ONLY LOUD TALK.
Ohio and Iowa Come Out all Right—Frauds in New York.
OHIO.
COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 7.—The State Journal, republican, says the republican state committee estimates Campbell's plurality over Foraker for governor at from 10,000 to 12,000. Returns from nine of the leading counties show that Foraker ran 10,365 behind the ticket.
IOWA.
DES MOINES, Nov. 7.—The additional returns on the legislative ticket show that the republican majority on a joint ballot will be eight, thus insuring the re-election of Senator Allison.
The Register, Rep., says: The revised figures give Boise, for governor, 4800 plurality, and indicate the probable election of all republican state ticket except the governor.
FRAUD IN NEW YORK.
NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—General Knapp, of the republican state committee, announced this morning that most astounding frauds in balloting had been discovered in Troy and other places, on the part of the democratic party, in the recent election. He would not state what he expected to do about it, or whether the results in the election would be affected by the discoveries.
MASSACHUSETTS.
BOSTON, Nov. 7.—The senate will be composed of twenty-nine republicans and eleven democrats, as compared with thirty-two republicans and eight democrats in 1888. There were 162 republicans and seventy-eight democrats returned to the lower house—a republican loss of eighteen.

PENNSYLVANIA.
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—Revised fuller returns from all the counties in Pennsylvania do not materially change the figures already sent out. The latest computation makes the plurality for Boyer, Rep., for state treasurer, 62,231.
VIRGINIA.
RICHMOND, Nov. 7.—A tabulated statement of the vote of the state gives McKinney a majority of 41,000.
IMPORTANT IF TRUE.
The Best Bituminous Coal Reported at Elsinore.
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 5.—Word has just reached this city of the discovery of immense deposits of the best bituminous coal at the Elsinore coal fields in the San Bernardino mountains. An old experienced miner has been prospecting for a syndicate of capitalists and told them to sink a shaft fifty feet below the lignite veins and they would find good coal. They did so and the results are said to be beyond their wildest expectation.
They claim that there are three veins, and coal enough to supply the whole of the western country. They have been keeping it quiet for the purpose of buying up all the land possible surrounding the discovery. The coal is said to be equal in quality to the best Western Pennsylvania bituminous coking coal, and can be delivered in Los Angeles for $3 a ton.

ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELL.
A Mother in Oregon Recovers Her Lost Boy From Lakeport.
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 7.—In 1886 Mrs. Butts was the proprietor of a boarding house in this city. She had but recently moved from Chicago, where her husband had died shortly before, leaving herself and two small children, a boy and a girl.
Among the boarders was Raphael Price, who became madly infatuated with the widow, and upon her refusing to marry him suddenly disappeared, taking with him the boy Frankie. The affair caused quite a sensation at the time.
Nothing was heard of Price until recently, when Chief of Police Brackett got word of him at Lakeport, Cal., where he had placed the boy in good hands. The mother had in the mean time moved to Oregon, and a dispatch received here to-day says that the child has been once more restored to its mother, who is now a professional nurse in the city of Portland.
The boiler of a dredge boat exploded at South Pass, La., killing two firemen, McGinty and Jengel.
J. L. Pordemare, a prominent citizen of Scotia, Neb., was shot and killed by Calvin Madison as the result of a quarrel.

IT WILL NEVER BE KNOWN
Which One of the Dakotas Was Admitted First.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Efforts have been made recently to establish the priority of admission into the Union of one of the Dakotas. It now transpires that no one knows which was admitted first. On Saturday the President received from the State Department the two proclamations, deficient only to the extent of his signature. The question of priority at once came up, and it was found to be difficult to decide. After some debate the two documents, unlooked at were laid face downward on the desk on a sheet of paper, and then they were shuffled together.
When this stage of the game had been reached the proclamations were turned face upward, but protected by the sheet of paper, upon which they had been laid. The sheet was slipped aside until the blank spaces for the Presidential signature were exposed. The autograph was appended to each, the ink allowed to dry, the proclamations turned over once more and again vigorously shuffled. The two Dakotas were admitted to the Union of States, and although one of them was ahead of the other just the length of time it took the President to write his name, history will never be able to record the name of the leader. It is a profound mystery and it will always be so.
A SENSATIONAL SERMON.
How a Preacher Astonished His Congregation.
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 7.—The Rev. J. A. Graham, pastor of the Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, astonished his congregation yesterday morning by assuming the role of Robert Elsmere, renouncing Christianity and denying the Bible and the church and their teachings.
So cleverly did the gentleman play the part that a startling scene ensued. Many of his listeners were in tears. Some thought that he was crazy, and all were inexpressibly shocked at his words. His strange discourse was spoken in a very impressive manner, and a member doubted that he meant all he said, but he did not. He was trying to show the people the evil results of indifference in religion, so that they might get an idea how terrible it was to hear religion denounced.
His main point was to make them see the necessity of clinging to the faith. It was a strange way of getting at the people, but it had its effect and gave them an unusual shaking up on religious questions.
A Total Abstinence Town.
TULARE, Nov. 7.—All the saloons in this city were closed at mid-night. As threatened yesterday. The controversy rests as much upon the restrictions imposed on the $400 a year license. The ordinance requires the applicant to be of good moral character, furnish a bond of $100,000, allow no gambling, card-playing or music, and not sell to minors or common drunkards.
CONDENSED DISPATCHES.
Archbishop Gross of Oregon, has arrived from Paris by City of New York.
The president yesterday appointed Trinidad Romero United States marshal for New Mexico.
The president yesterday appointed William W. Bates, of New York, commissioner of navigation.
An explosion occurred to-day in a dynamite factory near Bilboa, Spain. Four persons were killed and many injured.
In a drunken fight at Buffalo, N. Y., Wm. Dixon cut Joseph Gilbert's throat. Dixon was so drunk that he lay beside the dead body of his victim until found.
The American ship Chesborough, from Higo for New York, has been wrecked on the north coast of Japan. Nineteen of the crew were drowned. Erickson, the Weaverville, Cal., mail robber, was captured in an old cabin in which he had been hiding several days. He made several desperate attempts to escape.
Judge Prendergast, of Chicago, has sentenced William Keat to thirty days' imprisonment in jail and a fine of $500 for interfering with the judges of election at the recent primaries.
The convention of the Woman's Home Missionary society finally adjourned yesterday. Mrs. John Davis, of Cincinnati, was elected president, to succeed the late Lucy Webb Hayes.
