COMMENTS ON THE MESSAGE.

Senator Hermann, of Oregon Much Pleased With President's Message.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 4th.—Mr. Hermann, of Oregon, says: "In regard to the message his reference to the Chinese questions though brief, will prove eminently satisfactory to the people of the state. He recognized that the last treaty negotiated was a father and more complete restriction of the Chinese labor immigration. With it he also advises further congressional action and frankly argues that this class of labor element so common within the Pacific is 'incompatible with our social relations,' and should be excluded. By this message the President places himself on a firm footing with our coast on this question and is in sympathy with congress in its efforts to effect a more complete restriction of Chinese labor immigration. 'Homes for homeless,' is another subject which received equally earnest and positive attention. The president indicates his disapproval of the large and fraudulent holdings of public domain, so common within the past years under the timber act especially where this is done through 'dummies,' or agents, but in reality for a common principal or rich syndicate. In no better manner and in no better place could Ben Harrison so well have written himself the poor man's friend. His advocacy of old soldiers' dependent pension will bring him nearer than ever to the old defenders.

HE WANTS MORE DOLLARS.

Mr. Townsend Emphatic for Free Coinage up to Four Millions.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Hosea Townsend, of Colorado, said to-day: "I am decidedly opposed to the law of the secretary of the treasury, to issue notes or certificates upon deposit of silver bullion at its market value. I am in favor of free coinage. If we cannot get free coinage, I want a monthly purchase of silver bullion inscribed to $4,000,000. The silver dollars which have been coined during the last few years, at the rate of $2,000,000 per month, have all gone into circulation through their representatives, silver certificates. I believe a much larger amount, namely, $4,000,000 per month, would just as readily go into general circulation and be at once abolished by the rapidly increasing demands of trade and population, but I am still more in favor of free coinage. It would be something of an experiment but I believe it would prove successful. I see that the president estimates that the silver dollar has been to a certain extent discredited. If that is true the government is responsible for it. Let this government cease to discredit white metal and there will be no further discrediting by any one.

RED TOP COTTAGE.

Mr. Cleveland Flatly Refuses to Sell It at Any Price.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 4.—Ex-President Cleveland either has an ardent attachment for Washington real estate, or else he hopes some day to be again located in Washington. At least such is the inference drawn by business men of this city who have learned of a recent offer made for the Red Top Cottage property. Several days ago a proposition was made to Mr. Cleveland for the purchase of his property, the amount offered being upwards of $150,000. This is about five times what the property cost him, but to the surprise of the bidder he was met with a flat but courteous refusal. In his reply, Mr. Cleveland said that Red Top is not for sale, and that it is his intention to preserve it as a country residence for himself. Further, he desired it understood that some day he proposed to take up his permanent abode at Red Top, and especially as it afforded him an opportunity for quietude and recreation.

From Across the Ocean.

LONDON, Dec. 4.—The Morning Post says: "If President Harrison carries out the peaceful progressive principles indicated in his message the whole world will be gainers thereby."

Stanley's Hair is White.

LONDON, Dec. 5.—The Herald commissioner under date of November 29, 5 p. m., says: "I have just met Stanley Emin Pasha, Casati, Hairs, Jephson, Dr. Parke, Nelson and Bonny and 500 men, women and children. I found Stanley looking exceedingly healthy. I presented him with the American flag, which is now flying from Stanley's tent. Stanley's hair is quite white. Emin Pasha in conversation said he did not wish any honors."

WASHINGTON GOSSIP.

The Oregon Representatives Hard at Work on Measures.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Representative Hermann has been doing much quiet work for his state in the department since his arrival. He says his congressional experience has taught him that it is not the talking member who is generally the most successful in legislation, but it is rather the politic, persistent, and yet the quiet worker. The volume of national legislation is now so vast in magnitude and so varied in details that the congress at large must defer almost exclusively to committee reports as a basis for action. Without a favorable report it is almost a miracle to secure the passage of a bill. To be represented in the proper committee is therefore of great importance to a state, and now more than ever.

Mr. Hermann was fortunate in his support of Mr. Reed, the successful candidate for speaker. They were closely associated in the last congress, having occupied adjoining seats. It was to him, Carter of Montana and McKenna of California that Mr. Reed relied for his reserve force in the extreme West to elect. Mr. Hermann will seek a place on the committee of rivers and harbors, where he claims he can be of greater service to his seat than through any other committee. Wilson, of Washington, and Carter, of Montana, will both favor this assignment. The former will seek a place on public lands committee, and the latter on coinage, weights and measures.

OREGON AND CALIFORNIA TRAINS DELAYED—Extraordinary Rainfall.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—The present storm continued last night, extending over the entire state, as well as east of the Sierra mountains. In the mountains there was a heavy snowfall in a short time, but the two big rotary snow-shovels of the railroad made quick work with the track covering so that no delays of consequence resulted.

In the Siskiyou mountains the snow became rain, and down it came in torrents. At Middle creek, three miles north of Redding, a washout resulted from the heavy downpour, and about seventy feet of track was undermined and carried away. This disaster delayed the down Oregon express, due here at 7:45 a. m. to-day, and it did not reach here until evening. It is probable the train due to-morrow will also be delayed, as well as northbound trains.

A force of men went up from Red Bluff, and the work of repair is in active progress. There has been an enormous quantity of rain in this section, and trouble was anticipated by railroad men.

AT DELTA, TWENTY-EIGHT MILES ABOVE REDDING, OVER THREE FEET OF RAIN HAS ALREADY FALLEN.
