SALEM wants that Motor Line by a'l means.

TELL a fib if you must, but never write one.

A SPEECH from the throne—"Blast that JOURNAL."

THE JOURNAL proposes to publish the news at all hazards.

A MAN who attempts to flatter you takes you for a mule.

A STANDING tray is a dog thing when it is on a war footing.

A FOOL can start a fire that the wisest man in the world cannot put out.

LOVERS of fey play will be indignant to learn that the sun is now shining day and night at the South Pole.

THE coming city election is near at hand and be careful how you vote. Its to your individual interest to do so.

THE city of Salem has not as yet signified its intentions of becoming a monarch to be reigned over by Lords. Not much she hasn't.

SENSATIONAL or otherwise the JOURNAL is succeeding in making the "corns" on a few persons toes ache with pain. The shoe generally fits tight you know.

THE bathing dress of society is now replaced by the ball dress. One is a little longer at the bottom and shorter at the top than the other; that is all; they are both for show more than that for comfort.

THE experience of New York city with women in the school board has been very satisfactory, and the papers are calling for reappointment of the present woman members, with the addition of others.

THE people of Salem are now fully aware as to what paper is published in the peoples' interest. THE JOURNAL has no strings to pull but is looking out for an honest support from the people.

ST. PETER—Who are you? New Spirit Unit—I am a Salemite who opposed the Motor line. St. Peter—Well, you skip. You will find a reserved seat for you fellows down below where the atmosphere is warmer.

AGENT: Mr. Moneybags, can I sell you a phonograph, the greatest invention of the age? The machine will guarantee to talk 200 words per minute, and—Mr. Moneybags: Thank you, sir, but I don't need it. The sewing circle meets twice per week at our house.

HERE is a floating item that contains a deal of truth: "Newspapers are often criticised for what they print, but if it were known how much credit they merit for what they don't print, or for the nonsense they whack out of what they do print, they would command a much more generous judgment."

THE Louisiana impetus to shoot at something resulted the other day in a general rising against the Israelites in Delhi in that state. From fifty to seventy-five graves collected on the streets with shotguns and revolvers and began firing through the windows of the shops kept by Jews. Business jealously assigned as the cause of the riot.

It will not be many years until our government will take hold of the express business of this country and conduct it in a singular manner as it now does the mails. The English postoffice does all the express business in Great Britain and carries parcels at an average cost of 11 cents each, and then makes a profit of $2,000,000 a year.

THE loving heart is the strong heart. The generous hand is the hand to cling to when the path is difficult. There is room for the exercise of charity everywhere in business, in society and the church; but the first and chief need of it is home, where it is the salt that keeps all things sweet, the aroma that makes every hour charming, and the divine light that shines through the gloom.

THE MOTOR LINE.

We take the following from the Salem State Democrat, whose editor heartily endorses the effort to do justice to the Salem and Silverton motor line. The citizens of Salem are in earnest and mean business:

TO THE EDITOR OF THE DEMOCRAT: We can see no good reason why there should be any opposition to the motor line being built in Salem on any and all of the streets necessary, except it would be somewhat to the advantage of the corporations now organized. If we expect to make of Salem a city of any importance we must work in harmony for everything that will build the city up.

There will be many men out of employment, and this would give work to a large number of men while building and permanent employment to quite a good many more. The business and laboring men should see to it that none but enterprising men are elected to the city council, and such men as will advance the interests of Salem. We do not want a city council that will labor for the interest of any corporation, but one that will endeavor to advance the whole interest of our city.

LABORER.

WHAT SHALL WE CALL IT. The whole of the western hemisphere is now under a republican form of government, except Canada, which will some day be a part of the American republic, unless every indication is erroneous, and it is a fitting time to consider what our republic should be called. Its present name is the United States of America; but in view of the numerous other United States which are or will be in America, the name is, perhaps, too generic. There are already the United States of Columbia; there will soon be the United States of Brazil; there may be the United States of Central America; and perhaps in time, the United States of South America. We have the copyright claim to the name, it is true, but we may surrender it if we find a better one.

By common consent the United States—our United States—are known as America, and a citizen of this republic is known as an American. A native of Canada is just as much an American as a native of Kentucky, and yet he is always called a Canadian, just as a native of Mexico is called a Mexican and a native of Brazil a Brazilian. Why, then, should not this country be known as America and its political designation be the Republic of America? It is the oldest Republic, the greatest, the strongest, the wealthiest and the most progressive, and is fairly entitled to be considered as the type of America. This change would leave the title of United States in common among such nations as should see fit to adopt and use it.

The two continents, instead of being called America, might be called North and South Columbia, thus restoring to the adventurous Genoese the honor of which Amerigo Vespucci, unwillingly, perhaps, robbed him. By this change all ambiguity might be avoided and America would have a local and definite meaning. These suggestions are commended to the consideration of the Pan-American Congress now in session.

MOTOR OR NO MOTOR.

The first Monday in next month our city elects four councilmen. We desire to call the attention of the voters to that fact, and the further fact that the wealth and corporate interest of the city are growing formidable and to some extent dangerous to the public interest, unless properly guarded at the polls. Salem is liable to be controlled in the future by corporations and moneyed men, to the disadvantage of the public good and the interests of the city at large. We want a motor line of railways and other needful and necessary improvements, and therefore need men in our council who will forward that end. So let the candidates be interviewed and define themselves thoroughly before being voted for.—State Democrat.

ANOTHER defaulter has joined the rogues' colony in Canada. This time it is a piano merchant of Cleveland, who is short about $80,000. Like most of the other Eastern embezzlers, he was a pillar in church and society, and his dishonesty was never suspected until he had fled. It would be a great thing if all this gang of rascals could be gathered in and made to labor in the penitentiaries of the states they have disgraced, but in the present condition of extradition negotiations there is not much prospect of it.

MAN, like the fire, is apt to torment woman by going out at night.

Consumption the Lucidious Disease

With its attendant sufferings, can be relieved and often cured if Holden's Etheral Cough Syrup is taken promptly. Large size $1.00, small 50 cents. For sale by all Druggists.

John Wanamaker's Sunday school is the apple of his eye.

Over the Wall.

I like to sit beside the wall, Among the grasses green, And think, if I should peep, What things there might be seen.

Perhaps I'd see bold Robin Hood, With arrows, bow and brand; He'd fix his on lawed eyes on me And shake a threatening hand.

Then, in some terror I decide That it cannot be he, But that some nymph from Fairyland is waiting there for me.

And then I think that—oh! perhaps—The world has quite turned over, And China and Japan have come This side the sky's blue cover.

At that, I cannot stand it more, But over have to look, And see—the dear old every-day Green meadow and the brook.

—St. Nicholas.

The Hour of Death.

A variety of superstitions or curious ideas exist in regard to the hour of death. There is quite a prevalent notion that the largest proportion of deaths occur in the early hours of the morning, while dwellers by the sea are pretty generally credited with the belief that the majority of lives "go out with the tide," other impressions, perhaps less widespread, might be mentioned. It is, however, been recently stated that from time to time careful observations have been made in hospitals which have resulted in showing that the act of death takes place with fairly equal frequency during the whole twenty-four hours of the day. Very recently an investigation has been made in Paris, which showed that there was a certain falling off of the number of deaths between 7 and 11 o'clock in the evening, but that, with this exception, the proportion of deaths is about even.

CAUSE OF THE GROWL.

"What are you growling at, sir?" "At the amount you are eating, sir! Have you no regard for the feelings of a dyspeptic, sir?"

"No sir! Go and take a course of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla and you won't have the dyspeptic, sir!"

John Argall, of 628 Golden Gate avenue, writes: "You may also use my name as an additional authority that Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla will cure dyspepsia and liver and kidney complaint. It has done it for me."

James Wells, Oakland, Cal., writes: "I suffered acutely from dyspepsia for years, scarcely taking a meal without the distressing pains of indigestion. Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla relieved me of it entirely."

How to Keep Ice in a Sick Room.

A saucerful of shaved ice may be preserved for twenty-four hours with the thermometer at 90 degrees, Fahrenheit, according to the Medical Times, by observing the following precautions: Put the saucer containing the ice in a soup plate and cover it with another. Place the soup plates thus arranged on a good, heavy pillow, and cover it with another pillow, pressing the pillows so that the plates are completely imbedded in them. An old jack plane set deep is a most excellent thing with which to shave ice. It should be turned bottom upward, and the ice shaved backward and forward over the cutter.

A Woman's Discovery.

"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a woman in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamrick & Co. Shelby, N. C.—Get a free trial bottle at Daniel J. Fry's drug store.

John D. Rockefeller makes a hobby of churches, especially the Baptist.

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Sult, Druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of Rheumatism of two years' standing. Abraham Hare, druggist, Bellville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years' experience, is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only a half dollar a bottle at Daniel J. Fry's Drug-store.

Charles A. Dana delights in chrysanthemum culture.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Daniel J. Fry, druggist.

Catarrh

is a constitutional and not a local disease, and therefore it cannot be cured by local applications. It requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, working through the blood, eradicates the impurity which causes and promotes the disease, and affects a permanent cure. Thousands of people testify to the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for catarrh when other preparations had failed. Hood's Sarsaparilla also builds up the whole system, and makes you feel renewed in health and strength.

Catarrh

"I used Hood's Sarsaparilla for catarrh, and received great relief and benefit from it. The catarrh was very disagreeable, especially in the winter, causing constant discharge from my nose, ringing noises in my ears, and pains in the back of my head. The effect to clean my head in the morning by hawking and spitting was painful. Hood's Sarsaparilla gave me relief immediately, while in time I was entirely cured. I am never without Hood's Sarsaparilla in my house as I think it is worth its weight in gold." Mrs. G. B. GRAY, 1008 Eighth Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. Hood's Sarsaparilla sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass. 100 Doses One Dollar

Catarrh
