THEIR BUSINESS BOOMING.

Probably no one thing has caused such a great revival of trade at Daniel J. Fry's Drugstore as their giving away to their customers so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous in this very valuable article from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, and all throat and lung diseases quickly cured. You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free, large size $1. Every bottle warranted.

Persons visiting Casco Island, Me., recently heard a sound like that which an old fashioned windmill might send forth in a gale they went to the south side island, where they witnessed the astonishing sight of a pitched battle between a seagull and a crow. The gray bird won, "knocking the crow out so badly" that he was easily captured by one of the visitors.

Put to Flight—Nervousness and indigestion by Wright's Hop, Celery and Chamomile Bitters. A beautiful stimulant, and strengthening and invigorating. Sold by H. W. Cox.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH.

SHE SOUGHT NOTORIETY.

A Girl Who Was Very Anxious to Cowhide Somebody.

WILLOW SPRINGS, Mo., Oct. 25.—Travis Taylor, a middle-aged man with a wife and two children, the other day wrote a note to Miss Fannie Osborne, daughter of a respectable farmer living just out of town, asking her to elope with him. The girl and her mother brought the letter to town yesterday and showed it to friends, and upon the advice and encouragement of a large number of citizens the girl purchased a cowhide and went to find Taylor. She found him in the office of a hotel, but Miss Osborne was prevented from striking him by the landlord. Taylor put himself in charge of Justice Young for protection. Young started to accompany Taylor home, but was stopped by the girl and her mother. They began whipping Taylor, but Young seized the cowhide and arrested the girl. He placed her under a bond, which was quickly filed by a large number of indignant citizens, and as soon as the Justice came out of his office the girl proceeded to wallop him with the cowhide in the presence of a large and appreciative audience. The Justice did not again place the girl under arrest.

WHEAT GROWERS.

They Hold a Very Important Convention at St. Louis.

St. LOUIS, Oct. 25.—Wheat-growers of the Mississippi valley assembled here yesterday to organize for future action. Walter N. Allen, president of the Farmers' Federation, called the meeting to order and made a lengthy speech on the needs of farmers. He said: "If farmers would organize like manufacturers to control production and regulate the output in the public market, they could, in common with all producers, set the price of their own products irrespective of competition or the power of voidable tendency to the present system is to bring the price down to the lowest limit at which the flood supply can be produced. In order to avert impending ruin, we must reverse this order of things. The power to establish the value of one barrel of mess pork can control the markets of the world. This power is to be centralized agency of the federated farmers of the Mississippi valley."

Other addresses were made in a similar vein. Ex-Secretary of Agriculture Coleman was made permanent chairman of the convention.

Show at the East.

WINCHESTER, Va. Oct. 24.—It snowed most of the day with the thermometer near the freezing point. Thirty-six years ago to-day snow fell to a depth of fourteen inches, breaking down trees and shrubbery. Reports from Staunton and Harrisonburg report that the weather has been extremely inclement all day, alternately raining, hailing and snowing.

They Believe in Advertising.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 24.—The National Association of Manufacturers and Dealers in Proprietary Medicines at its annual meeting to-day elected R. N. Pierce of Buffalo president. Among the vice-presidents is C. S. James of Bloomington, Ill. The business of the association last year was $22,000,000, of which $10,000,000 was spent in advertising.

Braidentown, Fla., has a genuine curiosity in the shape of a three-legged pig. The little thing is perfect in every respect, being the fluffiest of a litter of six, except that his left foreleg is absent, the place where it should have been being marked by a boneless projection about an inch in length. He seems to get around with perfect ease, and is always ready for a frolic with his little brothers and sisters when they come around.

ADDITIONAL CITY NEWS.

UNIVERSITY NOTES.

Miss May Boise of the class of 89, and Miss Nettie Meredith visited the school Thursday.

N. E. Perry went down to Portland today, to take in the exposition. He will return Monday.

Prof. Van Sooy went to Corvallis yesterday morning, where he will deliver a lecture in the evening.

Levi Magee came in from Toledo, Monday and went down to Portland, to see the great fair before entering school.

Visitors have been very numerous during this week. Come again friends we welcome you and are pleased to have you see what we are doing.

The academy rhetorical took place Thursday. The efforts of most of the students showed due preparation. The average preparatory student now feels relieved of a burden for another five weeks.

The college rhetoricals are still progressing. The following are some of the orations of this week: F. J. Brown, "Intemperance;" S. F. Belknap, "European Emigration;" J. J. Fitzgerald, "Insigma of Character;" Miss Minnie Frickey, "Knowledge and its Power."

Mrs. Chadwell, of Aberdeen, Wash., and Mrs. Hauser, of Pomerey Wash., arrived in the city during the week to visit their sons who have been quite ill, but are improving nicely at present. The general health of the school is improving and not nearly so much sickness is reported this week.

J. West, a prosperous farmer, of Clatsop county, was in the city the first of the week, looking after fruit land and visiting the schools with the view of moving with his family to Salem. He succeeded in buying forty acres of land about two miles west of the city. He was well pleased with Salem, and will soon move his family here to enjoy the advantage of Salem's good schools of which she may well be proud.

The Philodorian at their meeting last Friday evening discussed the question Resolved—that, "the pulpit affords a better field for eloquence than the bar." The question was warmly debated on both sides, Prof. Rork and Hon. E. H. Belknap, were present and joined with the boys in their discussion.

The entertainment of the evening of Nov. 6th, by Miss Long, teacher of reading and elocution, in the Wilhamette university, bids fair to be perfect in every detail. Miss Long has met with great success. East as a public reader and promises Salem one of her best programmes. The Duluth Evening Herald, thus closes an encomium on her reading there. "It is not out of the way for to say that Miss Long's efforts proved a literary and artistic success, and she well deserved the crowded house."

The Philharmonic choral class was reorganized last Monday evening at the conservatory parlors under the most favorable circumstances. The class was never better represented, both in numbers and musical talent. This class promises to be one of the best entertaining features of the coming season. They report officers as follows: Director, Prof. Parvin; president, L. F. Belknap; Vice-president, Miss Susie Harrington; secretary and treasurer, N. E. Perry.

METHODIST SERVICES—To-morrow morning at M. E. church. Subject, "Adorning the Gospel." Evening, Addresses to young people. Subject: "A Properly Poised Character." All welcome.

Disturbances of the peaceful summer such as Diarrhoea, dysentery and cholera infantum, promptly evicted by Wright's blackberry cordial. Sold by all druggists.

You can't afford to have an offensive breath and decayed teeth. Wright's Myrrh Tooth Soap prevents both. Try it. Sold by all druggists.

It has been proven that Wright's Red Cross Cough Cure cures throat and lung troubles of long standing, when all other remedies fail. Sold by all druggists.

John Jones, a Norristown hunter, has shot with a small rifle an owl-shaped bird of bright yellow and white tints, with a face like a monkey and an ink mark on its breast resembling a heart.

A large fish hawk caught a three pound bass in the mill pond at Harmonsburg, Pa., and after flying some distance with it was obliged to descend, when it was frightened away and left it prey.

One day recently, not having anything particular to do, the captain of a schooner lying in Tampa bay counted the number of sharks in sight, and he made the figures 760. As he is cross eyed and near sighted he allows that some of the fish must have got away while he was counting and are to be lumped in at about fifty.

Fitties, especially great tits, are held in great horror by many bee keepers, who declare that they are their greatest enemies, and accuse them of tapping at the entrances to the hives and snapping up the bees as they come out to discover what is amiss.
