LISTEN GIRLS .- To-day is Saturday and to-morrow will be Sunday. To-morrow night you are again to witnessor participate in that. Catching on" scene enacted at almost every door of house of worship in the city. Now ladies the scene is a the city. Now ladies the scene is a disgrace to your sex and also to the fair name of this city. It lies wholly in your power to stop this carrying on that has became so ludricous. If any young gentleman is keep-ing company with you and does not have enough aspect for you to properly excert you to services as well as from them, then for the re-spect of the female sex, do not let any young blood step up and "Catch on" at the outside door or from one to two blocks away. The practice is disgusting, and will not be done by any sound thinking person.

TOOK THE HOUSE BY STORM. This morning's Herald says: "The Long Strike," presented by the Long Strike," presented by the Chicago Comedy company at the opera house, last evening, was the best play yet produced during their engagement in this city. James Devlin in his great part of lawyer simply took the large audience by storm. The play abounded instrong dramatic stuations and was well rendered throughout. To night the commany will conclude their week's company will conclude their week's engagement, playing the "Factory Girl," or "Everybody's Friend." A grand family matinee will be given this afternion, when "Katleen" will be played. Monday night this company begin a week's engage-ment in Salem and those who wish good seats had best secure them while they can.

Snow vs. BLACKBERRIES.—As to more fully impress on the minds of eastern people the mildness of Ore-gon winter weather the JOURNALed-itor would say that cesterday he was shown a number of large, juicy and fresh blackberries just from the vines. The were grown by Mr. C. Snowden who' resides on Cottage street, and were of the Evergreen variety. Now if this is not enough that he was informed by Mr. Snow-den that some of the vines were just den that some of the vines were just blooming again which would indi-cate "ripe blackberries in December about an hour, notice and January."

FUN FOR BYSTANDERS. -- Yester-day afternoon a Chinaman from some unknown place, stepped off of the train at the depot platform and an expressman approached him, wanting to haul his baggage to the city, and while talking to the China-man a second expressman came up and wanted to faul the baggage also. While the Chinaman and the two expressmen were debating who could haul it, the third expressman came along and, picking up the bag-
