

THE CAPITAL JOURNAL.

MONMOUTH NOTES.

The sick are very much improved. Weather mild, but a change is visible.

Elsworth Barzee made a business trip to Fall City Tuesday, and reports things quiet at present, but indications for a boom in the spring.

Hog killing seems to be the general business of the farmers just now, judging by the loads of pork coming into town, although the price paid by packers is comparatively low, yet it pays somebody, as is evidenced by the retail price of bacon.

The F. S. D. company are closing out their business, it is not known what they intend doing, but very likely will engage in business elsewhere. They have made many friends while here, and will no doubt succeed wherever they go.

F. S.

Flat Life in New York.

If you live in a flat in New York city you soon get to know the days in which certain of your neighbors boil cabbage and others tryonions and to exorcise some one's pipe; you seem to have almost as much of the garlic as the family to whom persistent use of it knows no surcease; you may doubt whether the whiff that reaches you sometimes is from Limburger cheese or not, but you can't doubt the rottenness of the whiff; you realize how the arnica habit is growing on the young man learning to ride a bicycle, and you wonder whether so much iodoforn is really doing any good to whoever it is that uses it so constantly. Now and then a quite new, original and unassignable stench pervades the atmosphere of the house, and, remembering that that smallpox has one peculiar smell and scarlet fever another, you would really be pleased to know if that fragrance from the bottomless pit is like either of them, and if so, which?—New York Letter.

Bits of Wisdom.

Homely people make the best friends.

The more wealth a man has the louder his children talk.

No girl likes to be seen carrying a corset-box on the street.

A bafer has no right that a busy man is bound to respect.

When a man sees a door marked "Private" he wants to open it.

You can't realize how few dollars there are in a $5 bill until you break it.

For the Public Good.

It is an indisputable fact that the hand-some vestibule trains that are now run on the American continent are those on the Burlington route, leaving from Union depot in Denver, also St. Paul, immediately on arrival of all through trains from the west. The first and second class coaches are magnificent, the reclining chair cars, the Pullman sleepers extremely luxurious, and as for the meals that are served in these palace Burlington dining cars—yum-yum. The next time you go east to Kansas City, Chicago or St. Louis, if you mention to the ticket agent that you want your ticket to read from Denver or St. Paul over the Burlington route, you will get it, and you will always be glad of it.

If you go via the Northern or Canadian Pacific, the elegant vestibule trains of The Burlington Route, between St. Paul and Chicago, or St. Louis, will carry you along the eastern shore of the Mississippi river for a distance of 350 miles, amidst scenery that cannot be surpassed; or, if you go via the Oregon Short Line or Southern Pacific, and your ticket reads via The Burlington Route from Cheyenne or Denver, you will pass through all the thriving cities and towns located where the popularly known as the Heart of the Continent. For further information apply to A. C. Sheldon, General Agent, 55 First street, Portland, Oregon.

Surveyors, draftsmen, plat maps and descriptions of lands, townships, and roads, ditches, streets, sewers, alleys, etc., made and furnished at reasonable prices. Old corners and lines re-established from original field notes.
