KITTY FROM CORK.—The renowned Dan and Josie Morris Sullivan Mirror of Ireland combination, presented the very laughable Irish play, entitled "Kitty From Cork," at the opera house last evening to an appreciative audience. For some unaccountable reason the attendance was not as large as it should have been; nevertheless those present had the pleasure of listening to as good a comedy company as have occupied the opera house here in many a day. Dan Morris Sullivan is a good comedian, and in his many parts did exceedingly clever acting. Josie Morris Sullivan as "Kitty" was the favorite of the evening. She is a leading star and chief mistress of the role. Maurice Daniels is a young man possessing a rich voice, and his explanations relating to the panorama of Ireland, were very interesting. Gus Mortimore made a first-class "nigger," and the troubles that he and "Kitty" managed to get into fairly shook the house. Sullivan as "Ditchy," of course was immense. A better house will greet them tonight.

STOLE HIS SHIRTS.—Night before last some sneak thief entered the yard of Mrs. Phillips and stole from the clothes line several articles of clothing. Among the rest was a pair of fine flannel shirts, belonging to one of the boys. Jay says they always manage to get his best. It is only a short time ago that some one entered his room and took a new coat and vest. But fearing to wear them, rolled them up and hid them under the steps of the Fruit dryer building, and notified Jay of the fact by letter, and he in this way recovered the coat and vest. He says he would be very happy now if they would do the same by the shirts.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION.—Articles of incorporation were filed with the Secretary of State today, as follows: The Yaquina Bay Board of Trade; the principal office is in Newport, Benton county, Oregon, with J. R. Bagly, Sam'l Case, A. J. Ray, F. E. Dodge, Geo. A. Landis, A. E. Elkerton, R. Baker, W. H. Hurford and W. C. Shepard. The La Grande Company; capital stock, $5,000; divided into shares of $10 each, with N. P. Phim, B. W. Gaudy and Henry Willey as incorporators. Also the South Port Townsend Lead Co.; principal office in Portland, Oregon; capital stock $50,000; divided into 500 shares, with O. V. Monroe, Geo. Flanders and J. W. Ogilvie as incorporators.

WANT IT CHANGED.—The citizens of Independence and Monmouth would like to have the mail service between Salem and the above named places changed. They would like to have the stage leave Salem in the morning and return in the evening. As it is the stage leaves Independence in the morning and returns in the evening. In conversing with a prominent business man of Monmouth he said that the citizens in Independence and Monmouth would be very much pleased with the change should it be made.

WILL MAKE A SURVEY.—In a correspondence from Yaquina City to the Oregonian, the writer states that the railroad committee will at an early day make a survey of the proposed Newport, King's Valley & Salem railroad through the Siletz reservation, file maps and secure the consent of the Indians, as required by the act of congress. Portland will, before long, realize that this projected road is her best outlet to the coast, and an enterprise she should take an interest in.

MOVING.—Minto and Lowe are moving into their elegant new barn today from their old headquarters on Commercial street. They expect to soon have everything in running order at their new location and then will have one of the finest livery barns in the state. It is not known what will be done with their old quarters, but it is more than possible that some elegant new bricks will be erected there soon.

A NEW PAPER.—The Willamette Valley Tribune, of Independence, with J. H. Stine as editor, has made its appearance in the newspaper field, and makes a very good showing for its town as well as its publishers. It starts out as independent in politics, but we trust it will soon see fit to affiliate with the party of progress and prosperity for the nation. In this day of barb-wire a newspaper can't be "on the fence" any great length of time.

A RARE BARGAIN.—The Willamette Investment Co. offer the three best lots in Mill addition at $350 each. Lots 50x240. Remember this property is only six blocks from the business houses and is near the brick mills.

POSTPONED.—The bazar to be given by the ladies of the M. E. church has been postponed until Dec. 20th. This affair promises to be one of some note, and quite a display of articles of a miscellaneous nature will be exhibited.

UNITARIAN.—The pastor being out of the city, there will be no preaching at the Unitarian hall tomorrow. Sunday school at 12 m. as usual. The mental philosophy class will be conducted by Mrs. England.

Painless dental operations at Dr. T. C. Smith's, 99 State street.

THE SOCIAL WORLD.

A Busy Week in the Whirl of Society.

THE KIBELIE-WHITNEY MARRIAGE

Salem Social Club—Surprise Party—Coming Attractions Among the Grist of Society Gossip.

All communications intended for this Department should be addressed to the Society Editor, CAPITAL JOURNAL.

The social world has been a busy one this week. In today's JOURNAL is reported a list of what has been going on during the week. The season is just fairly begun and the writer promises some splendid gatherings.

SALEM SOCIAL CLUB.

The first large party of the season was held at the opera house on Tuesday last under the auspices of the Salem Social club, which in itself implies what a brilliant introduction to the winter's festivities it was. Salem has long borne the reputation, both at home and abroad of giving successful parties, and on this occasion did not fail to render the assurance of fully maintaining and of adding to this reputation the coming winter. The floor of the opera house was most excellently canvassed. This with the selection of music as rendered by Parson's orchestra of Portland, assisted by Mr. Ross afforded all true lovers of dancing an evening of the fullest enjoyment. It is impossible to do the musical portion of the entertainment full justice, as it was certainly a rare treat to all who know and love good music. Several new and beautiful selections were given. Those most noteworthy was the waltz—"Dreams of Childhood," "Our Own," an arrangement for the Lancers, which includes a few well remembered favorites of long ago, with many others that only tend to verify the excellent judgment of the young men instrumental in giving the party, in providing such music.

Dancing continued until a late hour when merry good nights were exchanged and so ended one of the pleasantest parties given. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Riley, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Manning, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Boggs, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Easton, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Willard, Miss Nellie Gilbert, Miss Louisa Huelat, Miss Belle Golden, Miss Ethel Cusick, Miss Grace Gillingham, Miss Mary Chadwick, Miss May Smith, Miss Kate Dalrymple, Miss Lella Waters, Miss Crump, Miss Nellie Boise, Miss Edna Scott, (of San Francisco), Miss Gussie Geisy, Miss Ruth Matthews, Miss Maggie Savage, Miss Gertie Savage, Miss Lena Breyman, Miss Ada Breyman, Miss Minnie Breyman, Miss May Boise, Miss Agnes Easthart, (of Portland), Miss Leona Willis, Miss Sumrubble, (of San Francisco), J. Westcott, C. A. Baker, R. D. Gilbert, R. P. Boise, Jr., F. R. Cross, C. D. Gabrielson, J. B. Phillips, J. M. Keene, E. P. McCormack, T. C. Smith, Jr., J. C. Griffith, H. D. Patton, C. C. Patton, F. W. Waters, W. J. Clarke, J. B. F. Geisy, Geo. G. Brown, Isaac Scott, H. S. Jordan, T. A. Howard, W. J. D'Arcy, A. W. Geisy, P. H. D'Arcy, W. A. Munley, E. Willis, P. Willard, I. W. Watson, (Portland), Benj. Towne, Abe McCully, Wm. B. Ladue, (Portland).

HELEN BLYTHE.

Among the coming attractions that are noticeable is the first appearance in this city of Helen Blythe at the opera house in "A Mother's Love." She makes her first appearance here on Monday evening. The Oregonian of December the 4th says that this very finished artist gave her second performance in her latest success, "A Mother's Love," at the New Park theater last night. It is rarely any artist receives the praise and creates so favorable opinion as Miss Blythe has. It does not seem to be generally known to the theater-goers of Portland that they have in the person of Helen Blythe an extraordinarily gifted actress. Miss Blythe, at 17 years of age, was the leading lady of Daly's theater, New York, when Miss Rehan was the soubrette. It was considered a marvelous thing for a girl to step into the position vacated by Clara Morris and Fanny Davenport. This, however, Miss Blythe did.

Miss Blythe is surrounded by a splendid dramatic company. Her leading support, Mr. Joseph Brien, was leading man for the renowned and lamented Adelaide Nelson, he playing "Romeo" to her "Juliet" for two years. The New Park theater also deserves special mention for the orchestra, which is under the direction of T. Wilnot Eckert. Miss Blythe again tonight.

THE JINGLERS.

The musical event of the season will be the appearance of "The Jinglers" at Reeds opera house on Saturday evening Dec. 20th. "The Jinglers are immense." The Santa Barbara Morning Press says that a large audience greeted the Jinglers at Leoro's theatre last night, and to-night there will be a larger one if the enthusiasm displayed is any guide to judge by, the singing throughout was good, every song being loudly encored. The house fairly shook with applause. The negro melodies are full of music, and when rendered as they were last night, touch a sympathetic cord in every American audience. The imitation of a Santa Barbara band, a calypso and Chinese singing brought down the house. Special mention of any song or either of the singers cannot be made, as all were excellent.

FIVE O'CLOCK TEA.

Last evening quite a number of the ladies of the Missionary society of the Presbyterian church, were entertained by Mrs. J. W. Crawford at her home on Commercial street. A "five o'clock tea" was served, and those who were present spent some time in pleasant and social conversation while sipping the fragrant draughts of "a tea." A short time afterward the delighted guests bid a pleasant adieu to their hostess and sought their several homes.

GRAND CONCERT.

On Thursday evening, the Philharmonic society and Conservatory of Music, assisted by Miss Hallie Parrish, Miss Leona Willis, Mr. Jas. Ross and Messrs. Keller, Chase and Easton, will give a grand entertainment at Reed's opera house. The event will be one long remembered in Salem. It will be one of the richest musical treats ever given in Salem. A chorus of forty voices will participate in the affair. Reserved seats on sale at Patton's.

MARRIAGE.

Marriage of Mr. Louis Kibelie and Miss Cora Whitney. Invited guests filled the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Staiger on Wednesday evening to witness the marriage of their niece, Miss Cora Whitney to Mr. Louis Kibelie. The ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. E. S. Bollinger, pastor of the Evangelical Church of this city. The bride and groom then received the hearty congratulations of their friends. A beautiful wedding supper then added to the pleasure of the evening. The happy couple received many useful and costly presents with the best wishes of their friends for a life of unalloyed happiness.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Staiger, Miss Pottorf, Miss Lena Bier, Miss Addie Bowersox, Miss Leona Gilmore, Miss Alice Steiner, Miss Mary Steiner, Miss Kibelie, Mrs. J. Burkholder, Miss Anna Diven, Miss Ida Purvine, Mr. Bishop, Mr. Kreger, Mr. Woodward, Mr. John Moir, Mr. H. Schellburg, Mr. J. Baumgardner, Mr. Lee Steiner, Mr. B. Critchlow, Mr. F. Wiggins, Mr. Aral, Mr. P. Willis, Mr. E. S. Bollinger.

SOCIAL GATHERING.

Last night a number of young folks called in at the residence of Mr. Geo. Collins, on Court street, to spend the evening with Miss Edna Scott, who will leave for her home in San Francisco Monday night. Miss Scott formerly lived in Salem, and has been visiting at Mrs. Geo. Collins, during the past summer. She will be missed by the circle of young folks of this city that she has mingled pleasantly with during her stay in the city. The following young folks were present: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Smith, Miss Edna Scott, Miss Jessie Gill, of Portland, Miss Edna Moody, Miss Nellie Edes, Miss Reta Lonsdale, Miss Belle Golden, Miss Gussie Geisy, Miss Louisa Huelat, Miss Esther Collins, Mr. Lee Steiner, Mr. Clare Baker, Mr. John Westcott, Mr. Frank Cross, Mr. Henry Myers, Mr. Otto Wilson, and Mr. John Geisy.

SURPRISE PARTY.

A surprise party was given in honor of Mr. Ed Byrd, at the residence of his parents on Union street last evening. The evening was spent in playing various games, and at a late hour the young people departed homeward after spending a delightful evening. The following young folks were present: Miss Clara Litchfield, Miss Ida Burley, Miss Lou Sayer, Miss Portia Knight, Miss Mary Matthews, Miss Stella Griffith, Miss Dimple Baker, Miss Inez Rotan, Miss Lulu Sargeant, Miss Mollie Bernardi, and Miss Millie Rogers, Mr. Homer Craven, Mr. Del. Dinsmore, Mr. Oswald West, Mr. Fred Stewart, Mr. Martin Durbin, Mr. Charles McNary, Mr. Ancil Booth, Mr. Horace Willis, and Mr. Atkin.

DIME SOCIABLE.

The residence of Prof. E. B. McElroy, Superintendent of Public Instruction was a scene of pleasantry last evening. The occasion was a social gathering called a "dime sociable," given for the benefit of the Christian church. The attendance was very large and a most delightful time was spent in various ways during the evening. These dime gatherings are becoming quite popular and serve to do good in a number of ways. Those present departed at a reasonable hour and expressed themselves as delighted with the event.

PLEASANT HOUR SOCIETY.

The Salem Pleasant Hour Society met Thursday evening at their hall and spent a very pleasant and social evening. The attendance was good. Dancing was the order of the evening and those present participated in tripping to the sweet strains of music until the midnight hour, when the society adjourned to meet again Friday evening, December 20th. Supper was served at the Candy Kitchen afterward all departed for their several homes. This society has enjoyed some pleasant evenings this winter and is now going ahead under flattering circumstances.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

The following programme will be given at the M. E. church to-morrow evening. PROGRAMME. Gospel Hymns. Prayer. Harvest Time is Passing By. Reading Scripture. Duett, Miss Parish and Miss Scriber. Hymn, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul." Quartet, "The Heavenly City." Misses Adams and Brown and Messrs. Epey and Glen. Solo, "The Good Samaritan," Prof. Parvin. Remarks by the Pastor. Tris. "That Me and old Story." Misses Hall and Dea. Boy and Mr. Bozarth. Anthem. Solo, "The Good Samaritan." Miss Parish. Biology. Benediction.

Henry Barendrick came down on the afternoon train from Jefferson. Miss Maud Jackson is convalescing after contracting a very severe cold. Miss Hallie Parrish returned home from Lebanon on the afternoon train.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gray have returned home from the trip to California. Commissioner Forrest, of Washington, paid Napoleon Davis a visit this week.

Mr. F. S. Barzee and two daughters came up from Portland last night, and will return to their home in Monmouth to-day.

Marshal James Ross returned home to-day from Portland, where he went to deliver his man who was wanted in Portland for larceny.

S. Friedman, the genial manager of the Capitol Adventure company's store, is home after a pleasant visit and business trip to the Sound country. He will remain in the city during the holidays looking after the great rush at their store rooms on Court and Liberty streets.

Sedgwick Post, No. 10, G. A. R., will hold a camp-fire at their post rooms, in the State Insurance building, on Monday evening next, to which all soldiers and sailors are invited to come and bring their families. An entertaining programme will be rendered. The committee on entertainment is requested to be at the hall Monday.

HE LEADS.—Geo. D. Goodhue No. 95 State street, the only wood and coal dealer in Salem carrying a complete stock, always reliable. If.

OTTERS.—John Kaiser went hunting yesterday and succeeded in capturing two large otters in the slough just below Mrs. Kaiser's house. The animals measured nearly five feet each, and were fine specimens of that tribe.

FARMERS' DAY.—This has been a regular farmers' day for Salem. The streets have been thronged since early this morning and as we go to press the streets present a bustling sight. Many are preparing for the holidays and the merchants are happy.

A BUSY FIRM.—Catterlin & Lussier the photographers are kept quite busy now taking photographs and doing other work in their line. There is nothing more appropriate than a handsome likeness of yourself, for a holiday present to a friend or relation.

WORKING AWAY.—The projectors of the Motor line are busily at work arranging the details of that meritorious undertaking. This is a big work, and consequently consumes much time in the perfecting of all arrangements. The delay is to be regretted, but as it will result in ultimate good we can well afford to wait.

NOT LOCATED.—The county court has not yet decided officially upon the site for the armory, although it is almost settled that the proposition made by Mr. O. E. Krauss will be accepted. The sight is a good one, and as he proposes to make a donation of it to the boys, the money saved on buying the land will go a long ways on building an armory.

SUDDENLY ILL.—Last evening, shortly after eight o'clock, Miss Ella Macy was taken suddenly dangerously ill. A physician was hastily dispatched for, and after a time succeeded in restoring his patient somewhat, and this morning she is feeling much better. The many friends of Miss Macy will be grieved to hear of her illness. She was in her usual good health up to the time she was taken ill. The physicians think the trouble is only temporary, and that in a few days she will be her usual self again, which is earnestly hoped by a host of friends.

"We Point With Pride" To the "good name at home," won by Hood's Sarsaparilla. In Lowell, Mass. where it is prepared, there is more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold than of all other medicines, and it has given the best satisfaction since its introduction ten years ago. This could not be if the medicine did not possess merit. If you suffer from impure blood, try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

WANTED TO RENT.—A small house or cottage with five or six rooms. Inquire at CAPITAL JOURNAL office.

HOLIDAY GOODS.—Opened this week, an entire new lot of novelties suitable, and in fact, just the thing for holiday gifts and presents, at the White Corner, J. Meyer. 12-1m

Go to Wm. Benson's New Candy and cigar Store, for the finest line of candy, cigars and tobacco, in the city. All good, new and fresh. 168 State street.

GIBB WILL BE REMEMBERED—And if you want to be remembered by your friends, give them a photograph of yourself, taken by Catterlin & Lussier.

See Wm. Sargent's fine line of holiday goods, consisting of plush goods, ornaments, oil paintings, toys, picture frames, toilet sets, etc.

BORN.

RYLEY.—To the wife of Richard Ryley, on Dec. 6th, at Elgin, Illinois, a boy, weight ten pounds. Dick was a former Salemite, and while here was a member of the Salem band, and his many friends here in the city send hearty congratulations.

A CALIFORNIA SENSATION.

It is reported that the sales of the "California Remedy," Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla, have grown within a few months till they are now really sensational. The way the fame of this production has spread is simply marvelous. Six months ago it was unknown. Today it is all over the country. It is authoritatively stated that they have been actually giving it away in San Francisco to people afflicted with dyspepsia, sick headaches, indigestion and liver troubles, not to be paid for unless it cured. Such practical tests are so startlingly convincing as to be almost sensational. It is stated that two of the active principles of the new remedy belong to the vegetable kingdom of California, and are so well known to us all under common names that it would surprise us if told them. But we are not surprised at anything Californian, and this recent discovery of the new medicinal virtues of its vegetable kingdom is but another instance of the astonishing possibilities of a soil and climate like ours.
