CAUGHT BY CONFIDENCE MEN.—Amos Bogue, who resides a few miles from Corvallis, had a rather aggravating experience at Portland yesterday morning, says the Corvallis Times. The old gentleman is about sixty years of age and was returning home from a two months visit among friends in Missouri and Kansas. At the Portland west side depot while purchasing a ticket for Corvallis he was accosted by a fine looking young man with the customary "How-do-do," and asked if his name was Mr. Bogue from near Corvallis. "Yes sir," was the reply. The confidence culprit informed the old gentleman that he resided there also and mentioned the names of a few of our citizens which were familiar to Mr. Bogue. He then went on with a long story about his baggage and that there were some back charges that had to be paid before the company would deliver it, etc. He further stated that he had plenty of money in his trunk, but that he could not get at it just then and that if he would loan him $70 the money would be paid back as soon as he got possession of his baggage on the train. Just then a third party stepped up, purporting to be the baggage-master, and informed the schemer that his baggage was on the west side train and that if he expected it to go the charges must be paid immediately as the train was about to leave. The story looked plausible to Mr. Bogue and he paid the money to the baggage-master. The old gentleman and his new made friends then entered the smoking cars and took seats side by side. Various topics were discussed until the train reached the last stopping place in South Portland, when the young man excused himself for a moment. He failed to return, and finally Mr. Bogue asked Conductor Webster to show him the baggage-master. He was pointed out, but, no, he wasn't. The old gentleman then began to think the whole thing was a job to rob him. The expression on his face told the conductor that he had been swindled by sharpers and after relating his story, Mr. Webster telegraphed detectives in Portland to look out for them. Undoubtedly they will be caught, as accurate descriptions were given and the baggage-master (?) was identified at the depot and the detectives were shadowing him and watching for his pal as the train pulled out.

ITS STRENGTH APPRECIATED.—This week, 500 extra copies of the WEEKLY CAPITAL JOURNAL are sent far and near over the United States by enterprising advertisers. The value of an advertisement in the CAPITAL JOURNAL is now being appreciated by the better class of advertisers. The circulation of the JOURNAL is such at the present time that the management is proud of and the subscription books are open for inspection. No false estimate of circulation is given. In saying 500 extra copies above the regular weekly circulation is just that number extra that will be sent out. By falsifying a little the figures could have been made to say over 1000, but the George Washington motto occupies a prominent position in the JOURNAL'S mailing room. These extra copies are purchased by advertisers and sent out at their dictation, over the states of New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Ohio, Indiana, California, Texas and one or two others.

OREGON HUMANE SOCIETY.—The regular quarterly meeting of the trustees was held on Saturday evening, at Portland, with T. L. Ellis in the chair. The report of Officer Felix Martin was received. Attention was called by members to the continued overcrowding of chicken coops, and also to the present overloads carried by the street cars to and from the fair. There have been some important convictions, and case of probable failure of justice which received much comment—that in connection with a logging camp. The following resolutions were passed: "That through the winter months the president be requested to call special monthly meetings of the board for the first Saturday of each month." The next meeting, therefore, will be November 21.

A FINE HOME.—Dr. Diven and son have just returned home from a visit to the home of E. S. Brooks, which is located twenty miles southeast of Silverton. Mr. Brooks is engaged quite extensively in bee culture. He has some seventy colonies that have produced this year, near onto 4000 pounds of most excellent honey. Dr. Diven who arrived in Oregon about the first of the year, has travelled extensively over the state and in all his travels, he says that the home of Mr. Brooks is undoubtedly the most lovely of any he has seen. There is a possibility that the doctor may locate in that vicinity.

IT CONTINUES.—The indications were favorable, this morning, for some clear weather, but, this evening, the "gentle Oregon mist" is falling again, and more than likely we are to have a "spell of it."

MORE DRESS GOODS.—I show more dress goods and trimmings than any house in Salem. When you want a dress get it at head quarters. T. Holverson.

QUITE SICK.—A little child of John Ronco is quite sick with fever, and there is little hope of its recovery.

STATE PENITENTIARY REPORT.

Report of Superintendent of State Penitentiary—The Report Very Favorable One Over All Others.

Superintendent Geo. S. Downing has filed his quarterly report of the Oregon state prison for the quarter ending September 30th, 1889. The following are a few points taken from the same: Total number of convicts employed in the shops 209, care of prison, 8, in prison kitchen 5, offices 5, shoe shops 2, tailor shops 2, blacksmith 1, carpenter 1, laundry 5, yard 14, garden 5, barber shop 2, butcher 1, soapmaking 2, teamsters 2, care of stock 2, general farm hands 10, sick aged and decrepit 13, total 250. The total earnings in the Northwestern foundry are, for July $1995.; August $2054.50 and for September $2022.80. From U.S. civil department for prisoners, $617.14; for military department board, $52; rent of house $12. Total earnings for the quarter, $9772.44. The daily average of convicts for the quarter 233.09. The number of convicts at the close of the last quarter were 395, and at the end of the present quarter 280, making a decrease of 115 in number. Number of convicts received during the quarter 20. Number discharged and term expired 32. The report is a good showing, and the net earnings are the best ever made before in one quarter. Superintendent Downing has now got everything in excellent running order, and the expenses are very small to any former period, and the earnings are much better than has been before, since the prison has been established.

A NEW INVENTION.—Dr. Jennings one of Salem's well known dentists has just completed the arrangement of a wonderful scientific electrical machine for the alaying of pain in the extraction of teeth and also to relieve that horrible sickening sensation caused while the teeth are being operated on. Dr. Jennings has spent much time and pains on this wonderful invention and it is the only thing of the kind successful operation today. He has had it patented. The extraction of teeth with the aid of this invention, is painless (absolutely so) and no headache, no poisoning, or sickness is experienced afterward. His office is supplied with the most improved and best instruments. Office in new Bank block. Sign of big gold tooth—307 Commercial street.

A CURIOUS CASE.—There is a peculiar case at the state penitentiary that is causing considerable attention. Yesterday a prisoner by the name of Hastings, complained of one of his teeth hurting him, and by request was allowed to go to the prison physician and have the tooth extracted. He did so, and as soon as the tooth was pulled he fell into a swoon from which he has not yet revived. He has what the doctors call an epileptic stroke. Yesterday evening he had nine very hard fits and has had several to-day. The prisoner has heretofore been perfectly sound, and is a man that is above an average in physical power and size. He has been employed at the foundry. The case is a curious one, and it is rather doubtful whether the prisoner will survive long. He does not seem to be at his right mind.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION.—Articles of incorporation were filed with the secretary of state, to-day, as follows: The Dalles Land and Improvement company, of the Dalles Or. Capital stock $30,000, divided into 300 shares of the value of $100 each, with M. M. Ellis, G. F. Gross, J. J. Duff, W. L. Britton, O. G. Coad and Wm. Right as incorporators. The principal place of business is in the Dalles. Also the Pendleton Transfer and Fuel company, of Pendleton. Capital stock $10,000, divided into a hundred shares of the value of $100 each, with Henry Kopitke, Chas. F. Colesworthy and John Harley, Jr., as incorporators. Principal office, in Pendleton, Or.

THOSE OLD AWNINGS.—There are still a few old awnings over the sidewalks in the business portion of the city that should be taken down before any accident could happen. These old awnings are a disgrace to the city and are also very dangerous. This is the proper time to attend to this business. The awnings in front of the wooden buildings on the east side of Commercial street are in poor condition and should be repaired, or removed before any accident is done.

WILL BE RETAINED.—The Salem Abstract and Land company have made arrangements to retain the services of Mr. Frank Waters, who is quite an experienced young man in this line. Mr. Waters is a trusty employee and has had charge of the abstract books so long that he is perfectly familiar with all the details.

BUSTED.—The combine, being busted, I will sell Key West cigars and cigars at the old prices. Oysters or meals served at all hours for 25 cents. Fine private dining rooms for families. C. W. Hellenbrand proprietor, Hellenbrand's cutting parlors, 235 Commercial St.

IMPROVING.—Mr. H. Stolle, the gentleman who was injured by a buzz saw a few weeks ago by cutting his fingers very bad, is improving slowly, but it will be sometime before he can use his hand.

SHOCKING.—Why pay traveling agents exorbitant prices for rubber stamps when you can get them for less than half their prices from F. S. Dearborn, 98 State St.

THE BOB TON RESTAURANT is without doubt the most desirable place in the city for a substantial meal. The coffee served at this favorite restaurant cannot be excelled.

THAT MOTOR LINE—Will be built and Squire Farrar & Co. will continue to carry the most select stock of groceries, provisions, fruits, etc., in the city.

Communication.

AUMSVILLE, Or., Oct. 8, 1889. ED. CAPITAL JOURNAL.—Noting "Daisy's" reply to my article regarding the cost of raising hops, please allow me to say "thanks." The figures appear comprehensive and consistent, yet I cannot help being of the opinion that the environment of Champeog is unusually favorable, or else the hop men there are pretty good managers. (Better than I am anyway.) At any rate, the hop culturists that I know of do not appear to be waxing suddenly and violently rich, yet I am satisfied that where one has hop land, it is better than grain growing, if pains is taken to make a good article. But it appears to me that it is with hops as it is with berries, the right kind of land and a favorable locality, are essential to success.

There is no "I" in my name. D'ye mind that, Daisy? F. S. MATTHEWSON.

Mormons on the Move. OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 8.—Advices from the Canadian Northwest, near Lees creek, report a great influx of Mormons from Utah Territory. They are bringing their plural wives as sisters, cousins and aunts, and are being closely watched by the Dominion authorities, who will prosecute them to the full extent of the law if they can get proof of polygamy. Stenhouse, the British Columbia member, who resigned his seat in the legislature to enlist in the Mormon ranks, is actively canvassing Alberta, with a view of securing a seat in the next Dominion Parliament, where he says he will endeavor to effect marriage reform and the legalization of Mormonism.

Voting by Electricity. The plan of voting in assemblies by means of the electric current, and thus avoiding the time lost in making divisions, has been before the French chamber of deputies and a report on the subject was presented by M. Montant last November. In that report the advisability of employing a machine which would indicate not only the total votes "pour" or "contre" a measure—that is to say the "ayes" and "noes"—but also the number of voluntary abstentions from voting, as distinct from the number of absentees. Such an apparatus has been devised by M. le Gozou. On every desk in front of a member is placed a small box fitted with two handles, which the member works when registering his vote. The right handle registers his "aye," the left his "no," and both moved simultaneously indicate his abstention from voting. The results are printed by means of electro-magnets in a receiver and are visible at a glance. Provision is made for a member to recall and correct his vote during the time allowed for the purpose.—London Times.

Malaria. Literally means bad air. Poisonous germs arising from low marshy land or from decaying vegetable matter, are breathed into the lungs, taken up by the blood and unless the vital fluid is purified by the use of a good medicine like Hood's sarsaparilla, the unfortunate victim is soon overpowered. Even in the more advanced cases, where the terrible fever prevails, this successful medicine has effected remarkable cures. Those who are exposed to malarial or other poisons should keep the blood pure by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Silver deposit on ivory, buckhorn and wood figures in the new handles. There are numerous ball handles of silver in bright finish, with chased decoration. Then there are long, somewhat slender handles, showing a combination of bright and chased finish.

A unique sugar and cream stand is one which consists of two low, round silver bowls, held together by the intertwining of an upright handle in the center between the two bowls. The sugar is lifted from the bowl with a long handled silver scoop, while the cream is served with a long handled spoon with deep bowl.

You can't afford to have an offensive breath and decayed teeth. Wright's Myrrh Tooth Soap prevents both. Try it. Sold by all druggists.

It has been proven that Wright's Red Cross Cough Cure cures throat and lung troubles of long standing, when all other remedies fail! Sold by all druggists.

IT WON'T BAKE BREAD.—In other words Hood's Sarsaparilla will not do impossibilities. Its proprietors tell plainly what it has done, submit proofs from sources of unquestioned reliability, and ask you frankly if you are suffering from any disease or affection caused or promoted by impure blood or low state of the system, to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. The experience of thousands is sufficient assurance that you will not be disappointed in the result.
