word was brought to the city yesterday afternoon that a murder had been committed on the Otay mesa, several miles below this city, the victim being a spinster named Miss Abbey, about 60 years of age, who owns a small ranch in that locality. There are two conflicting stories of the discovery of the crime, one being that a boy named Porter stumbled on the body lying in some brush quite a distance from the house, and the other, and apparently more accurate one, that a neighbor's boy who was sent over to Miss Abbey's house to get her to do some work, knocked on the door, but got no response, and, looking in, saw her lying on the floor dead, and then went back to Tia Juana and informed the officials and that a party went at once to the house and found her lying on the floor with a basket on her arm and her skull crushed.

The woman was a dressmaker, and occasionally came to this city to give lessons in cutting and fitting, going back to the ranch, which was a Government claim, in order to prove up. When in the city a few days ago she complained that some one had been robbing her ranch and house; that she had tracked through the brush some worsted work and a quilt that belonged to her and which she suspected a certain person of stealing. The purpose of her last visit was to catch the thief, if possible. She was in the habit of accusing certain of her neighbors of persecuting her in this manner in order to force her to abandon her claim, and the officers will investigate the matter on this supposition. No other cause is known for the crime and no clues were left by the murderers.

THE ENGINEER WAS DRUNK.

A Fireman Breaks Down and Admits That he Perjured Himself.
CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—A sensational climax ended the coroner's investigation into the Rock Island Suburban railway accident this evening. The jury had just returned a verdict holding Engineer Twombly and Fireman Leclache responsible for the wreck and committing them to jail. Leclache broke down and admitted having perjured himself in swearing that Twombly was not drunk. The fireman then made a confession, telling of his ride with the drunken engineer. He intimated that compulsion from high officials of the company had prompted him to lie. Twombly and himself, it appeared, had gone to a saloon before starting out in charge of the freight train that played such havoc at Washington Heights. Twombly drank freely, but, said Leclache, "he was not paralyzed drunk." Leclache added that Twombly's ran the engine himself, and said at the time of the accident Twombly's head was out of the cab window, and he might have been asleep for all the fireman knows. Leclache broke down and cried like a child. Engineer Twombly is under arrest at his home where he is confined to his bed by injuries received in the wreck.

suicide in An Asylum.

STOCKTON, Sept. 30.—About four o'clock this afternoon William J. Carr, an inmate of the state asylum for the insane, was found dead, having committed suicide by hanging himself with a rope. He climbed on a shelf, tied the rope and then permitted himself to drop off. When found he had been dead about half an hour. Carr was committed from Fresno about a month ago. He was about 40 years old, a tailor by occupation, and for the past two weeks had been working in the tailoring department of the asylum. The nature of his malady led him to attack everybody, but he had never exhibited suicidal tendencies. An inquest will be held to-morrow morning.

Evil Forebodings.

HELENA, M. T., Sept. 30.—Of 758 naturalization papers issued in Anaconda, only 248 can be found. Five hundred and ten papers have now been recorded, despite all efforts of the district clerk, and it is feared that an attempt will be made to improperly use them. It is alleged that Anaconda parties have voted for years and held office who were compelled to take their papers this year. Trouble is likely to follow the election and criminal prosecutions may result.

Pacific Coast Shipbuilding.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—Theodore Cramp, a member of the well-known shipbuilding firm of Philadelphia, was in the city to-day on his return from an extensive tour of the West and Alaska. To a reporter he again made a strenuous denial of the rumor that his firm contemplated buying and building extensive dry-docks at Victoria, B. C. He added that he had no knowledge how the report originated. Speaking of shipbuilding in California, he said he did not think it would grow to large proportions. "They have the finest kind of timber out there," said he, "but it is becoming more and more the custom to use iron. Nearly all the new vessels, including even the spars, are now of iron, and vessels will continue to be built where such material is abundant. The erection of large iron works on the Pacific Coast will no doubt aid shipbuilders somewhat."

Accused of Wife-Murder.

JACKSON, Sept. 30.—The coroner's jury in the Baigalupi case found that the deceased came to her death from strychnine poisoning, and accuse Dominick Baigalupi, her husband, of her murder. An analysis revealed unmistakable traces of poison in her stomach. The accused is still at large. His description has been telegraphed all over the state.

Chicago Will Love Him Now.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—Charles T. Yerkes, president of the West Division Street Railway company and North Side Cable-Car company, today subscribed $150,000 to the Chicago World's Fair fund. This is the largest subscription so far made by one person.

Another Fire.

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Sept. 30.—The town of Cambria in the northwest part of this county was almost wholly destroyed by fire this morning.

A special to the Tribune gives the following account: At 2:30 this morning a fire started in the Proctor hotel. The cause is unknown. The flames spread rapidly, and in half an hour the entire block was a mass of fire. Little water was at hand, and there was no service whatever, and there was no means of arresting the spreading flames. Building after building caught, and in spite of all efforts the destruction went on, until there was nothing left which could be destroyed, not even a shed. All the business portion of Cambria was wiped out. The buildings being entirely of wood, the destruction was so rapid that there was not even time to get out their contents. Hardly anything was saved, and the town is destitute. No lives were lost.

The total loss is about $125,000. The insurance is about $120,000. The postoffice and telegraph office were destroyed.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

William P. Dale, commissioner of Indian affairs under President Lincoln, died yesterday—76 years of age.

Jacob Levi, a clothier of Topeka, Kan., has assigned. His liabilities are $90,000. The assets are not known.

A riot occurred yesterday at a Hungarian christening at Allport, Pa. One Hungarian was murdered outright, and two others were seriously wounded.

Rhenish newspapers announce that Count von Hatzfeldt, the German minister to England, will shortly re-marry his former wife, an American lady named Moulton. It is understood that their separation was merely formal.

It has been discovered that the fire in the temple of Heaven, at Shanghai, was of incendiary origin. Several persons have been arrested for complicity in the crime. The authorities have learned that the object of the incendiaries was to create the idea that the fire was an omen to warn the people against the introduction of railways into China.

CLOSE AT EIGHT.—If you have any trading to do at the grocery stores you had best do it before eight o'clock p. m., as at that hour the various grocery stores in the city will close their doors according to the agreement published in these columns some days ago. The move is a good one, and will give merchants and clerks who have long hours to work, a couple hours more rest out of the twenty-four. Saturdays are not included in the contract and stores will remain open until all business is over.
